EARTH DEVELOPMENT

By

Oswald Gonzalez and Wendelle Stevens

Mr. Oswald Gonzalez' experiences with ET beings began in 1936 when he was only 5 years old and continued for many years, through the advent of the now popular phase of the phenomenon in 1947. By then he was already an oldtimer.

By High School he was making notes on his contacts and then began keeping a diary of his dialogues with the Ets

By 1949 he was typing up his contact notes and filled 12 notebook binders with them. He was an avid researcher and read all he could find on the subject. His contacts continued until 1972 when events in his life changed for him.

This is an amazing record of actual contacts that began 11 years before the word "Flying Saucer" was coined by the Press over the Kenneth Arnold report, and which predated nearly all we know now. Many subsequent cases have now proved a great many things that Oswald experienced then.

PREFACE

This case all began for me like a number of others featured in my UFO CONTACT FROM . . . . . series of library style hard bound book reports.

A correspondent who already had one or more of my reports, and was ordering another, mentioned that he had had personal experiences like the kind I was reporting, but had learned long ago that things so bizarre were actually a turn-off and nobody was really interested in hearing about it, not even his good friends. He resigned himself to keeping his secret, and comforted himself by maintaining detailed notes on the places, dates and times of his contacts, as well as dialogue, descriptions of things seen and event details. Would I be interested in hearing more?

I responded immediately by saying yes and asking him to tell me more, which he did by return mail. When he mentioned filling a number of notebooks with descriptions of the contact events, dialogue with the visitors, and sketches, I became really excited and urged him to sit down and try to put it all down in narrative form in some kind of chronological order. He agreed to begin working on this.

I let a visiting friend of mine read Oswaldo's letter, and after doing so his comment was, "It's a great story, but this fellow knows too much and has read a lot of contemporary material on the subject." My reaction was, who wouldn't. With his experiences he would be looking everywhere for answers, and for corroborations for himself, just as I, under the same circumstances would be doing.

I have therefore decided to include those first communications in this Preface, so that you may feel the excitement of a developing new classic in the field of this phenomenon. Here then is the initial development of the Oswald Gonzalez case of contact from NEP-4.

Investigator -
Dear Mr. Stevens:

Since my experiences and contact phenomena which began with me at the age of five (5), and once again re-reading the accounts you described in two of your books "UFO..Contact From Reticulum" and "UFO Contact From Reticulum - A Supplemental Report of Investigation", re-reading them for a third time, I really didn't know if I should give you my accounts with our Extraterrestrial Mentors or to remain quiet about these incidents which have truly given me a new outlook upon life here in our fleshly garbs.

When reading about William Herrmann's threatening phone calls and letters being intercepted by the individual who identified himself as Tom Olsen who was said to be a 'fake' or false identification, I once again felt that maybe I better not write to you about anything I experienced since my childhood up to 1972, when I was 42 years old. I'm now 72, soon to be 73 on August 21, 2003. But then I decided, 'why not, because I have had a full enjoyable life, and maybe it is time to tell about my accounts and experiences. I trust in your investigative experiences that what I will relate to you will remain in strict confidence, and I wish to remain anonymous in order to not have some bad experiences done to me as was done in my past younger years.

When my experiences ended in 1972, I decided to become a 'free-lance investigator' and opened up a wide field of paranormal and 'hard to conceive' material from UFO's to assassinations and other fascinating information. I became interested in finding out if there were others who had similar experiences and is why I found your books so fascinating that I ordered as much material as I could to include in my own library the many accounts that have surfaced since the 1947 Roswell and Aztec, New Mexico incidents. I was also very interested in Eduard (Billy) Meier's accounts in Switzerland. When I wrote to him, he sent a few of his photographs of the Pleidian craft. What interested me most was the fact that his accounts of the 'extraterrestrials' and their make-up of their physical appearances were, (and are) very similar to my own accounts.

I was born in Humacao, Puerto Rico, my parents being originally from Spain and moved to Puerto Rico before I was born, and when I was almost 10 months old, my parents decided to move to New York City, to the Bronx area. (These things were told to me years later.) Because the apartment my parents lived in was overcrowded with simblings, namely six children, Social Services decided to reassure my mother that it was best for her to have some of her eleven children board at a Catholic Home - St. Joseph's in Peekskill, New York. I was a year old when I and others of my family were sent to the Catholic home. My mother had two sets of twins, my older sisters, and my own twin brother George. My parents were allowed to visit twice a month on a Sunday.

My experiences started while in the home at the age of 5, and always at night before I went to sleep. That first month startled me so much, I cried so loud that the Nun in charge would come running to my bedside to comfort me. At first, Mr. Stevens, I did not know or understand what was happening, and when asked, I could only reply, "I don't know." The feelings I received happened once a week when it started, but after that they came more frequently. When I say 'feelings', I want to explain exactly what kind of feelings they were. It felt like I was completely immersed within a "bubble" so to speak, a Spiritual Bubble that made me feel like I was a giant and everything around me was as small as a 'pinhead.' I use to term it "The Bigness" because that's how I felt. Of course, I learned much later that they enveloped me in a protective shield of radiant light, sometimes blue, sometimes an emerald green light. To this day, I sometimes still see that light.

When I was able to tolerate the feelings that came over me, I began feeling a lifting sensation, like I was going "up" in the blue or green light to somewhere. During my ten years at St. Joseph's, these sensations remained with me, until I began realizing where I was being lifted into. I knew I was in a large oval room that had chairs around some computer consols. (Of course, I didn't know at the time what they were called, but I soon found out.) I had many conversations with "them" in their 'star-ship they called a "Vimanos," (Ship of Light.) When I asked Why they picked me? they said, "It was purposed to be so." During the first few years I was never given to see the inside of their craft; not until I was seven or eight was I allowed. Even then, I couldn't comprehend what I was seeing.

My brothers and sister were taken back home one by one over the years, and at the age of ten, my twin and I finally left to live once again with my parents in the Bronx. The sensations and trips by the light didn't stop, and when I confided in my mother about my experiences, it was amazing to me that she was not surprised because during her lifetime in Puerto Rico, she too was taken aboard the craft but kept these incidents to herself because latin people are somewhat superstitious about unknown phenomena that she feared they would tell her she was being visited by demons. (Another case of fearful ridicule, because I was to experience the same ridicule from my friends at school and elsewhere later on in life.)

Because of my mother's health and the weather in New York, her doctor confided in her to move to California, to a warmer climate, which we did. We moved to San Francisco, California, where I excelled in Music, Art, Science and Religion. In 1946 I was struck by a car when going to my music lessons, breaking both legs in the lower section of both legs, cut an artery in my head, and was in a coma for five days at San Francisco Hospital. I was placed in traction casts up to my hips for a few months, and then sent home to recuperate for nine more months. While in that comatose state I had a near-death-experience, where I was once again confronted with my alien mentors, and was told that I would see them again in a desert place some years hence, and that I would heal without difficulty.

In your books, you mentioned that Herrmann had developed some senitive talents while aboard the alien craft. I learned that there are no coincidents in life, yet when I read about his sensitive talents, I wasn't surprised to read about that. My many trips aboard their craft awakened in me from my pineal gland in the back of my head these same familiar talents. I became clairvoyant, and was also able to receive clairaudiently through my inner ear and also was able to receive through automatic writing many messages of grave importance, with many messages pertaining to scriptures and things in the Bible (King James Version.)

Many times while at my job, 'they' would send me a telepathic message that when I returned home that evening, they wished to send me information through the automatic writing ability. I went to S.F. State College and San Diego State to get my degree in Architectural Drafting. I received my degree and worked on many construction jobs as assistant draftsman, until I asked if I could start building the houses I was drawing. I did so for a number of years, and ended up as a cabinet maker for Anaheim Memorial Hospital for 17 years, until I was 65 and decided to retire, which I did. I married before that, no children, being my second marriage.

I'm getting a little ahead of my story. I was continually receiving clairaudiently and telepathically since 1949. I was drafted into the Army in 1950 and all contacts subsided until 1952, when I was honorably discharged. Now things were seeming to come more alive, that is, I would be taken through Transformation of Light into their craft when they had important information that they wished to relate to me. I always knew ahead of time that they wished to make contact with me by the "Bigness" feeling I would receive. I lived in my own apartment in Anaheim, and after I had dinner, I was told to relax and they would do the rest. I was single, but my twin brother was married with three children at the time. My sister-in-law was frightened when I would relate to my twin about the contacts, and thought it was the devil that was overpowering me. It took quite a bit of persuasion to let her see that it wasn't the devil, because the devil would not relate explanations concerning scriptures.

In 1949 I began typing my contacts in a binder, relating all what transpired with my alien mentors. I was very good at typing, maybe 60 words a minute. By 1958, I had written (typed) nearly 12 binders of information that pertained to make-up of their craft, their propulsion systems, how their craft were built, and so on. I was also given many truthful transcriptions of the Bible, many unknown facts that would surprise the clergy and theologians. In many cases, I was told to leave the minister's office when I would relate what I received, and was told that the devil had hold on me -- and to stop whatever I was doing or I would be condemned for life. How sad that so many are ignorant of the truth when it is presented to them head on. They would have to change their whole way of thinking if they accepted what I was told.

During one of my contacts, I wanted to know exactly where they came from, and was told to secure a slide projector and slides of some of the Nebulai and Constellations at the Los Angeles Planetary Conservatory. I did so, and on one occasion I set up the slide projector in my apartment and started showing the slides one by one. With each slide I was given a great deal of information concerning how planets came about. When I showed the Milky Way Galaxy, they stated that within this Galaxy where a number of life-forms on worlds similar to our own, and had planets rotating around a central sun like our own. When I came to the slide which showed the Horse Nebulai, they blasted out -- "It is in this Galaxy of worlds that we come from." He asked me to get a 'pointer' and he would point out their exact location I had no pointer, so I used a pencil which they considered just fine.

In the Horse Nebulai, at the western and northern section there were two bright stars or suns. He said that these twin stars have revolving planets that have life as you know your own forms. If they were to remain on our planet, it would be difficult for anyone to realize that 'they' are not of this world because they look just like us in shape, form and can pass themselves off as one of us even to our clothing. One of the bright stars or sun he told me was termed "Nep-4, Constellation 12, Variance 6-478," where is said to be his home. The other twin star was termed "Nep-7, Constellation 4, Variance 6-479." This was the home of some of the crew members on board their craft.

It was time for me to ask if they had names like we do on earth? He answered, "By all means. We call them identification labels. He told me that his identification label was ZEBBAN, and that his second "Transporter's" name was "LIOM". I asked if he would tell me the names of his crew, but he replied that "it is not necessary to relate to you at this time the names of my crew members; that perhaps at a future time if it was fitting." I asked him how many crew members were aboard his craft, and he replied, "Twelve, including myself. Each crew member has his or her functions to corroberate and simplify the mode of travel. What is not known by you now is that we can also function by "THOUGHT TRANSFERENCE", which in simple terms for your understanding is to just "THINK" a speed of trajectory and it is done immediately."

I was dumbfounded by that remark, and he considered my thoughts and said, "Once, aeons ago, your own world had this function of Thought Transference, but because of the evil that persisted on a continual basis, such a function was removed from the minds of the populace. This occurred after the destruction of the continents of Lemuria and Atlantis. I then asked, "Why is it that you travel such a distance from your Constellation to our world? Are we so worthy?" To that question, he answered,.."We traverse the Cosmos continually in search of other life-forms that we know the Divine One has created and formed. You are not alone in the Cosmos of Cosmos. Travel to your world or any other in your system takes but a short time since, as I said, we use Thought Transference. It is simply a matter of projecting our thoughts to a known area and systematically cause the thoughts to traverse to a desired area. It is not difficult for us, though it appears in your thinking to be amazing. We come to others upon your planet as is purposed to do so as I have told you earlier." This contact occurred on March 14, 1949.

I asked Zebban if he could give me his height and weight and also the same for Liom? Without hesitation, he answered: "My height in vertical stance is 5' - 8" in equal height to your own. I am not at liberty to include our measurement of weight. Your thoughts pertain to our garments and you wonder why we have no seams or zippers (as you term them) or buttons. You will be amazed at our ways we fit into our garments termed clothing. Our garments are formed into one-piece so as to not cause any undue hinderance from movement. In answer to your preconceived thought, we merely THINK THEM ON, and is why you do not perceive any form of enclosure. THOUGHT is a most powerful source of energy. Many aeons ago, when your planet was first inhabited, the spirits from Sirius used this form of energy to clothe themselves with animal and fowl. Your scriptures inform you of this matter concerning the tale of Sodom and Gomorrah. That detailed information will be given you at another time."

Their clothing covered their arms to their wrists and neck, and extended down to their feet, even used as a covering for their feet. The clothing was the color of a shiny blue texture, with darker stripes around the wrist area, with a peculiar design of yellow with features that looked like spun gold around the neck. The waist had a dark- blue and yellow stripe that did not join at the center but somewhat off center. It wasn't a belt but was cinched firmly to his waist. He had golden-blonde hair that fell to his shoulders. His appearance was awesome because he had a yellow glow around his entire body, which seemed to me to be a sort of protective shield.

Mr. Stevens! When I read in your book about the clothing on the aliens of Herrmann's contact, he stated that he did not see any zippers or such. I wonder...Do you suppose that they did likewise in putting on their clothing -- just by 'thinking it on?' Just a thought. Pardon the pun.

Liom wore an identical type of clothing. His height was 7'-4" and also had that same yellowish glow about his body. His hair was brown and also flowed to shoulder length. Zebban's eyes were blue, and Liom's eyes were dark brown. Their skin texture was identical to our own. One difference that I observed with Liom surprised me. He was freckled-faced, something that I took notice to. The other crew members were all about the same height -- 5'-6" and all wore tan-colored garments.

By 1968 I had typed a total of 26 binder volumes of information given over a period of time. That year was not a happy one for me due to some undo circumstances pertaining to my volumes of information, along with my polaroid photographs. We had company over as usual in November, very near Thanksgiving time. Our friends from the church, with my permission, invited another guest, a female born-again Christian to have dinner and later discussions concerning my contacts. She appeared to be one of those individuals who crammed alot of theological material into a one-time sitting if you know what I mean.

Before my friends left for the evening, they asked me if they could borrow my volumes of information to read and discuss with the new Christian friend? I felt no harm in this and said, 'Sure, I'll get them and the polaroid shots, but to be very careful with them because I did not have copies.' They thanked me and left. The polaroid shots of the craft while in flight were excellent pictures. But a few of the photos I took when the craft was on the ground did not come out very good due to the intense field of force that extended outwards around the craft. After a few weeks had passed, I thought it was enough time for them to complete the reading. I called them and they said they were not through and if they could have some more time. I told them okay I'll give you another week.

That Sunday when my brother and his family and I went to church, I saw our friends with the lady (whose name I wish not to devulge). After church, and outside, I asked them if they were through reading my material along with my photo's. I could see the hesitation on their faces when they didn't answer me right away. I felt they were hiding something, and asked them again. Steve pulled me aside and told me what had taken place. He said that when they were through with reading the material along with the lady, she abruptly snapped out loud that she felt the material was the works of the devil, and grabbed many of the binders and through them in her fireplace that night into a fire that was going strong, and also threw all the photo's along with many of my binders. They burned completely before any of them could stop her.

I was so mad and angry I began screaming profanity at them, especially at this so-called Christian woman because it wasn't her property or decision to do such a thing. The minister came over and told me that he considered the material the devil's work. I also screamed profanity at him for his ignorance in his decision. I told all of them that I never wanted anything to do with them - ever, and told the minister I will no longer attend his church. And I haven't since that day a week before Christmas. I went home crying and very upset because now I had no proof to show anyone. Because of that incident, other assistant minister's came to my home to discuss the matter. I talked with them outside my home, and they began ridiculing and telling me to get back on track with the Lord. Little did they know that a great deal of the material that was burned applied to the workings of the Bible and the Lord. I told these people that I was filing a lawsuit against the church and the woman who deliberatly destroyed my material and photo's.

I filed suit but nothing ever came of it. I vowed then and there that I would never again give my workings to any agency, government or military, or civilian. I was harassed and ridiculed with malicious contempt and even called a devil worshipper. This entire incident hurt me to the core and is why I have never taken the liberty to divulge any form of information again to anyone. It didn't stop my contacts, not in the least. Zebban made me feel good about myself and said that much of the material will come back to me, that I should remain patient and to forgive those who trespassed against me. My heart was not in it, but I did end of forgiving and trying to forget the entire matter. All I have is the story of my experiences somewhat in my head Mr. Stevens.

The time arrived in early April of 1958 when Zebban, through automatic writing told me of a rendevous that they planned with me in a desert place. The writings were received in March of 1958. The writings suggested that I pick up a Topographical map of the Ivanpah Mountain Range in the Mojave Desert, California, which showed the way toward the town of Searchlight, Nevada. I was directed to take the road that leads to Searchlight and that they would signal to me when I arrived. It was April 12, 1958 when I left for the site. I had to take I-15 highway that leads to Las Vegas and watch for the road that would take me towards Searchlight.

The mountain ranges in that area all looked the same to me, but the topo map gave me good directions for travel. I should realize that Zebban wouldn't steer me in the wrong direction for sure. It took me almost 4 hours driving to get to the area since I wasn't familiar with landmarks and such. The road to Searchlight was blacktopped and made for easy traveling. I took my time looking for mountain ranges when I spotted a brilliant light some distance above some mountains and I began getting that "bigness" feeling that told me the bright flashing light was them. I got out of my car and looked for some easy route toward that mountain. Not seeing any, I drove a little further and saw an old dirt road that led to that mountain. Again I must admit, Zebban knew the way for me to take.

I took that road but it ended abruptly about a mile in. There were many Oje trees around the area and I drove close to some of them to hide my vehicle in case there were any nosy individuals thinking my car was abandoned. I had eaten in Barstow on the way so I had my fill for eating. I had purchased a new polaroid camera and film to take more photo shots. I was hoping this time for some success. I walked the desert some distance from my car to avoid any strong force-field to do some damage to my battery. I saw the craft descending towards where I was walking and hurried to snap a few pictures. It descended about 100 to 150 feet from the desert floor and a turquoise green-blue light came from the undercarriage and enveloped over me. I dropped my camera and felt the tingling sensation over my entire body and felt an unbalancing feeling and suddenly found myself in a large room and could see a row of four octangular ports or windows. And looking around, I could see two more rows of four octangular windows, making a total of twelve.

Around these four windows there were some sort of consoles with chairs on stationary stands. The floor tilted upwards toward the center where I saw a wide shaped cylinder-like tower that extended upwards. I recognized Zebban and Liom immediately and I asked them what that cylinder was? Zebban said that it was their elevator to descend outwards upon landing, if necessary, and upwards to the upper decks, which housed the crews quarters and the top deck was the control module units. I asked what this area that we were in was for. He replied: "This is our observation section to observe any portion of the cosmos and worlds that we would investigate. The console units that surround the circumference area report all investigative materials, the make-up of any atmosphere, also warn us of approaching debri or missiles of heavenly bodies. When these (windows) view-finders are orange in color, it tells us what is in the outside atmosphere. If it is red, it is a warning of radioactivity or any form of unknown isotopes. When it turns green, we are being warned that the atmosphere is very unstable and un-healthy to warrant our departure from our craft."

"We only depart when the view-finder is a light-orange, which tells us that we will not need to wear protective garments. Come, we have much to show you on our craft." When we stepped onto the tilted floor we moved upwards without walking and stopped at the center cylinder. An unseen door opened up and they motioned me to step aboard. Before the doors closed, I saw other crew members take their positions at the console instruments on the lower deck. We ascended to the second level and I saw a room with a form of library, with reading material on small tables partitioned off at one section. He showed me sleeping quarters for the crew members, but I saw no beds. Upon reading my thoughts, he stated: "Their sleeping assembly units are within the walls and only are used when they are ready to rest. We do rest you know, and tire just as you do."

I noticed that the room was very bright but saw no lights and asked from where does the bright light come from? "The lighting comes through the panels in the ceiling and walls, and induced by the fields of raw electricity that is sent throughout the craft. The panels and walls are formed to hold the raw electricity and need no wires or switches." I told him, "Boy, you're well ahead of the game." His reply was: "You haven't seen the fullness of our technology. It does one good to be schooled in the dynamics of energy performances." The remainder of the room appeared to be used for meetings or discussions, because there were large tables and chairs just for that occasion. He caught my thoughts and said: "You are perfectly right. This section is used for replotting missions, and also used for special gatherings with THE GRAND MAN." I mentioned that he must be an important dignitary! He replied with a smile: "He is much more than that."

We boarded the elevator and went up to the upper top deck. This section really took me by surprise. Along the circular walls were large 3-D type graphs that went half the distance of the upper deck. There were streaks of colored lights, blues, yellows, orange, red, green and white streaks that not only went vertical, but also diagonal and horizontal. At the base of this large graph were computer-type consoles, with keys of all colors, levels that appeared to be crystal-formed, and were at different areas along this large graph. He saw my surprised look on my face and said: "This is our controlled-balanced system of propulsion and direction. Each line you see represents a form of highway that we travel on. And each color is coordinated to a particular planet that we wish to go to for our mission. Just as you have highways on your world, we have highways in the cosmos which will take us to our designated point. And each color has a symbol to let us know we are on track, just like you have highway numbers to take you to your destinations."

What really caught my eye the most was the large instrument set off from the large graph that was something I've never seen anywhere. It was centered and just aft of the elevator. It had a computer-console with button-type touch-symbols and stuff that I didn't know what they were used for. But the most weird part of that instrument was the large triangle-shaped item that seemed suspended above this console. It appeared to be situated in that spot for a good reason, which I was to find out right quick. Zebban said: "You seem more fascinated with this instrument than all the others. If you will note that there is a double circle around the triangle. The circle has digits similar to your compass used in science and schools. We call this particular instrument the "TRIANGULAR QUADRANT". You will note also that the very tip of the triangle points to the graph in front., and when the button symbols are pressed, the Triangular Quadrant will move its tip pointing to one of the color-grids on the graph, which will give us the coordinance of direction for travel, just like your highways."

"If you will focus your attention on the double circular portion that encompasses the Triangular Quadrant, there are digital points that when the Triangle moves, it stops at one of the digital points like a "degrees compass". Each digit is a degree of movement for the craft to travel upon, in line with the graph color-digit. The circle represents a number of degrees from "0" to "360" degrees. The craft cannot falter in any way, but remain on its given course." I then asked, "But what if some debri or heavenly body is on the same path as your craft?" "A detection device is alerted," he said, " and the craft will dematerialize before the object strikes our craft. After the object has passed through, the craft then materializes and we go on our given course. It is a necessary safety device that enables a collision not to take place. What is not realized by your science and theologians on your world, is that these heavenly objects have also a given purpose for its trojectory to reach its destination. We cannot interfere in the Divine Plan set forth."

"Your scientists on your world have already polluted the heavens with their crude objects that fill the cosmos with its "junk". What goes up, remember, must come down, and woe unto whomsoever it falls upon. In time, these objects will reenter your atmosphere and hurtle towards Earth at a tremendous speed – that is, if they do not disintegrate when entering your atmosphere. This comparison of our craft with regards to your shuttles and missles is this: It is likened unto a barnfire against a matchstick; the barnfire being our crafts greatness to that of your shuttles which are likened to a matchstick. Ever notice the fire that comes from the shuttles tail, and the brightness of our craft?? Your world scientists are playing with dangerous toys that may one day destroy parts of your world."

" Is there a possibility that you can explain how your crafts are built, and, how large is this particular craft?? "It is good to be inquisitive in order to absorb knowledge," he said. "Let us depart to the conference room for discussion and knowledge." We went down to the second level and entered the room with the large table and chairs. Liom remained with the crew in the propulsion sector. We sat down and his information began with a serious note...

"Let us first consider the propulsion method that pertains to our craft(s), that you may learn and know of our mode of travel, and how we are able to sustain the pressures of overcoming such compressions." [Mr. Stevens: Let me point out that all this information I'm giving now, derived from those binders that were not burnt in the fireplace. I felt very fortunate that these important pieces of information were saved. I feel after re-reading your books that I can now devulge this information and not hold back any longer. I'm not getting any younger.]

"It is not our intent to be so reluctant in giving all the facts of our constructive abilities. You may be placing yourself into the hands of those who may wish to quiet your efforts. Do so with caution. And since you wish to learn more about our construction of our craft, we will only allow a certain portion to be given you. We are being protective and concerned for you that no harm may befall you. Without the full imput, we do not allow those curiosity seekers to render upon you any bodily or mental harm. Therefore, we will give only portions of the details."

"I will speak in general, with considerations on our movements and how we have overcome the compression of the dimensions, since they vary somewhat. We move by what is termed - Projection of Thought. This detail will not be given at this time. In order to travel such distances in light years through the cosmos, it is necessary that we utilize the "drive-systems", which for all intense purposes surpasses the speed of light by millions of times. Your school-book knowledge considers that light travels 186,000 miles per second. But this notion is incorrect. One on your world, an electrical physicist known as Nicola Tesla had the correct speed formulated, but none would listen. He proposed his formula to be 226,000 miles per second which is more in correction than the other.

"It is absolutely imparative to have the correct speed formulated in order for the propulsion to come into action when the speed of light has been successfully achieved. We utilize two drive-systems. It follows that the first drive-system is necessary to regulate the normal speed up to that of light; - and a second drive-system that takes us to "HYPERDRIVE". One 'drive' generates up to a million-fold, even to a billion-fold, far past the speed of light thereby producing the Hyperdrive speed by which hyper-space is pierced and penetrated. This is the conditioned area in which the mass increases in relationship to the general speed attained -- whereby time and space simply collapse; which then becomes Zero Time and Zero Space. In other words, time and space cease to exist, and distances of numerous light-years are traversed in a mere fraction of a second."

"The actual time required for such a journey, say from our world to Earth is in the speeding of the light-years, and again, slowing down at our designation -- a mere fraction of a second. We just simply THINK a speed and we are at our destination. We utilize THOUGHT-TRANSFERENCE where time is not involved whatsoever, except for the split seconds to dis-assemble and reassemble. To be more precise, my friend, it takes a mere 10 minutes as considered in earth time. I cannot give to you the precise statistics of detail as to function, because your scientific world is already confused, and to put it more bluntly, they have enough critical "toys" beyond their control without them bringing them into the outer-dimensions of the cosmos. And too, it is not in the best interest of the cosmic brotherhood that earth-humans be given the abilities to penetrate the cosmic spaces. Your world has all it can handle at present."

"We have been aware and have watched the progression of earth technology that was taken by whatever means by other 'alien beings' that have been captured by your nation and other nations of government as far back as 1960; whereby they have copied from these crashed vehicles the technology being used upon your world today. But they have not accomplished the 'drive-systems' that are used on our own vehicles. It is somewhat difficult to describe our systems in earth terms because of the language barrier. We do utilize various programming crystals that are necessary for flight propulsion, because the crystals program various light impulses, and we also utilize "Tacheons" which are generated and harnessed in both 'drive-systems' with only different variations in magnitude and attitude. Our vehicles are always disc-shaped applications, especially for long-distance travel because of the aerodynamic qualities. There is no drag such as your wings on your aircraft do."

"Once we are in motion, we ride upon a "Boundary Layer" of air. This boundary layer is much similar to the principle that is applied to in Nicola Tesla's bladeless turbine/pump. The 'boundary layer' is the tiny distance between the surface of our vehicle and the atmosphere that passes across the surface, which is two inches between the surface and atmosphere. There is nothing that touches the skin surface of the vehicle. The disc-shape form allows the least resistance, and offers the largest surface which rides the energy currents to enable the "drives" to be more efficient."

Our vehicles are completely surrounded by a protection-beam-girdle, which allows any interference to simply glide away. Resistance must be eliminated in order to reach sufficient speeds for distance travel. Gravity is controlled within and without the vehicle. In other words, there are no "G" forces exhibited."

"As to the Makeup of our Craft called Vimanos (Ships of Light), we utilize a certain method of blending materials for the building of the craft, which is simplistic in technology. It is termed "Liquefaction" such as you observe in volcanic materials. There are a number of vibrations of proper frequencies that impact the substances used by a simply break-down of the materials into atomic particles, and when merged with other substances, becomes fused as an amalgamation. (Vibration frequencies are important.) The entire process is "cold" in nature, and formed into shapes impervious to penetration. Our crafts cannot be opened because the shell will simply absorb and neutralize every known laser-cutter that is known. We utilize the substance of lead as part of our desired metal. We condense the lead particles which eventually become a product of solidified lead. We then extract all dangerous radiation from the metal, and the lead is then fed into Heat-Convertors, which is then exposed to other various minerals."

"The lead is then converted through several processes into an alloy. We then have Liquefaction. At this point I cannot give to you the exact formula, and the "how to" instructions. The substances are then converted through Heat-Convertors, and the end result is achieved through seven processes. The metal becomes liquified in a furnace, normally termed a Kiln. The liquid is subjected to specific oscillations until a specific desired frequency of the material is attained. The final product is pressed by great pressure through a "cooling spiral", which allows the metal to come forth in small pieces. It is then put into components of whatever alloy is desired. and made into bullion or "dore bars." The cooling spiral contains pure water which is obtained by condensation, which you term "distilled." Specific "frequencies" are then applied to 'roll the metal.' The 'core bars' are simply liquified again by pulsation and 'molded.'

"In the end, the finish product has no 'skin' seams, which is done by the method of connecting or welding apparatus based on 'oscillation' techniques which liquifies the metal into a cold state and allows the substance to simply flow together and merge into one piece, which is completely without seams. There is no grinding operations because there are no joined seams of demarcation. All is one part of the pattern of the craft completely around its surface. Once the method is done in the proper "oscillation freqencies", it becomes a completed product. Some portions of the craft use Mercury-steel, while other portions consist of a nickel-silver-copper-gold alloy. We utilize alot of gold, though we can easily convert base metallic substances into gold. We utilize gold because it is easy to manage, and is malleable and harmless to the touch, very beautiful in observation, and a very good conductible metal as for electrical transmitting. We use a mechanical-chemical-electromagnetic processing to form the hardened substance. This hardened metal is harder than any substance known on earth, even harder than steel or carbide steel."

"The alloys are then polarized, and the final product is an alloy of tremendous strength, beauty and smoothness. For the dome of the craft we utilize crystals which are put through various oscillation frequencies to smooth the surface, which then becomes a strong, unbreakable structure to withstand the tremendous pressures put upon it by atmospheric conditions and cosmic conditions. It is also malleable which allows it to be fused into the portion of the metal structure around which it is housed. As for the windows at the base of the craft, they are made of the same material and put through the same oscillation frequencies to also withstand atmospheric pressures. While in flight, these view finders you call windows become rectangular in shape. While in the landing mode they become octangular for better viewing purposes. There are 12 windows, all in three rows of four around the base of the craft. The center elevator extends out of the craft some twelve feet for debarcation and exit feasability. This is the extent of knowledge for this day."

"We have given much knowledge that is sufficient for now. We must leave now. We will prepare your departure and prepare another sequence of contact very soon. Shastal, (which is interpreted as Farewell.) Imenubicob, (which being interpreted means Our mission for now is fulfilled, or just Fulfilled.)"

I was returned to the surface and was surprised to see that the sun had just set. Their craft remained invisible, and I was let out through the Beam Transference to earth. I returned to my car and was home within 4 hours, and proceeded to write down the information received and to my knowledge to the best of my ability. During the week, as I remembered more, even while I was at my job, I would jot down things and add it to my binder.

When I married again in 1991 to my wife Michele, I told her all about my contacts, which she accepted with an open heart. She is a wonderful, caring person. I received a great deal through automatic writings until I bought my computer, and received more knowledge through clairaudience. These filled the 26 binders which many were later burned, along with photographs. I am sorry to say that the pictures I took at the desert site did not come out due to the intense magnetic field. I did retrieve my camera that I had dropped before boarding the craft. Though I had a good opportunity to continue contacts and type them up on my computer, the contacts ended in 1972. I was 42 years old then. I felt saddened that all came to an end, but they have their reasons.

In September 1991 I had a mini-stroke with no ill-affects. In 1998, I had a second mini-stroke, again with no ill affects. I feel that "they" are still watching over me and every now and then I get that "Bigness" feeling that makes me believe that they are doing just that -- watching over me. I retired from my job at Anaheim Memorial Hospital as the carpenter and cabinet maker, with a good pension and social security benefits. I retired in 1995 at the age of 65. I do a great deal of reading and other research work up to this day.

I am saddened that I still have not be able to retrieve much of the Biblical knowledge given to me. But I am very pleased that I was given the opportunity to use my faculties and gifts. I am enclosing a copy of a drawing of what I made of the craft and my Mentor Zebban, along with a copy of a map of the stars that was given to me by a close friend. I hope I have not bored you with the material enclosed. I only feel it is due time that I release my experiences to someone, and I feel I can honestly trust you, though I had reservations of even writing this material letter to you. I'm glad I did.

With best regards,
Oswald A. Gonzalez

Additional Information:---

Looking in my old scrapbooks, I located some more interesting material data given me in July 1950 which I considered important to send to you. I am hoping that you will have the same thoughts. There were two interesting items; one had to due with Ezekiel's interpretation of the craft he was aboard, and the other was concerning what Bill Herrmann discussed with regards to Nuclear Holicast discussion in his symposium he wrote. Here is what was revealed to me through automatic writings that I quickly jotted down after the information was received, and I forgot I had placed in a small scrapbook.

I will give the Biblical wording with the letter "B" and Zebban's interpretation with the letter "Z".

B:--"...a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire..."
Z:-- I have told you in times past that our crafts come from other cosmos (north) and are always within a cloud when necessary. The color amber (yellow) and the fire represent the force fields eminating from the craft.
B:-- "Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four lifing creatures; and this was their appearance, they had the likeness of a man..."
Z:-- The four living creatures are the forces within the force chambers and energy cell chambers. The likeness of a man simple means the craft was constructed by higher beings.
B:-- "And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.."
Z:-- It wouldn't be difficult for anyone who studied physics to warrant this meaning. The four faces are 'four electro-magnetic magnets," with a fifth larger magnet in the very center. The four wings are the coils of wire that wrap around each magnet.
B:-- "And their feet were straight feet;, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot, and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass."
Z:-- The straight feet simple means that the wiring (feet) went straight from one magnet to the other. In Biblical times they had 'iron-ore' that the priest used for certain rituals. Ezekiel was explaining the use of iron similar to what you use in manufacturing a horse-shoe type magnet. Again, he was just repeating the magnetic process.
B:-- "And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings..."
Z:-- Each magnet he gives as a symbol - man, lion, ox and eagle so stated later on. The wiring stretched around each four magnets (their four sides).
B:-- "Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.."
Z:-- Again I state that each wiring (four in all) was one complete wire. He was telling you that they did not turn because they were all of one strand going around each magnet.

B:-- "...They four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle."
Z:-- I stated already that the faces were symbolic. If you will note that two wires (the faces) were going in one direction or counter-clockwise, and two were going in the opposite direction - clockwise. But all four windings also went around the large center magnet. He left this particular portion out of his writings for a specific reason.
B:-- "Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and they covered their bodies."
Z:-- He is but showing you what I already explained; two wings went in one direction, and two went the opposite direction, yet each two wirings were joined one to another, covering each magnet completely.
B:-- "As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning."
Z:-- Here he is simply explaining that the magnets with their wiring around them were now electromagnetic, giving off fields of force that were very bright. The lightning simply represents an electric field that eminated out of the magnetic fields of force.
B:-- "Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth..."
Z:-- Here he is actually telling you that the craft is upon the earth.
B:-- "The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of beryl: (aquamarine or blue) and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel."
Z:-- The force-field was still eminating in the landing mode, showing the aquamarine-blue color. All the magnets were the same. To Ezekiel, it appeared that the magnets looked like wheels within the craft (or wheel as he termed it.)
B:-- "As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four."
Z:-- He is simply explaining that he is now inside the craft and is seeing the colors eminating from the magnets going around the craft and appeared to be like rings. The rings were the different colors of blue, red, yellow, and orange that went around the inner rim of the craft.
B:-- "And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up."
Z:-- Here he is telling you that when the craft went upwards, the living creatures or the magnets with their wiring and force-fields all went because they were part of the craft. Simple deduction.
B:-- "And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above."
Z:-- How much simpler can he get. Here he is explaining that at the top of the craft he called firmament was a dome-shaped appenditure as the likeness of crystal. He did say that the crystal stretched forth over their heads above, didn't he?

B:-- "And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies."
Z:-- Here he is somewhat repeating that under the crystal dome where the magnets with their wirings - with two going in one direction and two going in the opposite direction, which completely covered their bodies or magnets.
B:-- "And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host; when they stood, they let down their wings."
Z:-- The noise he heard was the humming sounds coming from the power-source within the cell chamber that was penetrating the grid monitor control unit. The noise of a host he was simply telling you that it was accelerating within the control monitors into the other chambers. When the wings were let down , the craft was once again on earth.
B:-- "And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone..."
Z:-- He was awed at the appearance of the dome over their heads because of the brightness that eminated from it, as the brightness of white, like a throne.
B:-- "...and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about."
Z:-- Here he is telling you that the force-field (like fire) and the brightness round about was quickly eminating upwards and downwards, with a brightness all around the craft, from its top to its bottom.
B:-- "As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about."
Z:-- The force-fields were tremendous and appeared as a rainbow of colors all about the craft - upwards and downwards.
Zebban speaking: "I have given you some of the detailed makings of a craft that anyone who has been schooled in science and astrophysics can evaluate the findings, and piece together the functioning of a craft that can be utilized throughout your world for a simple way of transportation. The Creator has given through Ezekiel the means for mankind to continue forward in His Divine Love to become a part of the Brotherhood in Peace, Joy and Happiness. Shastal - Imenubicob. END OF CONTACT THROUGH AUTOMATIC WRITING.

Wendell, I found the same interpretation in chapter ten of Ezekiel, but instead of beasts, he uses the term Cherubims. The second piece of information received was found in the same notebook, quickly written so as to not forget what was given, that pertains to Nuclear phenomenon. I'm not sure if you are at all familiar with the term "PHOTON POWER", but Zebban had given me some excellent material coinciding with some Biblical verses that have to do with the possibilities of this Photon-Power. I have also enclosed a copy of my original sketch pertaining to what is termed THE PHOTON BELT phenomena. Here are a few verses from the Bible that seem to connect to this unusual phenomenon:

ISAIAH 13:10.. "For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine."
ISAIAH 13:13.. "Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the Lord of host, and in the day of his fierce anger."
ISAIAH 34:4... "And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree."
ISAIAH 51:6.. "Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner:..."
REVELATIONS 6:14... "And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places."

All of this appears to be the telling of some great catastrophical happening, possibly due to Nuclear fission or some other galatic happening. In the 1930's, a Carl David Anderson wrote about "Pulsed-Wave action with anti-electrons called Positrons. Zebban stated that "When an anti-particle is formed and comes into existence in the universe of ordinary particles, it is only a matter of seconds before it collides with an electron. These particles cancel each other out, and when they do that, the total mass of the pair is then converted into energy in the form of PHOTONS."

"Your sun is a major part of the system called the Pleiades, which is at absolute right angles to the movements of the sun. At this precise right angle is what is termed A PHOTON BELT, also called a MONASIC BELT. It is likely that the actual passage, if left to orderly transition, could fall in the early second decade of your new century. There is what is termed a "Null-Time" that has been played around with by your Elite scientists in your early 20th Century, namely 1903, in which they detonated a bomb in an area of Russia, to try and have the null-time period to begin. The bomb, its make-up unknown, leveled a large area of trees within a five mile radius, burning everything in its path. They reasoned that the date, time and calculated degrees was properly estimated, but it was a drastic error that the scientists had calculated the 'null-time' a day too late, thus causing the drastic disastrous reaction upon the land."

"The scientists told the news-media that a large meteorite had hit the area, which led them off the track of the real purpose behind the blast. The scientists were in hopes of stopping the 'Photon-Belt' phenomena from happening. They failed with disastrous results. It is still not known what the Elite plan to do about the Photon-Belt-Null-Time. Surprise is the ultimate modus operandi of the adversary, with the ultimate effort at secrecy on what your governments intend to do about this phenomenon."

"Your Solar System is moving into a cosmic cloud called the "PHOTON BELT" and the manasic radiation will have a great impact on the entire solar system. It is the procession of your solar system around your central sun called 'Alcione'.

which is located in the Pleiades Constellation, which takes approximately 24 to 26,000 years to complete one orbit around Alcione. (See star map.) Your own sun, moon and planets pass through this photon belt during this time, figuratively speaking some 10 to 12,000 years, plus the 2000 years through the belt. During this cycle, there are two periods of darkness and two periods of light. Your system is now preparing to emerge into the 2000 years of light. "

"As the Ancients say, "As Above, So Below." In Australia, the Aborigines call this photon belt the "Null-Time Warp" or "Void." Following through this great 'transformation' and 'transmutation' time, your Earth will emerge in a great change of topography. It is one of the reasons why certain government and scientific organizations are pushing to the limit their trips to your moon, Mars and Venus. When the Earth enters this 'belt', in conjunction with your scripture text, your sky will appear to be on fire and will produce a "cold" light which will come about from ignition of the radioactive belt your science calls the "Van Allen Belt". If your sun where to enter this photon belt first, you will experience immediate darkness due to your sun's radiant waves that will go into null spectrum."

"The rotation of your Earth will diminish in speed to a much slower velocity or orbital pace; possibly causing many celestial impacts upon your world. Your government intelligence organizations are very aware of the situation and are experimenting toward a 'safe-zone', and are utilizing many a 'photon-pulse-system' with capabilities of mok-speed-propulsion methods in order to escape the affects of the 'null-time' period. Photon Energy is the energy of your future, with many experiments being conducted on crafts designed for photon rocket propulsion. One craft that I speak of is your Aurora Craft now being tested in the deserts of California - in a top-secret project your government calls the "Blackbird Project." The null-time zone is an electromagnet zone where there is also an energy vacuum. Everything cancels everything. This may all sound unthinkable, but consider it for further evaluation. We do not force knowledge upon you. We are a peaceful and knowledgable entity force. Force is not of the Creator. What I give is in total love with understanding. Receive its contents for what you deem acceptable. Shastal. Imenubicob." End of contact transmission report.

Within a second binder, there was information received in September - 1969 that I wish to also enclose here in these pages. It has to do with some answers to the church's theological understanding of one whom these theologians term "the devil." The information took me by complete surprise because of my own upbringing in the Catholic church. I even made a statement to Zebban, "Is this for real?" He assured me that it was so, and that there are many literary errors in the Bible that have confused and held the masses in ignorance of the real truths. With my past experiences with the Christian church I joined in 1954, I surely didn't want to upset their applecart. I would have surely been thrown out of the church bodily.

So much more understanding was given me concerning the Biblical reports of the scholars who had written the book. These binders were the ones that were burned. I don't really know why she didn't burn these remaining binders, or why she even stopped. I surmised that Steve had stopped her at this point, because he returned them a year later, with a very unhappy attitude because of what was done to me. I suppose at the time that I was told that my writings were burned, he was somewhat afraid to come around because of my anger at the time!

In your second book "UFO Contact from Recticulum - UPDATE" which I now read for the third time and debating whether I should write to you about my own experiences, I recalled what Bill Herrmann had written in a letter to you that you termed a "kiss-off" letter in which Bill was relenting on anything to do with UFO's, contacts and such; and stating that he was not coerced, forced or directed against his actions in any way.

But I couldn't really accept his story Mr. Stevens, because (1) his church was thinking of having a Heresty Trial brought against him. C'mon now, since when do we have such trials in this century. They would have to prove that he was receiving from some devil before they could even warrant any formal trial. Bill's documentation gives no such evidence. Bill could easily prove to his church that many others have been abducted or 'taken' by alien beings, because he had documentation from other witnesses. (2) His wife's persuasion was not proper since she herself had seen the craft on a few occassions. A wife should be behind her husband 100% and not be so objective. My wife is behind me and will stick by me no matter what any neighbors may think, or any church may think. If it came to the point that it was either "Them" or the church, I would definitely have chosen "Them" because of my truthful experiences that the ignorant churches do not realize or accept because of their foolish beliefs and mythical tales of fire and brimstone. I truly believe he was coerced by the church.

These type of experiences have nothing to do with the occult. My own where linked a great deal with studies in the Bible, and serious information which I have already enclosed about propulsion and what entailed in building their craft. When I approached a few churches, those I was not a member of, I spoke in regards to Ezekiel's version of a craft he saw, and which I have given in detail in this letter. I also gave them verses concerning Elijah's story. But each church meeting I attended, I was shouted at, called names and laughed at that ended with ridiculing remarks. I never went back to those churches because of their denial in the truths that lay before them. I knew how Bill felt, but I would never take any steps in a choice-matter, either the church, my wife, or "Them". I had no worries with my wife, so I chose "Them."

I remember receiving knowledge concerning Jesus, and about Sodom and Gomorrah and what really entailed in that episode of the Biblical story. But I lost all that within the flames of the fire. I do remember some parts given me about Paul, who was said to be "born-again" so to speak, and material given about the so-called Rapture. I do recall that Paul (who was once named Saul of Tarsus) did not write any of the Apistles that are claimed to be his. They were mostly written by Luke and other writers of that time. I was saddened when I read how Bill was using scriptures to make his experiences seem to be "Atmospheric Displays", and how he was believing (probably what the church was showing him and confusing him) about signs and wonders. But, unbeknowns to him, he was giving full details about crafts when he disclosed that he understood the reference to UFO phenomena in 2 Corinthians, where he stated, "Are not UFO's defined as lights?" Ans. Yes, which is due to the tremendous force-fields that eminate from them. "Are they not nocternal discs of light?" "Translucent Lights?" Same answer is Yes.

For him to say he cannot gamble with works of darkness is to belittle those who most generously came to him with great insight. I was very happy to read that the piece of metal that was given to him in one of his contacts was not lost but found by the Repticulians once again. Whomsoever was involved in that church ordeal of throwing the gift of metal into the water is the ignorant one who believes in myths and fairytales about a satanic individual. Bill was definitely being coerced into believing that he was dealing with devils, whom scriptures define as 'the prince of the power of the air,' so stated in Ephesians 2:2. But I was happy to read that the contacts continued and he was once again on track. I tell you Mr. Stevens, it's a hard road to travel upon when you know and believe you had such experiences and then to be told that they are the works of the devil. I find it appropriate to relate to you what was given me concerning this individual with horns and a forked tail and hoofs like a donkey, wearing a one piece red pajama-like clothing, with beady eyes and beard, who has a tail like a donkey that is shaped at its tip like an arrow tip. "He" uses scriptural terms of Unto, Thou's, and Thee in the writings.

This information or material was not given me by my usual Mentor Zebban, but by an unknown and higher spiritual individual. It came across in Automatic Writings, which I later typed and placed in my binder as one of the most contriversial pieces of information I have ever received. It was given on Monday, October 26, 1969 at 7:30 p.m. through Automatic Receivings. It was termed 'The Legend of Lucifer - and How The Devil Entity Was Introduced Into Theological Thinking.!'

"In your symbology of your times, you have an Ancient character of religious fiction to contend with in your thinking. I would like to dictate to you the details of this character your theologians and churches call 'Satan', that you may recognize him for whom and what he is."

"This character existed, but not as the mythical Satan. He was one of the great ones of the Cosmos, who had proceeded far in spiritual and celestial excellence, and should have continued his way upward as a magnificent "Arch-Angel." What he did instead was to suddenly reverse his celestial thinking processes, knowing that the God at the head of the universe had come out of the same origin as himself; that is to say, from Spirit. He came unto Earth, this Luciferian Personage and led those under him into an era of sexquestration, with strictly indigenous Earth-Forms for which he paid the penalty; being deprived in his intellect from exercising those functions that would have rendered him one of the truly greats of Cosmos, had he but abided by the "Divine" fiats of authority issued for man-spirit inhabiting your Earth."

"He was a proud one among the original matchings of those who came through space to Earth, and took up residence on this Earth, falling into cohabitations with beastly forms, and producing an era of 'Sodomy', the traces of which linger in mankind even down here to the present. These are truths that I give to you now - that you should remember. LUCIFER HAS LONG SINCE DEPARTED THIS EARTH-SCENE. But the memory of his false stewardship still lingers in men's psychologies. The traditions of this so-called Tempter, the evil one, the prince of the power's of darkness, and all the other terms and descriptions which your theologians and clergy and the world employ to personalize evil, has sprung from this original malfeasance. It has given personality to all those later manifestations of wickedness which men have found themselves afflicted."

"It is the strain of perversiveness and "Anti-Christ", "Anti-God Thinking" imbedded in the very organic substance of the human race. That is the true Devil with which man must contend. It was the spirit of celestial bigotry, conceit, impatience, vengeance, jealousy, vindictiveness, and general defiance of the God-provisions in the Earth scene that has been responsible for the traits of man, which your churches term the 'Satanic.' There is No Character In Current History or Mundane Affairs of this hour, or this era, who bears the faintest resemblance that we can discern or discover, to that of Lucifer or his most capable of his lieutenants!"

"The only Devil of consequence that we can discern or discover in the current Cosmic alignment is the spirit of 'hatred' of the Light of Truth that dwells strongly yet in men's hearts, because, as it shines stronger and stronger, it illuminates the extent of their ignorance, doubts, backwardness and spleen. You have millions in life who have not yet advanced along the upward pathway. They are worse than mere children of spirit. They are denizens of darkness, fear, stupidity and cosmic inferiority. They are friends in behavior when they let their evil passions own them. But, do not think of them as devils. They are ones who have failed to turn their faces toward the Light when Light was offered them. They are simply uncouth, illiterate, boorish, and ill-tempered."

"We Say There Are No Devils in The Strictly Religious Sense. There are only backward, morally twisted people who delight in evil works, because it gives them negative distinction to stand out against God and God's people. "Divine Providence" has indeed created certain forms of what you term Angelic Life; equipped with offices far above mortalities. BUT 'DIVINE PROVIDENCE' HAS NOT, AND COULD NOT CREATE WHAT YOU TERM 'A DEVIL.' A DEVIL HAS TO HAVE AN ORIGIN, THE SAME AS ANY OTHER CREATION MUST HAVE AN ORIGIN."

"Divine Providence' can create life in spirit particles, and one quota of it may rise upward into Light, and, an equal quota may sink downward into darkeness and evil works. But Life, as Life, must animate both and be of similar essence. SATAN, AS A TEMPTER IS AN ABNORMALITY. Temptation is the state of being enticed to evil. Evil of itself is ignorance or disregard of ways that lead to spiritual improvement or moral excellence. So, "Being Tempted By Devils" is an utterly confused description. Do not give credence to any 'Satan' as a malevolent, - whom is said to be rampant in Earth. They are simply ignorant, perverse, unbalanced, fanatical with the fanaticism that comes from spiritual illiteracy. Know them for what and who they are. Regard them as spiritual units deserving of your counsel. But never be afraid of them, for thereby you give them energy."

"I see ignorance, greed, blindness, lust, selfishness, all forms of illiteracy motivating man in this way or that. But I see no supervising character directing these deficiencies. I see myraids of separate God-units, working out their personal salvations by trial-and-error experiences. So I say unto you, put Satan out of mind. As an entity in your material world, he does not exist. All that exists is ignorance, greed, blindness, lust, selfishness - these do exist. Conguer them with the sweet fine doctrine of Christ Love, and even the tradition of Satan is perished."

"For centuries your world has wandered and were played upon by forces that led you into error. I have given you wisdom that you may triumph over error. Be kind to those who walk in darkness. They are children who need everlasting help. Strive not against them, but give to them the 'higher' things. Be not cast down if men revile you, and in HIS name persecute you because of these things that you receive. Many are but sheep that have strayed in their ignorance. I come to you in spirit and love, even as the carpenter of Galilee had come to you in Love. Others shall attack you that they may seemingly feel they profit by compromising you. Be considerate and advising, tolerant and generous."

"Greater visitations shall be made to you suddenly, visitations of pure whiteness that have meaning in their whiteness. You are visited by goodly workers who make known their presence. You have been coming into manifestations of a different order than that which has been given you to date. You have been tapping into the unseen of mortal eye, and looking into realms that mean eternal spirit. I tell you secrets that are external. Some of us have come to you in flesh. Know this that I seek you with equal forbearance, with Love, with Charity, with Tolerance for all that perplexes you. I speak to you with vehemence and sincerity. I leave you with these words of comfort. Remember them. Shastal - Imenubicob."

You can see why I considered this contact one of my most important ones I've ever received. It made me to open my eyes to what is truth. It was astonishing to me what was being revealed on paper. I've written letters to various ministers, even to television evangelists such as Benny Hinn and Paul Crouch of TBN-TV. But the answers I received were nothing that I expected. "Get yourself straight with God" would be one answer, or, "You need spiritual counseling because you're going off the path of God and Christ." I paid no heed but remembered the words I received at the end of the above contact..."Be not cast down if men revile you, and in HIS name persecute you.." It took me awhile to practice these things and take them to heart. I know that they are children who need help, and I try hard to not strive against them when I give them these 'higher' meanings of truth.

I have given you as much as I possibly could under the circumstances that befell me. I hope you will receive these writings with enthusiasm and understanding. I don't wish recognition, nor is it my intent to ever indulge such information to any military agency or government agency. I have held back for a number of years what has transpired in my life. I know others have had similar experiences and I feel for them in a way that they too are told that "all they had seen was a figment of their imagination, or other such ridiculous statements. I have gone through my files hoping to find more information but so far, I haven't been able to locate them. I am still looking and have files scattered everywhere. My first wife whom I divorced some time ago destroyed or tossed out all my automatic writing folders that would have helped me to gather back some of my materials received.

So, here you have it Mr. Stevens. I hope there is no interference with my material that I'm sending you, because I'm also including a copy of my original sketch that I made of Zebban along with a few craft drawings, a celestial map of the stars and the photon drawing. By the way, the craft of Zebban's was a large vehicle - estimated length some 150 feet; estimated height - around 27 feet; elevator height - nearly 25 feet. I've already given you the info about the crafts make-up and propulsion system. I sincerely hope that what I'm sending you will be of valuable help in your research work. You have my address if you wish to correspond and touch base with me. I'm retired and at home a great deal of the time, except for grocery trips or post off ice to mail bills, which is but once a week. God Bless.

Best regards,

Hello Spec. Inv. Wendelle:

I was very surprised to receive your letter dated 15 May 2003 because I thought that you may think me as one wishing recognition and fame. I have no desire to be recognized as a UFO buffer-case. But my experiences are accurate and true beyond expectations. I like getting on my computer and composing research work with others, and you are the second person who has answered my letters with a sincere enthusiasm. All the others I had written to and hoping for a reply was never accomplished. My letter was possibly thrown into 'file 13' we term as the waste-basket.

I am very happy that I received a quick response and that you were impressed with my truthfulness and sincerity. Because of your fond interest in what I had written to you, I am willing and able to do my utmost and go back to the beginning to rewrite as much as I can of my missing binders. I do have a good recollection of the ships, their interiors and other details that I will put together in sketched form to the best of my ability. I see now that my artistic abilities will come in handy since I majored in Art and Construction Design in Architecture, along with my music, science and physics majors.

When I mentioned the first person to write a reply to letters written brings to mind a most complexing experience that has never been forgotten. It may be a story you could possibly add for your interest and publication. The individual that responded was TOM DONGO who lives in Sedona, Arizona. This particular incident happened in July of 1991 some months before my wife Michele and I were married. Michele and I were dating for two years by now, and I was still employed at Anaheim Memorial Hospital. Michele was a Manager at ADP (Automatic Data Processing) a firm that does the payroll for over 2000 outside corporations. As a Manager the company gives their Supervisors, Managers and Directors trips to various states, along with cruises, for their continued efforts towards establishing the Company's Yearly Budget Increase. They met that goal again.

This year a fully-paid trip was to be at The Inn at Clarkdale, Arizona, a three-day excersion, with special presentation dinners along with anything one would like to do. A map of the area showed Sedona northeast of Clarkdale on highway 89A. We decided to rent a car and take the two-hour trip to Sedona the next day Saturday. When we arrived in Sedona we went to the tourist information booth where they give you a run-down about Sedona and its beautiful red-rock formations, and the many excursions one could take to the many 'energy vortexes' said to be situated at different locations. We learned of places such as Cathedral

Rock and where to go and see the areas with high concentration vortexes. A shuttle bus takes you to these various vortexes, and the driver lets you know which one you desire.

We were told at the tourist desk that Secret Mountain, Bear Mountain and Red Canyon areas were reported to have a great deal of UFO incidents. We decided on Red Canyon because we also wanted to see the red rock formations. The climb was a very steep one, and many tourists were taking the time to climb and see the amazing colors that engulf the mountain range. We reached the particular vortex area after some serious puffs of breathing spells. There were alot of tourist around the vortex spot so we thought to sit down and rest. While sitting there we noticed this particular well-built gentleman climbing with hardly any effort. He headed straight to where we were sitting. He was wearing a short-sleeve kahki shirt with shorts to match, white socks tucked over his heavy hiking boots and wearing on his head an Australian type hat, the kind that is tucked up or tied at one side.

He came right to me and said, "Hello Oswald. You have had many visits with extraterrestrials since your youth!" I turned to Michele and we both in unison asked him, "How did you know my name was Oswald? And how did you know I have had many visitations with those from above?" He answered, "There are many things that are known that would simply amaze you. For instance! The area below those trees is a secret underground testing area where there are tunnels that hold crafts that your government is working on. In a short while you will observe a few 'black' helicopters scouting the area to warn any trespassers off the property, with their 'blow-horns' screaming to leave the area at once." We asked him how he knew this information, and his reply was "We too have been very interested with observance of the goings-on for some time."

Then he asked us if we had ever attempted prayer at certain areas that many sit and meditate? We told him that this was our first trip to the Sedona and knew nothing about 'prayer' and meditation places. He motioned us to come with him, which we did, and he told us to sit here at this spot, meditate and make prayer. What was the amazing thing that happened next was when we turned around to thank him, he was gone--completely disappeared. He was nowhere's in sight. We looked high and low but he was not to be found. What was also surprising to us was that there were no other persons around to have us think he disappeared in the crowd. But there was no crowd. HE WAS JUST---GONE. We did as he asked anyway and meditated with prayers.

We left the place bewildered and surprised because of the disappearance of this man. He appeared to be 5'-10", well-built, muscular body and legs. At first Michele and I thought he was with the tour guide. We didn't want to wait around to see if the helicopters came around. We were getting hungry, so we climbed down and went into the town of Sedona and had lunch. We walked around and I saw a souveneir shop, so we stopped inside to browse. I saw a book-shelf with books on Sedona's vortexes and books about incidents with people who lived in Sedona and their UFO experiences. This caught my eye, and I bought three books that had to do with abductions of people that Tom Dongo had written. He was a UFO researcher in the Sedona area. He was at the store in person to sign autographs on his books. I had him autograph the three books I bought and told him that sometime soon I would write him about my experiences.

His first book was "The Mysteries of Sedona - Book II; The Alien Tide", which was about UFO's, ET's and paranormal activity in Sedona. His second book "Unseen Beings - Unseen Worlds", was about the realms of the great unknown. His third book "The Mysteries of Sedona - Book III; The Quest - in Pursuit of the Ultimate Mystery." This book featured the famous UFO crash that happened in Sedona. I believe he can be reached at 'Mysteries of Sedona" P.O. Box 2571, Sedona, AZ 86339.

As to your request for topo map clips of locations, I will need to go to the local Hobby Shop here in town and see if I can purchase the topo maps that I will need. I do recall the Ivanpah Topo Map, the Joshua Tree National Forest Topo Map and the Giant Rock area topo map. These were my three known physical experiences that is brought to mind. I believe I have had three or four landing contacts at the Ivanpah Mountain Range in the valley, four landing contacts at Joshua Tree, and one at Giant Rock, California. All the others were through Radial-Light-Beam Projection or Telepathic, Clairaudient and Automatic Writings, which were over a period of many years.

In one of my binders I recall sketching in color the interior of the ship(s), the consoles, viewing screens, controls, but I never recall seeing any symbols on their garments - only what I remembered on board the craft. As to the title, the only name given me was NEP-7 and NEP-4. You may wish to term it 'UFO CONTACT FROM NEP-4, which was Zebban's origin. LIOM came from NEP-7. I was never told if it was a world or a 'sun', but that they had 12 worlds that rotated in a counter-clock wise direction.

Wendelle! Because of my past experiences with those who persecuted and ridiculed me, I left out my experience and travels to the MOTHER-CRAFT they called The Phoenix. The symbol I observed many times on their crafts were The Phoenix symbol which I will sketch out for you during my interludes with you, along with a beautiful sketch of the Mother-Craft and certain interior areas. I must tell you that this particular craft was huge, humungus, large. It was so large, it could cover two football field lengths. It had a storage facility that could house over 14 smaller craft, not the size that Zebban's ship was. The smaller crafts were anywhere's from 40 feet in length to 60 feet in length, and was situated at the rear of the Mother Craft in rows of three's - that is, the width of the Mother Craft at that precise area. They were also different types of ships that I saw at that particular venture. There was a large banquet that was being held at that particular time, with emissaries from different worlds or systems; not to exclude our own world, because that particular incident, there were 12 representatives from our world and from different nations. I believe you will find that experience of great interest.

I will prepare what is left of my original binders as they were written. They were all printed writings, not yet typed. I may be able to attempt a recall of the lost binders, but it will not be as Zebban or Liom may have presented it. Their vocabulary far exceeded my own to say the least. They were well versed on all subjects and could speak any language fluently, that is, the languages here on earth. Their own language was very profound because one word would mean an entire sentence sometimes. For instance they would say Shastal Neb, being interpreted meant Farewell All, or just Shastal - Farewell. Ishatrosh Neb being interpreted meant Welcome All, or just Ishatrosh - Welcome. Taramushatrosh, being interpreted meant, We Welcome You In Peace.

I do recall an incident that Zebban told me about when I asked him if they were ever scolded or reprimanded if errors were made, not intentionally? He told me about a contact they had in Tecate, Mexico, where their craft had landed near a farm. These Mexican farmers were a very superstituous lot, and when they observed their craft in the field, Zebban was contacting a certain doctor whom he had rendevous with previously. Liom was in charge of the craft while it was in the landing mode, to acknowledge anyone who may come near the craft, because the power was still on, to prevent any harm to anyone. The farmers came with sticks, stones and rocks to throw at the craft. Liom was prepared for any incident that may occur.

Some of the farmers where throwing their rocks and screaming at the ship, and Liom stepped from the entrance to try and stop them from getting near the force-field. Unbeknowns to Liom, one of the farmers stepped into the elevator landing device and began screaming loudly. When Liom returned to his post, the farmer was completely incinerated, just a charred bundle of burnt flesh and bones. The meeting with the doctor was immediately terminated, and Zebban had to run to the craft to prevent any flying debri from hitting him and Liom. The charred remains had to be left in the field while the superstitous farmers were yelling and throwing anything they can at the ship. They had to leave in a hurry. The doctor was okay and he quieted the angry farmers who had believed that the devil had come down to destroy them.

When the incident was brought before the Tribunal Council, Liom was (shall we say demoted) from his rank or position, and was not allowed to travel the heavens for 6 months. He later achieved his same position with Zebban. So errors can be made and very hazardous to ones health, even to death. This incident had to be thought out with great care, though it was not Liom's fault that the farmer crept unawares into the crafts landing device. It was a sad day.

I'll close for now Wendelle. I'll do my best to get things together. I really appreciate your involvement in publishing my experiences. I never truly expected anything like that. All that I'm interested in is that people start to realize that these extraterrestrials mean us no harm. There is only their enduring love for all.
God Bless.

With great appreciation, I remain,

Hello again Wendelle:

Since your first letter that you have written to me, and the enthusiasm with which you've shown in my contact experiences, you have given me the necessary push that I seriously needed. Not that I wasn't interested in others experiences with UFO's or IFO's (since they are definitely identified,) but with my past experiences with family members, fundamentalists and friends, I sought of went into my own shell -so to speak, and just continued my own private research for some years now. I feel that you opened the door for me because I have noticed since putting together the things you asked for, my memory has been jogged, and it's a wonderful feeling to know it's still there in my head.

I strongly believe that I am being assisted with finding the things I thought that I lost over the years. I know that I did lose my abilities with clairaudient receivings, telepathic receivings and a part of that spiritual bubble I called The Bigness. But now and then, I do get the tingling sensations in my head, even now as I write. I was saddened that I did lose those attributes due to my diabetes, high blood pressure, and the small T.I.A.'s (strokes) which did not hit me until I was close to 65 years of age. Yet, even those incidents have been under control with little problems arising. Again, I thank you for the push and drive.

I went an investigated at the Hobby City area where I know is a place that sells all kinds of maps. They didn't have the Topo's maps I needed on hand at that time because they said they don't get many calls for these types of maps. The clerk took my name, address and phone number, and said that he would call me because he had to make a special order for them. That was just a week ago and no word as yet. He mentioned to me that I may have to go to the San Bernardino Recorders Office where I can pick up what I need at no cost. If that store doesn't call me soon, I will make the trip to San Bernardino.

Looking in my files and the few binders I have left, which I noticed are fading, I found a sketch of the design that I saw when I was on Zebban's craft. On their console chairs and on the chair that was situated at the 'Triangular Quadrant' instrumentation area, I saw the same design on the back of that chair as well. My original sketch was in color and when I went to have a copy made of the sketch, the colors turned out black on the copy. I was disappointed but I went home and made a new sketch with no colors, and decided that I will fill in the colors after I make the copies. I am enclosing a copy of that chair, which is just a sketch of the chair with the design and nothing else.

2. Wendelle Stevens:

I finished it in color for you and will explain the design in detail as Zebban gave me. What I found very interesting is the color of the chairs. They were all finished in gold. The material didn't feel like normal material as our own chairs. It was etched out in silver that gave it a luxurious look of elegance that reminded me of a king's chair. Yet when you sat in this chair, which I have many times, the material gave in to your weight, giving in to the contours of your body. I'm not a fat person, nor have I ever been. I weigh around 162 now. Yet that chair was very comfortable to sit in. The back even sloped some when you put your weight on it and felt like it was alive. It had two arms contour-fitted with no rough edges and had instrument controls on each arm. At the top there were three type buttons on each arm; each with a different color: blue, green and orange. Below that there were small screens that had weird angled designs that gave off the same colors as the buttons above. The background of that screen was pale yellow, and gave off an incadescent bright ness that reflected on the angular designs within.

The base of the chair was something that I've never seen before. It had contour curves and was also done in gold. At the very bottom of the base there appeared to be notches that ran across the base from left to right, and the base sat on a notched conveyor-type belt that moved the chairs to any location around the long curved screening in front of the Triangular Quadrant. The chair at the Triangular Quadrant did not have this notched conveyor-type belt because it remained stationary and did not move. The conveyor appeared to be made of an alloy of metal, silver colored.

The design on the back of the chair appeared to be embossed or etched into the back because it looked like it stood out some from the chair. It had a octangular shape outside circle. And the inside color of that was red. There were two triangles on top of each other, one in a pyramid style and the other facing with its point downward. Within the very center was a small circle and from its center came forth six (arrow shaped) design coming from a focal-centered point. Within the octangular circle and at the center there were three large Lily-Petals and three small Lily-Petals. The larger petals were yellow in color and the smaller petals were a pale blue. The center circle was the color of gold. This design caught my eye every time I was aboard this craft because of its beautiful colored designs. Believe me, it stood out like a sore-thumb.

Here is the understanding of that beautiful design: The center small circle stood for the Divine Force with no beginning nor end, which the circle demonstrated. The points coming out from its center stood for the Primary Forces within the Divine Force that even extended outward at each of its focal points, giving its Force in all directions of Creation. The Lily Petals symbolized the Creators flowers, trees. Also flowers gave the preference for lands and countries, being the command or desire and will of the Creator; – giving the prominent geometrical symbol of land. The smaller petals symbolized water and why it was in the pale-blue color. The two triangles intersecting each other, one facing north and the other south, symbolized The Great Primary Forces within Creation of worlds and stars. Portions of the triangles appeared as brown.

3. Wendelle Stevens:

Zebban told me that the Lily was a sacred flower of the Lemurian and Atlantis cultures, and that the flower was the foundation, and the geometrical figure was the superstructure, using the flowers as symbols for something divine. The Triangle was also the symbol for Heaven. Lemuria, he stated, was referred to as "the Lotus" which was their floral symbol. Lemuria was also called the Motherland, symbolized by a tree, The Tree of Life. The Triangle was employed in the design as the figure representing the Mother Goddess. He stated that the Sacred Writings of Lemuria (Mu) are 70,000 years old. The date, he said, goes back even some 100,000 years or more. He said that there is a Great Divine Love which rules the universe, or, in further understanding, the universe within universes. There is no hell with its fire and brimstone taught by the Fundamentalists; for God never created a hell. It is only man's invention - and the only hell that exists is what man makes for himself.

He stated that Love is Eternal, and hell never existed. The turmoils with us today are caused by greed, selfishness, envy, hatred, malice and distrust.

I believe that I mentioned to you that I was a twin. My twin brother George passed on last year - September 20, 2002 at the age of 72. Our birthdate is August 21, 1930. I want to share the following information with you so that you will have a better understanding of my twin and I. One night before we were born, my mother had a vision of Mother Mary who came to her and told her that she will not have one child, but twins will be born to her and come forth from her womb. My brother George was born first at 6:00 p.m. What my mother told me when I was old enough to understand and living at home, that at first she did not believe she would have twins --- and that the doctor sent her home after George was born. Four hours later, at home, I was born as an identical twin. My mother seriously believed that when she had her extraterrestrial experiences, she was told then that she would conceive another in her womb and bare twins.

My mother told me that she believes that I came from another world at the time she was to conceive, and is why I was born some four hours later. My brother was six-pounds, four ounces. I was only three-pounds, five ounces, and the live-in nurse thought that I would not make it because I was a thin, very small child. Though I was never told by Zebban what I am about to say, I have always felt that I was not of this world; that I once was a part of Zebban's world and chose to come to this world to learn. I say this because during one of my contacts, Zebban gave hint that he was my Guardian, some say Guardian Angel, and that I came to Earth with certain attributes for a specific reason, and is why he has been with me since my youth. My twin was rarely with me on my excursions because his wife would not allow it. He did have telepathic powers and the same Bubble feelings. But they ended long before mine did.

There were other signs that Zebban had given me while doing some automatic writings. I will present the signs here, with space to draw the sign for clarification. One was termed a Cosmogony, or a Pyramid. The points of four triangles intersect each other which symbolized Diety. Another sign was the point of a triangle with a Circle at the Apex, which symbolized "The Four Great Pillars." "The Sacred Four." "The Four Great Architects.

4. Wendelle Stevens:

"The Four Great Builders," and "The Four Powerful Ones." Next he drew some fine, straight, horizontal lines, stating that this was their symbol for Space. Next, he drew a circle that was said to be moving in Space, symbolizing the Universe and the magnetic forces within.

I was very upset when I lost my drawing I made of the Mother-craft. But it will be no problem to make another sketch that may turn out better than the first one. We'll soon see. I also need to sketch out some of the interior of the craft, the Observation Deck, the sleeping quarters, and the Control Deck.

I considered getting a start on my drawings and such while things are popping in my memory-bank and send them on ahead for you to place in their proper place. When I make the drawing of the Mother-Craft, I will give details about the interior and that will be the place to add the drawing of the Mother-Craft, as to your discretion. I realize now that it was meant to be that I withheld information from the discreditors and the scornful ones, and finally get in touch with you with the increased knowledge that I received over the years. I finally feel like a great burden is being lifted from me that has been penned-up inside of me for so long. Again, I am very grateful to you for encouraging me to relive my experiences through these writings.

I was rereading one of the binders that was saved, and I feel strongly that science and astronomers along with theologians would probably schrivel up if they read what was received. If you want, I can type the information up and send it to you as soon as I get the opportunity. It pertains to "How The Worlds Were Formed and Came About!" When I reread the contents, the information was amazing, and would hopefully benefit those who are into physics and astronomy. Let me know what you think and how I may handle the writings. I noticed one portion of the writings were given by The Grand Man, who gives a more precise understanding concerning the make-up of the Universes -- plural.

I will close this brief letter for now and send you the items I re-sketched. The breakdown about the design and symbol on the chair was most interesting. Let me know your thoughts on that. I know you to be a patient man. Have a good day.

With warmest regards;

Oswald A. Gonzalez

REPLY TO LETTER OF 22 May 2003

8 June 2003

To: Oswald A. Gozalez
1812 W, Orange Ave.,
Anaheim, CA 92804-2640

Dear Oswald:

I was most pleased to receive your last letter and to learn that you are trying to recapture some of your lost information. You will be happy to know that our views run in very similar patterns and concepts with regard to Diety and the history of Creation, etc.

I am sharing your information with my good friends Lucius Farish and Timothy Good of England, both also of like minds, who have their own reasons for believing the validity of what you are saying. I have a friend whom I allowed to read your long letter, and when he was finished, he looked up and said, "This guy knows too much. He has read a lot of UFO books and is taking various things from various books already in print." I said he was probably jumping to conclusions without foundation, and that that did not worry me at all as, if I had had such experiences from an early age, or any other, I would be collecting and reading everything I could find on the subject.

Now, your sketches were great, and especially so because they are in color. You do have a good eye for detail and a sharp recollection. These will be invaluable in printing the future book. Most books lack sufficient detail for proper visualization by the reader. I like to make up for that lack in the books I put out. And at this point may I suggest that you use your own proper name as author, which will in fact tend to validate what you tried to tell your friends earlier. By the way, don't worry about going "soft in the head" as some would like you to believe. I, myself am 80 years old and going fine. I have had some personal experiences too.

Yes, I shall appreciate your sending on to me what you can as you proceed, and especially the contents of the surviving notebooks. In fact in my preface introducing your book I would like to reproduce some of those pages exactly as they are today, after the abuse by your friends. I like documented realism, as you have seen in my books that you already have. Don't worry about scientists, astronomers and theologians "shriveling up" at what you say about our presently skewed and misguided history. We have had the same thing in my Pleiades case as well as in my Reticulum case, which you said you have in your own collection.

My friend, if you would like to expedite these processes, may I suggest that if you have a computer you may make your pages up to your own personal satisfaction.

Use a Microsoft WORD Program and set your pages up like I am doing here: Set the page size to 6" x 9", provide 1" spacing at the top and bottom of the pages, and 5/8" left and right margins. Type in New Times Roman, size 12 letters, "condensed", and not in bold. Indent five spaces for new paragraphs but no line spacing between paragraphs, except for one line spacing between headings and body of any paragraphs. I shall enclose a sample page. This way you can see for yourself exactly what each of your pages will look like.

For the illustrations you may do something similar so as to see your finished page. Shrink or enlarge your sketches as necessary to fit the 6" x 9" page, oriented either way. If horizontally oriented the top of the page is always to the left. Prepare your caption typing and shrink by 1/3, and paste the reduced caption in place on the finished page. I will add the page numbers as the very last thing before printing.

Maybe we should consider setting the writings by "The Grand Man" out in bold letters for emphasis. We do not care whether all readers are prepared to accept his more advanced knowledge or not. Many will, and so will be pleased at this deference. We need to know more about the Universes (plural) anyway.

Good Luck in recollecting this fine account, my friend, and keep up the good work.

Regards.

Dear Oswald:

I looked up "Horsehead Nebula" in my computer and it came up with some 15 references I could check out. I tried to find two close stars in the upper left part of the nebula, and believe I do see a pair like you have mentioned. There are two small dim stars in the upper part of the neck of the horse. Could those be the ones you are talking about. I have enclosed a copy of a printout of that image for you to try to identify the correct pair.

Do you remember what Zebban called his home sun? How about the other sun? If we can tie this down a little better I can go over to the Kitt Peak observatory and get a better print to publish in your book.

I am getting very interested in this project now and look forward to any more drawings and communications from you. We will build this work pag by page as we proceed and in a couple of months we ought to be able to go to press with it.

Regards.

2 July 2003

Dear Oswald:

I received your letter today and am sorry about your losing the files with your first letters to me in them. I am making copies of all to send back to you tomorrow.

I am also enclosing a title page and the first page of my preface to your work. The preface will continue with shrink reproductions of your letters up to your beginning to reconstruct the lost documentation. It will not matter if you repeat some of this later. Your first letter to me is a perfect introduction to this case, and very much of an attention getter..

I shall also prepare an Appendix I to show the horsehead nebula and its location in the heavens. I shall obtain a more definitive photo of the dark horse's head showing the two brighter stars in the upper left center, in the upper part of the "NECK" of the image. I will include a clip from a good star map, and some narrative description of what we know about this gas cloud in Orion. Did you say you thought the uppermost of the two dim stars in the upper neck was the one that Zebban indicated to you as his planet's sun?

My E-mail address is: s18195a@aol.com which you may use for your letters, and book pages with sketches, even in color. If you will e-mail your pages to me as you go, I can assemble a dummy copy of the book here as a back- up in case something more happens with your files. Do you have a good scanner, with good color rendition?

Again: set your book pages up as follows: In the Microsoft Word program, or equivalent, go to FILE on your top task bar, left one. Under File find "page set up". Click left once there. Then set your page margins at .8 x .8 L & R, 1" x 1" top and bottom. On the next screen under page set up set in your page size as 8" x 9" Width and length, New Times Roman type font at 11 pica, Regular spacing, not bold.

Now on the blank screen, with the inch measurements at the top of the work page, set the left margin tab at 3/8" and the right one at 4 7/8 Now you have your page setup to print the 6" x 9" page size text on 8 ½" x 11" standard size paper sheets. That is easiest since feeding 6" x

9" size sheets through your printer is complicated and we may have to trim out anyway. You can now E-Mail one page, a chapter, or a whole book in one letter. You can also scan any sketches into your computer, at that page size, and send them right along. Same goes for the map clips and even the photograpahs. Scan the photographs at 300 dpi or better.

I will do the same for you, if you will send me your E-Mail address.

By the way, if you have a scanner, could you E-Mail me a copy of your photos. Perhaps one will be good enough for the dust jacket of your book. I could start making one up for you to review.

Here is the deal I have with my other books, which has become over time the best way to go. I pay for the printing and binding, which comes out at about 9.00 to 10.00 per book in a run of 2,000 copies. At less copies the unit cost goes up too fast, and at more copies the amount of the printing becomes to big to handle but the unit price per book comes down. Going into book stores is a loser unless you can print 50,000 copies and go into the big book chain stores. This is one reason there are so few new UFO books out there. The big publishers can not sell enough copies to get into the black. The UFO book market is saturated at about 3,000 books. A 250 page book, hardbound, will sell for about $19.95 initially, and you have to sell 2/3ds of the printing in the first 6 months to make out.

My deal is that I publish the book for sale by direct mail, and I furnish all the books you want at the unit cost of printing for you to sell as you please. It costs the same for printing of a 6" x 9" paperback book as for a hardbound library style book. The difference is in the binding. A paper cover works out at about $1.12 per book and a hard bound copy, like my others, costs about $2.50 per book. The paper back version would sell for about $12.95 each while the hardbound version would sell for about $19.95 each, and the hardbound copies are easier to handle with less loss. All retailers will insist on a 40% discount off the retail price, so I don't do many of those. They also want 120 days deferred payment, and all damaged copies are yours and they will not pay for them.

I shall be waiting for your E-Mail address. It will be on your transmission of the photos. Again my E-Mail is s18195a@aol.com

MY PHYSICAL CONTACT WITH ZEBBAN AND LIOM...
FEBRUARY 19, 1958 --- GIANT ROCK, CALIFORNIA
A True Experience

My story begins one month before my second 'physical' contact, as the movie industry would state --- Encounters of the Third Kind.

In 1956, I moved south, leaving San Francisco to finish my college course in Engineering Drafting and rented an apartment in El Cajon, Cal. which was not far from San Diego State College. Previously, I learned that my twin brother George had a serious accident at his apprentise school for sheetmetal with his back, and learned that he had a crushed disk and would need spinal fussion surgery. He was living in Anaheim, Cal. I kept in touch by phone, and when I finished my college education and received my degree in Drafting, I went to live with my brother and found out that he had divorced his wife because she didn't want to be married to an invalid. He had a home nurse that came every day to tend to his needs. The home nurse had a daughter named Margaret who volunteered to help her mother to nurse George back to health. Margaret was a divorcee with three children. The continued reunion later led to their marriage which lasted forty-two years.

Even though my specialty was in drafting, jobs were not as available in construction work as I thought. I soon found work with Kirkill Rubber Company in Fullerton, Cal. working and preparing the chemical compounds for making rubber, mixing the compounds and putting it on a large turning cylinder called a Banberry machine, which mixed the rubber which was then cut and placed into folds and put on wooden flatbeds. I started work their in November of 1957.

When the home nurse left for the evening, my twin brother would relate to me about his past hobby which entailed going to the Mojave desert to collect ring-tailed lizards and sell them to Knott's Berry Alligator Farm in Buena Park, Cal. where they had glass display cases for lizards, snakes, etc. He told me that he received $200.00 per lizard that he caught, and thought it to be a good opportunity for me to make extra cash. Before that Friday came around I decided to try my luck at catching these creatures of the desert, whom, according to my twin looked like miniature Tyronasuras Rex and also ran on their long hind legs.

It wasn't until February 1958 that I would be able to make the trip. I had to work at least three months before I could take a day off for a three-day weekend. When February came around, I took Friday the 19th off, never realizing that this would be an adventure I would never forget. I had never been to any real desert in my life except Joshua Tree National Forest, which was a forest and not a desert. George jotted down the directions since he had been there quite often. I left early that morning of the 19th, with a cooler of ice, sandwiches, chicken and a few sodas and water. I had no problem getting to the particular area from his Topo map and written directions. I arrived in mid-morning, found a good spot to park my vehicle which was on a wide dirt clearing and got busy preparing my sleeping bag in the back seat and had lunch.

2. Extraterrestrial contact:

It was breezy with a coolness that blew dust-twirls about. I saw two Winnabago's parked on the same dirt clearing, and felt somewhat safe knowing I wasn't alone out in that desert. After lunch, I gathered up the net-catch and loop switch that George gave me to use to catch these lizard critters. Before long I would see a few running on their haunches and quickly scurry towards the rocks that were all about the area. I waited patiently, stationing myself near the rocks, missing a few that flew out of their nesting place. After almost two or three hours of continuous failures, I gave up and went back to my car, and thought of trying my luck after a while. Those creatures were very fast on their long legs.

At 5:30 I ate my dinner cooked on my small camp-stove, heating up some chicken legs and thighs. I decided afterward to use the 'black-light' that George gave me to use to gather up in a small cloth bag some rocks that shone a fluorescent color under the black light. It was dark by 6:00 p.m. and believe me, it gets plenty dark without the city lights to reflect their power. It was considered winter in the desert, but you could have fooled me. It was still hot at 6:00. George told me to collect as many rocks as I could, and that I would be amazed at the many different colors I would see under that black light. He had quite a collection of his own that he showed me. The sky was clear with no clouds and many, many stars twinkling away with some shining even brighter. I turned the black light on and immediately began seeing many flourescent rocks -- some orange, others a pale blue, dark green, yellow and others a brilliant lime-green. They were very pretty and I gathered as many as would fill that cloth bag.

When I decided to stop, I hadn't realized that it was close to 10:00 p.m. and called it a night. I went to my car, placed my bag of rocks and black-light in the trunk and went in the back seat and took my boots, shirt and pants off and climbed into my sleeping bag to read my book with my flashlight. George had told me that the sun comes up early and, not knowing what direction it would shine, I put my jacket over one window and my shirt over the other. After reading awhile, I began to fall asleep, turned off the flashlight and tucked in for the night. I soon fell fast asleep.

Around 12:30 or so I began getting that feeling of Bigness that began to envelope my entire body. It woke me up and was very strong, with that tingling feeling from my head to my feet. I knew that Zebban was attempting to make contact, but here in my car? I had no way of knowing what his intentions were and I lay there waiting to receive some telepathic word, but nothing happened, not yet anyway. I decided to put my clothes and boots on and went outside with the feeling and sensation still strong. In the moonlight I looked at my watch. It was 12:33 a.m. I felt as if I was going to rise upward because of that strong sensation. As I stood there outside my car I suddenly saw a brilliant flash of white light that was descending downward like a shooting star, and it was heading toward a mountain.

It was a huge bright white light that was moving at a normal pace as it descended. It disappeared behind a mountain or large hill, and I listened to hear if it was a meteor that was about to crash and explode. The light was almost rectangular in shape. I never heard a crash and only made out a glow of light on the other side of that mountain. My heart began to beat faster because I had no idea what to expect. I ran back to my car and grabbed my flashlight and 8mm camera which was an old Kodak I had for some years. I headed in the direction of the bright light which was still visible and some distance between me and the hill. I had to be careful because there was alot of sagebrush all over the hill and desert floor. I could still make out the light, thinking it to be a meteor as I neared the base of the large hill. It was pretty dark except for the bright 3/4 moon and I stumbled alot on those loose rocks, loosing my balance occassionaly. I began climbing with my flashlight on and my 8mm camera slung over my shoulder. I had to stop to catch my breath and watch my path in front of me. I was always told that rattle snakes frequent desert areas and are out at night searching for prey in the cool night air.

When I stopped again 1/4 of the way up, I saw two figures which were silhouetted with the moon in the background, standing at the very top of this large hill. I couldn't make out any features and thought that they were some desert people observing me as I climbed. I could tell that they were watching me struggle up that hill. I stopped again to catch my breath and was 1/2 way up by now, and I noticed that they had their arms folded and standing real firm. I noticed that one person was somewhat taller than the other. By now I could feel the chill of the night air and I was sorry now that I didn't grab my jacket, -- and I wasn't about to go back that distance to my car and get it. It was difficult and hard enough to get as far as I did so far. At that distance I noticed a slight hue of a yellow glow about their bodies and I knew no earth person was able to do that. I got my camera out and took some footage shots of this weird glow. They were still standing there with their arms folded.

With my flashlight still on I continued to climb toward them. Looking back down the hill I noticed it was a steep climb to the top. When I was more than half way up I slipped and fell and sat there a moment almost wanting to cuss but I held my tongue. As I sat there I heard my name being called, not out loud but telepathically. I knew then it had to be Zebban and Liom and not just some desert folks. I looked up and listened again when my name was repeated --- "Brother Oswald!" As I stood up on my feet, they called me again; -- "Brother Oswald! Have no fear. It is purposed for us to meet with you and commune together." Then my thoughts came back to me and I remembered what was told to me in 1946 when I was in a coma in the hospital and had my 'near-death' experience -- that I would meet with my mentors in a desert place at the proper time.

Climbing higher I could make out that yellow glow alot easier. As I neared the top the glow about their bodies radiated even more, possibly for my own protection and theirs. I finally reached the top and was on the left side of them, and the glow began to diminish and they let down their arms. I was right. It was Zebban and Liom. I recognized them immediately. I made a jester to shake their hands when Zebban made motion for me to wait. He passed his right hand over my entire body and I felt a warm and soothing sensation that relaxed me somewhat. He spoke again telepathically and said to me; "If I did not do what I had done, you would have been stunned and slightly immobile for a spell. Now we are able to make contact with each other. Our bodies are in a higher tune of vibration than your own, because you are in a lower vibratory state than we because of your earthly life these many years. I have but adjusted our frequencies in balance." I was sure happy to hear that.

He motioned for me to follow them. I took notice in the moonlight that they were both wearing light-yellow garments. Zebban immediately (as always) picked up my thoughts and stated: "We also achieve for ourselves higher positions just as you progress from grade to grade in your schools and colleges, even though we are on a higher grade of learning. The color of our garments show our achievements." With a warm smile on his face, he motioned for us to continue walking. I was awe struck suddenly when we came to the ridge of the hill and looking down into the valley below I saw the most beautiful golden glow about the craft, not that it glowed gold, because it was a golden sheath. The craft seemed larger than the previous ones. I don't think I'll ever get over the beauty of such a breathtaking vehicle. All I said was WOW! I saw another large hill opposite this one and knew he chose a good place to land and not be detected.

We walked further down from the ridge point and I was so in awe as the craft sat there pulsating with a dimmer blue-green and white hue around its outer rim. A red rotating light was just below that. The upper three colors were going in a clock-wise direction while the red light was going in a counter-clockwise direction. It was a very large ship with the center cylinder touching earth and sitting their majestically balanced. "You have taken notice to our craft Oswald?, said Liom. I said Yes, and that its beauty is breathtaking with that brilliant golden-silver textured surface. We stood beneath the craft now, near the cylinder that showed no doorway. I mentioned that it was slightly larger than the others. He telepathically said, "Its circumference is 150 rotanes, or feet in your measurements." I asked "What is the height?" He answered with an amusing thought statement; "You need not vocalize your speech. Just visualize your thought patterns for communication with us. You will be amazed at how easy it is to translate thoughts. We know that you have used your vocal chords as the means for your communicating."

"In answer to your question (as he spoke telepathically) the craft is 50 feet in height. Because of its larger span we can easily fortify 24 crew members without any problem. Each crew member have their duties to perform and do so with no malice." As I stood there gazing at the craft, I asked; "Do you have female crew members aboard as well as male?" With a smile he answered; "Yes my friend. We have eight female crew members who are well versed in astro-physics and flight navigation instruction, and are well suited for such long time travels through the cosmos. We have sixteen male crew members, with some of them well versed in geophysics analysis and astrology who know the heavens like a book, so to speak. It is their instruction in schooling and learning." I asked, "I notice that the two male crew members standing near the cylinder are wearing tight-fitted light tan garments. Do all the male crew members wear the same color garments? And what color do the females wear?" He replied, "You do have many questions. An inquisitive mind is never idle. Yes, the male members all wear the same color garment. The female members all wear light-blue fitting garments. Come, let us enter for our time is not a long one this day."

The two male members were awaiting our arrival and stepped to one side as we approached. I looked up and could see many faces peering through the windows of the craft. This particular craft also had three rows of four windows all in an octangular shape. "You take note of the cylinder. It is our debarkation and embarkation shaft that your world terms an 'elevator'. This is a similar craft as our others but much larger. The craft has three elevations with a top crystalized canopy." Now and then I would catch myself speaking through my vocal chord and they would smile and Liom said; "We know of the difficulty you earth humans have in communicating with your mind only. You will come to learn this form of communication by thought." A door opened on the cylinder and we stepped aboard along with the two crew members. No buttons or switches were seen, yet the shaft moved upward. I felt the sensation of floating and was told that we were now in flight. The door opened again and when it closed I saw no seams to let you know a door was there. We came into a large oval shaped room, and I noticed that the windows were now rectangular in shape.

All around the curved walls at an even keel with the windows were instruments that I did not recognize since I saw no such machines on earth. Crew members were busy operating these machines while Zebban and Liom were motioning me to sit down on the curved lounge situated near an upward or tilted floor leading to the cylinder. There were a few other curved lounge chairs and what I would call a couch, but formed alot different than those on earth. I began feeling a surge of discomfort and Zebban immediately knew what the problem was, and spoke to a crew member telepathically and he left the room. Liom stated; "It was told to the crew member to have the power turned off. What you were feeling was the outer fields of force since we are far above your earth. You would be amazed at the forces of energy that we can transmit in an instant." As I sat there I looked around the room and saw some lights that appeared to be stars.

"Liom saw my astonished look on my face and said, "What you are observing now is the stars within the heavens. We can also observe them in a better way by looking at the charts within our instruments. We are now some greater distance from your planet at this time. Our pick-up rendevous point was not suitable for us to remain because of the military base nearby and some distance from our landing area. It is safer for all concerned to be some distance from your earth. Your military would not take it lightly with our presence and think we are invaders. Life on your world is still somewhat backward and very much a threat to our craft and ourselves." At the instrument consoles were chairs that resembled captain's chairs, with small symbols on the backs that I could not make out clearly. The lounge seats we were sitting on looked like a tapestry material in a light color of blue, very soft yet firm to the contours of our bodies.

In the center of our seating area was a low table made of some form of crystal, with notches that appeared to be for holding some type of vessel, like a drinking vessel. Two of the female crew members were carrying a platter with glasses of a beverage. One female member stated; "We wish you all the comfort available. We have brought you some refreshment while you visit with us." She left the refreshments on the table and when she stood up I noticed her hair that flowed below her shoulders about an inch or so. She had auburn hair. Her features were like any female on earth, and her skin color looked like she was sunburned. All those that I did see were very attractive and probably weighed around 115 or 120 pounds, very trim in their garments, which showed the curvatures of their bodies and covered them from the neck to their feet. They all wore identical belts with a peculiar looking buckle that had rounded type buttons on them, not buttons like we have on our shirts, but like touch-buttons. Their light-blue garments had small stripes around the neck and wrists that were yellow in color.

6. Extraterrestrial Contact:

They set the beverages down and left the room. Then Zebban sent his thought-waves to me:-- "You have been aboard this particular craft many times with your brother when you were both youngsters." I never mentioned about George's back injury, but they knew because he said; "We are saddened that your twin has been injured. We will speak with him at an appointed time. He will know of our presence. We wish to discuss with you the concerns of your world and the devastations that the governments of your world are imposing upon the innocent. Your bitter world war that has passed has not awakened those who deem to be world rulers, through lust, greed and hatred within the races, but will attempt to cause more bloodshed. Mankind has not yet learned the meaning of love for their fellow man, but make excuses to shed more blood for their own selfish needs."

"Other nations will bring terror upon many innocent lives and think their cause is a just one. Hatred only broods a sickened and rebellious nation of evil and will not end for generations to come. It has been written by the Christed One whom your world calls Jesus that there will be wars and rumors of wars. We come to others within your government to bring honor and a way of life that was left with your world by the man of Nazareth; who taught a rebellious land the ways of Truth and Love. But His words go unheeded these many generations because of greed and lust for power. Certain rulers will strike fear in the hearts of the innocent. We are forever watching the military nations who think by having arsenals of nuclear weapons that it will bring a lasting peace. Should the atomic and nuclear tests continue upon your world, it will cause havoc within the cosmos and worlds within your system and other systems beyond your knowledge."

"The unseen particles cast off by such testings rise ever higher forming a ring of devastating mass that will take many years to disintegrate. Rainfalls will carry the deadly particles back down to earth and bring sickness and unknown diseases upon the multitude. Though we venture near such test-sites, we remain aloft in the upper reaches of your atmosphere and are not allowed to interfere with the prophecies written, which will surely come upon your world should those in power deem it to be. So above, so below. We come to ones such as you to bring forth the word to those who sit upon their thrones, who listen to the hypocrisy and lies of certain Elite, not only in your nation but other nations as well. The technology taken by the military nations from those unfortunate accidents and crashes of the neighboring beings will come back upon those who venture to destroy and maim the innocent. Though we do not tolerate their treatment upon the survivors of such crashes, our hands are tied and we will not make any attempts to interfere."

"Your own nation will suffer greatly with devastating floods and destructive winds of great velocity. Though these things have come about in your past history, they will ravage upon the lands greater havoc and turmoil in time to come. We foresee these things to come about, and though we speak them unto you, there is nothing that man can do against the powers of nature. It is sad to see the devastation that comes upon your world due to the negative forces that your world has continually brought upon themselves. We have fulfilled this one part of our mission. As I stated earlier, we have contacted others besides you in other parts of your world. You and your twin have been a part of a 'grouping' beyond your birth. There are others in this 'grouping' that have also been chosen throughout your world. There have been incidents that have been activated by your government and other world governments to destroy our craft or disable it, but their attempts have been unsuccessful with their foolishness. Yours is a sick world full of hatred, greed and lust for power to gain their own financial ends."

Liom related to me; "You will be intimidated, persecuted and condemned by a few religious orders as a liar, a charlatan and a devil worshipper because of the discourse you are being given. Some will even relate and express their inner-thoughts with jealousy on their mind and say, 'Why do they not come to me instead of you who have certain government background?' Do they not see that their own threats and condemnation of calling you a liar makes them hypocrites? If they do not believe in us and call you a liar, why do they insist that we contact them? Would chance be that they would believe? I think not Oswald. But do not falter when they inflict you with the thorns of jealous input. They become as illiterates of spirit, ignorant to the truth. Be thou of good cheer for we are always with you in spirit and thought."

I again felt a sensation like one would feel when an elevator stops at a certain floor. Zebban's thoughts entered my mind; -- "We have returned to your earth at our earlier rendevous area. Your military instrumentation known as radar has picked us up on their screen and will no doubt send out aircraft to investigate. We must bid you farewell for now." With that said, we embarked on the cylinder elevator and I was let out of the craft between the two hills. I saw them wave with the remark; "Shasta! Brother Oswald." I scrambled up the hillside that I came down in a hurry because I didn't want to be near when their power was turned on. The cylinder went up into the craft and I saw the windows become rectangular, and there was that brilliant white, yellow, orange glow that made the craft look like a ball of light as it shot up into the night sky and quickly disappeared. High up I could make out a strobbing light which was all that was seen of the craft.

As I strolled down the hill I remembered the 8mm shots I took of Zebban and Liom as they stood on the top of the hill with arms folded. I was happy that I was able to get those shots and now was hoping that they came out and focused alright. This film is still in my possession. I used up the remaining film taking pictures of George, Margaret and the children so that I could see the film with a projector. Arriving at the base of the hill with camera and flashlight, I glanced at my wristwatch and discovered it was now 02:30 a.m. Then I heard the roar of jet aircraft flying in formation just over the area where the craft had been. I counted six jets making a wide loop looking for the craft, which was long gone. I looked up into the night sky and could still see the strobbing lights of white, yellow and orange. I suppose they were letting me know that all was well.

I finally arrived at my car and climbed into the back seat and tried to get some sleep. It took awhile because of all that was on my mind. Early the next morning I was awakened by the sound of small aircraft landing, and many cars, trucks and campers arriving on the wide sandy and flattop area. There were many vehicles parked, and I didn't know what was going on. I put my clothes and boots on and went out and approached some folks close by and asked them what was with all the vehicles and campers? And why so many small aircraft? "This must be your first time at the Annual Giant Rock UFO Convention!" I told them it was and never realized anything because

8. Extraterrestrial Contact:

I came here last night for other reasons. They said that this is our third time coming and that they have a number of popular and known speakers. I had no idea that I stumbled onto this type of convention, never been to one either.

Cars, trucks, campers, motorcycles and more aircraft were still arriving and invading the place. The crowds were also getting larger. I decided to roam around and see what was going on. There were speaker stands and a stage being put together, with many wires attached to speakers and mikes. Some wires were strung up high on poles to keep out of the crowds way. They installed a podium for any speaker. Then I saw a large boulder that evidently gave the name Giant Rock. It was 07:30 a.m. I walked to the large boulder and went around it and saw tables and chairs and people eating breakfast. Then I saw a make-shift kitchen with stoves on wheels, a refrigerator and many ice-chests filled with cold drinks. They also made sandwiches, served with potato chips or Fritos. I was hungry and bought myself scrambled eggs, sausage, toast and coffee. I noticed that they also served hot dogs and hamburgers.

After breakfast I strolled around the crowds and came upon some tables with advertisements about the speakers, and various UFO books and New Age books. I browsed through the books and advertisement, and some of the speakers were George Adamski, George Hunt Williamson, Daniel Fry and others. I went back to my car to get my polaroid camera which I also brought with me. I wanted to take some pictures to show my twin brother. The time was now 09:30 a.m. and really starting to get hot. I loaded my polaroid and remembered my hat. I just had my T-shirt and shorts on. Some men were setting up a large canvas covering on poles in front of the stage and podium. Then they began setting up alot of folding chairs for the crowds to sit and listen. I noticed that many people brought their own camping chairs and positioned themselves close to the front, with their ice-chests filled with ice, water and sodas. A large sign was placed near the stage which read..."No Licquor or Beer allowed at the Convention." I noticed another sign at the make-shift restaurant that read..."No Beer Sold Here."

It was now 10:00 a.m. when they announced that the first speaker was about to begin his story. Daniel Fry was the 'master of ceremonies' and introduced George Adamski to the crowd. It was announced that each speaker would be allowed a maximum of 2 hours to speak, no more, no less, and that there were several speakers to tell their stories during the two-day Convention week-end. There were many with tape recorders and video cameras. It was getting warmer but there was a cool breeze blowing. I wanted so badly to relate last nights experience to these people, but since I wasn't scheduled to speak, the idea faded from my mind.

A security guard offered me a chair so I could sit and listen to the tales being told. I was really enthused with Adamski's story. He even had blow-up photo's of the craft he was taken aboard. By the time Adamski was through speaking, it was 12:00 noon, and Daniel Fry suggested that we take a break before the next speaker and have lunch. Crowds gathered around Adamski getting his book autographed, which were selling rather quickly after his talk. I went to the restaurant under the Giant Rock and had lunch. After eating I decided to take a few polaroid shots of the amount of cars, trucks, aircraft, and campers around - which I did take. I took a few shots of the crowd, the restaurant, the Giant Rock, the stage but never got the chance to take pictures of the speakers. I went back to my chair to reload my camera, when all of a sudden I began feeling that "Bigness" feeling coming over me. I knew Zebban wished to contact me for some reason. I sat there a second or so when Zebban spoke telepathically; "Brother Oswald", he said! "We wish to accommodate you with a fresh view of our craft today for those around you to know we do exist. We know of such meetings with those who have had contacts with others in the cosmos. We are aware of the enthusiastic crowd of believers. It was known to us and have come to give you a chance for more photographs of our craft. We will make our craft to be seen above the large rock. Be prepared with your photo instrument. We wish you well. Shastal, Imenubicob."

I was quite a distance from the rock, some 40 or 50 feet maybe, when I snapped the picture of the rock. All the pictures took about 40 seconds to become clear. That particular shot only showed the rock, some cars and two portable toilets. So, I took another shot and waited the 40 seconds. When the picture became clear lo and behold, I was flabergasted at what I photographed. There above the Giant Rock was Zebban's craft as I saw it the day before when it left. It was a bubble-like bright cloud or feature that really lit up, and below this bright cloud which was fully illuminated was a large ray of light that shone down on the left side of the rock, illuminating a smaller rock or boulder. When I looked up at the rock I saw nothing with my eyes. I looked at the picture and realized that the camera's eye caught what I could not see. I was told that the photo picked up the harmonics and vibrations of energy.

I was so astonished, I began showing others around me the two photos, explaining which I took first. A small crowd started gathering around me as I displayed the photos, not letting them out of my sight. It created quite a stir before the next speaker came to the podium. It was George Hunt Williamson. Meanwhile the news spread about my photos while the speaker continued to speak. I sat down admiring the photos when this gentleman came up to me and put his hand out to greet me. It was George Adamski. Word evidently got to him about the photos taken at this convention, and he borrowed a folding chair and sat down next to me and he began asking me questions. "Have you ever had any contacts, that is physical ones before?" he asked. I told him that I have had many visitations by these beings since I was five years old. He asked, "Was I abducted by them?" I told him NO! He asked me if I ever heard of him and I told him NO again, that this was my first time I ever met him.

As we talked, I began to tell him about my encounter the previous night and pointed out to him exactly where, and what time, and allowed aboard the craft for almost two hours. I told him about the military jets that flew over to locate the craft. He became very interested. He wanted to see the pictues again, so I showed him. I told him that my contact told me telepathically that he would be over the Giant Rock and for me to photograph their craft, and this is what appeared. "How very interesting", he said and told me he would like to talk with me later on and left.

There were two other speakers that afternoon, the last one ending at 5:30 p.m. They announced that they were going to show a movie at 8:30 p.m. that evening, and for us to make room for all the folding chairs and movie camera to get set up. The name of the movie was to be "The Day The Earth Stood Still" with Michael Rene. I went and had dinner at 6:30 p.m. buying a hot meal at the restaurant. When 8:30 came around, I bought a cup of coffee and donut and took a seat near the far end. The stars were in abundance with some strobbing, and I thought to myself 'I wonder if one of those strobbing lights was Zebban's craft?' I had no sooner finished that thought when Zebban came through telepathically and said, "Your assumptions are correct!"

I watched the movie which was breathtaking out among the many stars. After the movie I decided to call it a day. Adamski never came around again and I went to my car and soon fell asleep, putting my photo's that I took that day in a safe place. The next day a crowd was aready seated in front of the stage. I ate a quick breakfast and decided to head out early for home. That weekend was quite an adventure for me even though I was coming home empty-handed without any ring-knecked lizards. I had the fluorescent stones and most important the photos of the convention and Zebban's craft.

I arrived at my apartment that afternoon and called George and told him what took place. I ended up going go his home and told him about my experience on board the craft with Zebban and Liom, about the rocks and no lizards, and showed him the polaroid shots of the convention, the restaurant, the Giant Rock and the two last photos I took, one of the Rock and the other with Zebban's craft above the Rock. I told him about the 8mm movie shots I took, and after reading what was on the film box - "Film For Daylight" I wondered if the shots even came out. The film was Kodachrome K-459 double 8mm which I bought that same year - 1958. The box also stated - For 8mm Roll Cameras Only.. I may need to send the film to Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester, N.Y. or to a Kodak Dealer for processing. I still have the film. END....

WHAT'S IT?

On the opposite page we are printing another picture taken at the last spacecraft convention held at Giant Rock on April 28th and 29th of this year.

We are not making any claims that these are space craft, either remotely controlled or otherwise. We do know that the phenomena occurred while the camera shutter was open.

The picture was taken by Carl A. Anderson of 4826 Hazelbrook Ave., Long Beach, California. Carl took the picture at 2:30 P.M. on April 28th. He was photographing Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn, who are friends of his.

According to Carl, they said they heard a loud swishing noise when he snapped their picture.

The contour of the light trails conforms to the contour of the mountain in the background. It is certainly an unusual photograph and we hope our readers may arrive at some further conclusions after examining the picture.

Carl has recently written a book entitled "Two Nights To Remember", recounting his familie's experience with a saucer. It is being published by the New Age Publishing Co. of 1542 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles, California

ANNIVERSARY

This is the third anniversary issue of the "Proceedings". We wish to express our appreciation to the many readers who have made it possible to keep this contribution supported paper active.

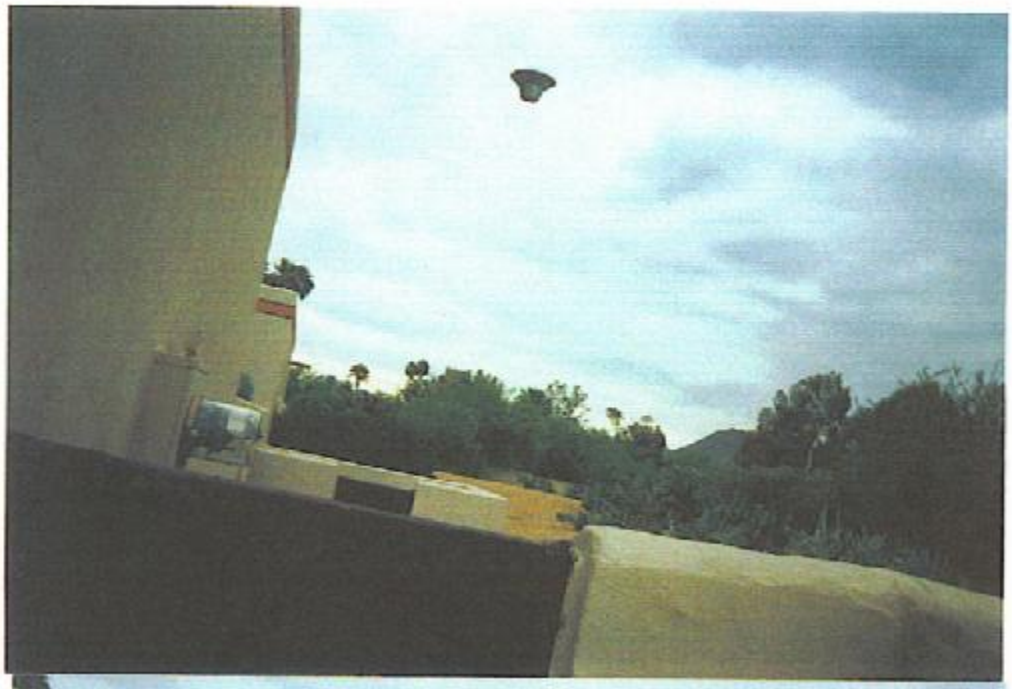
UFO PHOTOGRAPHS
OF
SIMILAR CRAFT

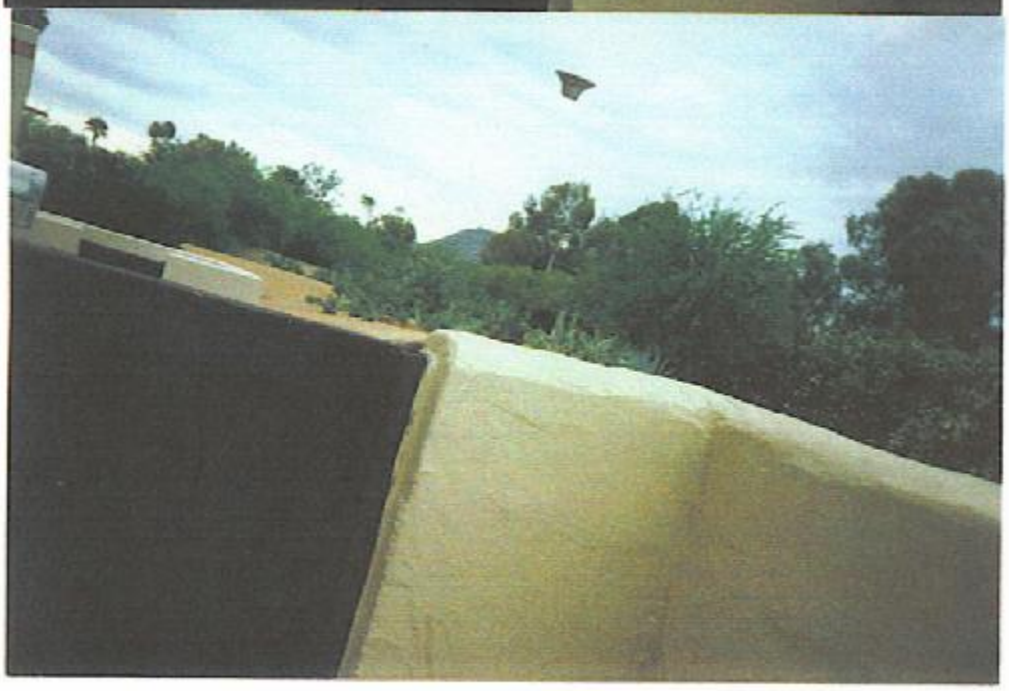
Actual photographs of a similar shape and style Unidentified Flying Object were made in Phoenix, Arizona in March of 1995.

Joe Clower, a house painter by trade, was working in Phoenix in March of 1995. He had returned to his small Motel nearby for lunch. As he was eating his meal in the little Motel restaurant about 12:30, he noticed a strange Golf-Tee shaped flying object rocking along at low altitude above the Motel. He grabbed his always ready Polaroid One Step instant camera, jumped up and began snapping pictures of the ship as it slowly passed overhead, catching the exposed prints as they came out of the camera and laying them on a table there. He was unable to pursue it very far because of the wall around the patio dining area. He got 5 good photographs.

That evening as he was eating his dinner in the same patio dining area, about 18:00, he saw the same or a very similar ship appear overhead again following the same track as before and he took one more Polaroid photo of this one too. The ships appear to be identical. Note the small orange colored "blisters" around the under side of the craft. It had a rounded translucent whitish dome covering nearly the whole top side of the form.

In 1994 I began receiving beautiful color photographs of UFOs taken by Joe Clower and two friends of his. Avid rock collectors, they went to remote desert areas together looking for mineral specimens and fluorescent rocks. They experienced their first UFO sighting together, with no cameras ready. They began to carry their cameras with them at all times. They each saw and photographed UFOs and exchanged the pictures with each other. This was one of Joe Clower's contributions.





SECOND EVENT – SAME DAY

At about 18:30 Joe Clower had returned to his Motel after a day of painting, and after freshening up some had gone over to the small restaurant for dinner on the open air patio there As he was waiting for his meal to arrive he looked up to see the same or a very similar dark golf tee shaped Unidentified Flying Object passing overhead in about the same pattern and route as the one seen at noon. He picked up his Polaroid One Step camera and snapped this one more picture of the unusual flying object as it passed. Note that the orange "blister" is now glowing some.

Dear Wendelle:

I was very pleased and grateful to you for sending me copies of all that I have sent you since our beginning correspondence. When I attempted to retrieve the things that I saved on my Packard Bell computer, it upset me when it abruptly sent the message that my previous material placed on "save" was deleted due to an overload in power. I am now going to make copies of all that I write and send to you to prevent the same situation from ever happening again.

I was very pleased in what you sent and its prefacing and shrinkage reproductions made. I showed it to my wife and she was also pleased. Thank you so much for all your efforts. I'm not much of a wizz with computers, but my wife knows a great deal more since she works with computers at her job and uses her new computer here at home. She told me that her computer here at home is not programed for Microsoft WORD Program, but that her computer at work is. She wants me to type up my experiences and she will transport them onto a disc and from there she will make the 6" x 9" page size with 1" spacing at the top and bottom, with 5/8" left and right margins in Times Roman, size 12 letters like I'm using here, only this is Arial (TT) size 12 pt.

She did try doing some work on her home computer with what you suggested and it came out fairly well, but was unable to get the margins correctly. I agree with you about putting The Grand Man information in bold letters for emphasis. After all, he is a special dignitary. It may be of interest for you to know that I found out His real identity and was I ever surprised to learn that. His real identity is Archangel GABRIEL. I'm not sure if we should identify him as such, but leave it just as He is -- The Grand Man. I believe it gives Him more clout if you know what I mean.

I'm very pleased that you are attempting some more definitive photo's of the dark horse's head for more clearity. Thank you for your E-mail address (s18195a@aol.com.) As soon as my wife clarifies to me about her computer, it will be a better means for the book pages, sketches, even if possible, in color, which her machine has available. I'll have to ask my wife if she has a scanner with color rendition. When it comes to these new fangled computers, I'm certainly the last in line as far as knowing. But she will teach me and I am a fast learner. I gave her your recent letter that came with my copies which was dated 2 July 2003. I don't know ~~offhand~~ what our E-mail address is off hand, but when my wife comes home, I will certainly include it in this letter. Right now I have some learning to do. In the meantime, I am typing up my Physical Contact with Zebban and Liom, which occurred on February 19, 1958 at Giant Rock, California. Along with this contact material I will be sending you copies my wife and I made of the craft with my polaroid camera.

Best regards:

Oswald Gonzalez

MY PHYSICAL CONTACT WITH ZEBBAN AND LIOM...
FEBRUARY 19, 1958 --- GIANT ROCK, CALIFORNIA
A True Experience

My story begins one month before my second 'physical' contact, as the movie industry would state --- Encounters of the Third Kind.

In 1956, I moved south, leaving San Francisco to finish my college course in Engineering Drafting and rented an apartment in El Cajon, Cal. which was not far from San Diego State College. Previously, I learned that my twin brother George had a serious accident at his apprentise school for sheetmetal with his back, and learned that he had a crushed disk and would need spinal fussion surgery. He was living in Anaheim, Cal. I kept in touch by phone, and when I finished my college education and received my degree in Drafting, I went to live with my brother and found out that he had divorced his wife because she didn't want to be married to an invalid. He had a home nurse that came every day to tend to his needs. The home nurse had a daughter named Margaret who volunteered to help her mother to nurse George back to health. Margaret was a divorcee with three children. The continued reunion later led to their marriage which lasted forty-two years.

Even though my specialty was in drafting, jobs were not as available in construction work as I thought. I soon found work with Kirkill Rubber Company in Fullerton, Cal. working and preparing the chemical compounds for making rubber, mixing the compounds and putting it on a large turning cylinder called a Banberry machine, which mixed the rubber which was then cut and placed into folds and put on wooden flatbeds. I started work their in November of 1957.

When the home nurse left for the evening, my twin brother would relate to me about his past hobby which entailed going to the Mojave desert to collect ring-tailed lizards and sell them to Knott's Berry Alligator Farm in Buena Park, Cal. where they had glass display cases for lizards, snakes, etc. He told me that he received $200.00 per lizard that he caught, and thought it to be a good opportunity for me to make extra cash. Before that Friday came around I decided to try my luck at catching these creatures of the desert, whom, according to my twin looked like miniature Tyronasuras Rex and also ran on their long hind legs.

It wasn't until February 1958 that I would be able to make the trip. I had to work at least three months before I could take a day off for a three-day weekend. When February came around, I took Friday the 19th off, never realizing that this would be an adventure I would never forget. I had never been to any real desert in my life except Joshua Tree National Forest, which was a forest and not a desert. George jotted down the directions since he had been there quite often. I left early that morning of the 19th, with a cooler of ice, sandwiches, chicken and a few sodas and water. I had no problem getting to the particular area from his Topo map and written directions. I arrived in mid-morning, found a good spot to park my vehicle which was on a wide dirt clearing and got busy preparing my sleeping bag in the back seat and had lunch.

a course like that of a sun, and was the cause of world-wide droughts, fires, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions and floods in the second half of your 13th century BC. Since that time a similar 'ball of fire' had occurred and recorded in the Sumerian text as a comet, which thine own present times refer to as Haley's Comet, which thou would describe as history repeating itself. Is this not so?

"It has been suggested by your astronomers in their charting that the comet Phaethon is identical with Haley's comet. Know ye this fact that this heavenly body had appeared again in your earthly years 1531, 1607, 1682, 1759, 1835, also on May 20, 1910 and again in 1986. In each instance we had observed its trajectory which has been recorded in our 'screen analyzers'. It was found that in a given amount of years catastrophes always occurred when this comet appeared and circled your earth. We are not given to interfere with its trajectory path nor to force it by stopping its intended target. Your earth is in its cleansing period and is the will of HE who rules your system. This comet is still held to be the greatest in your solar system. Its tail is 30 kilometers long, and follows a course that circles your sun and then moves away from it as far as your neighboring planet Neptune.

"The consequences of this comet can be cataclysmic, and your planet can be enveloped in a deadly cloud of poisonous gases and cosmic dust that makes up the tail of this comet. It contains Hydrogen, Carbon, Nitrogen, Hydrogen Cyanide, and Potassium Cyanide, which in a way places your planet in a monstrous gas chamber. " I asked him, "Is there any possibility of you interfering in order to prevent a global catastrophe?" Answer: "I did not say it would happen but that it can be cataclysmic."

"Let it be known that it has been recorded in the Roman text of Julianis (July) AD 451, that the comet Phaethon appeared in the skies the year of the birth of Emmanuel - whom your world recognizes as Jesus. The Roman text stated: 'In the year 451 AD at the time of Augustus Caesar, terrible signs were seen in the heavens and on the earth, with severe earthquakes, and the moon in the heavens was darkened; - and in the west a comet appeared and shone for some time, being of enormous size. In the north the sky became red as fire, and appeared as fire and blood against which lighter rays likened unto spears were interspersed.'

Question: "Was that text written in the Roman language?" Answer: "Indeed it was. We understand all languages spoken on earth. We simply translated the text into your English language for varification and script. To continue: - Does not this text sound similar to what has already been written and recorded in your New Testament of your Bible? Would you not consider these facts to be a repeated phenomenon?" We answered Yes, it sounds exactly like our scriptures. He answered, "Therefore, get thee thy Good Book and read Revelations chapter 6:, verses 12, 13, 14 to the place where the sixth seal was opened. I will await your return." My twin remained motionless. I hurried and returned with my Bible and opened up to Revelations chapter 6 and read the verses given.

Verse 12 - "And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became as black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon

Dear Wendelle:

Thank you so much for sending me a copy of my last experience at Giant Rock, Ca. in which you so willingly placed in shrinkage format. I am so grateful for your support in helping me put forth these experiences in the manner in which you do. In answer to your 19 July 2003 letter if I received the package of sample pages, Yes I did receive it and I'm very grateful. I also want to thank you for your wonderful comment on my illustrative art work. I intend to follow your advise and continue to do all my illustrations in color since it has been the least complete in UFO history. I sent you our E-mail address in my last letter and I will have to remind my wife to look on our E-mail responses when she gets on her computer. At present, she is busy writing up reviews on her workers which she has to have completed before the end of the week. She is a Director at ADP (Automatic Data Processing) firm and has a great deal of responsibilities. She's a wonderful wife and I love her dearly.

I know you are very busy with your own gatherings of information from what you stated about finishing up your typing of UFO CONTACT FROM PLANET UMMO, Vol. III for a future publication. Your endeavors into publication of other contact experiences shows how busy you must be, and still take the time to consider my own works.

I totally enjoyed the book you sent me that was written by Leo Dworshak titled "UFO'S ARE WITH US - TAKE MY WORD." He did an excellent job in writing his experiences, and including the work he and his brother did around their farm. He opened up my eyes with his patience while watching his Celestial friends continually doing what they were doing here on earth, which payed off in the end when he and his brother finally made physical contact and was awarded also with an achievement many do not achieve and that is being invited aboard the vessel. Familiarities did focus on me especially with the 'shielding' force-field that kept him from getting close to their operation in the field. I found it so striking familiar when they were put through the 'cleansing process' to enter and leave the vessel. Though their process had to do with an energy field, Zebban's process was done by 'touch' which was also an energy field of somekind.

I also remembered Zebban's telling me that because I was now somewhat in tune with the earthly way of life, precautions had to be taken for myself and theirs against germination factors. Mr. Dworshak's ending discussions on how we must make changes in our lives here on earth brought familiar overtones in my thinking. Altogether I considered his experience of great value and interest. I wish I knew him because he mentioned how he wanted to discuss and release his experiences to someone. I was two years old when he had his first sighting. Thank you for your generosity. I value the book as a must for those others who are interested. He did have the same results of disinterested parties when he told his story, which is the way of any non-believer.

I'm happy to know that you received my story on Giant Rock and the photo's I sent. I had no idea that others had taken pictures, especially one similar to mine. It validates for me how Zebban first contacted me about the craft being above the Giant Rock, and if others had taken pictures, it makes me excited that he had made it possible for others to know that he was there. I believe that the uniformed policeman was the same man who offered me a chair at the time. That was my first and only convention I ever attended, and never aware that there was a convention planned that same weekend. As I previously mentioned, there were quite a few Contactees that was to fill the agenda scheduled at that time.

It always amazes me how others do similar tasks in life like Joe Clower and friends, rock hounds, looking for mineral specimens and fluorescent rocks as my brother and I had done. Examining the photos that you enclosed with my story shows similarities of Zebban's craft. It appears that the craft was planning to land because of the cylinder shaft already in progress. I was told that he (Zebban) had other contactees here on earth. My own contacts ended in 1972, which shows me that Zebban is still available for others since the enclosed photos were taken in March of 1995. Yes, we can use all five photos to include in the book you propose to publish of my own contacts for similarities.

I'm enclosing another contact I had received 'clairaudiently' by a Celestial Being who wished not to disclose his name since it was immaterial and of unimportance as stated by him. This one came as a surprise to me on March 12, 1960 some two years after my physical contact at Giant Rock. I had it written in long hand or printed which was my usual custom in writing. Any form of contact I received was felt as an important piece of information, no matter how trivial it may appear.

Again I thank you for sending the book and the shrinkage pages of my story. I'm still trying my best to get the topo maps of my physical contact areas for you. When I do, I will have my wife shrink them down to location sizes at her work place. I'll be in touch.

With best regards,

Oswald Gonzalez

CLAIRAUDIENT RECEIVING
By 'One Who Gives No Name'
March 12, 1960 2:00 P.M. Anaheim, Ca.

It was two years since my physical contact at Giant Rock, California in February 1958. I made no attempts to make contact earlier because of my heavy schedule with my construction work in Irvine, California in building homes in that area. I was also very concerned about my twin who had to have a second spinal fussion operation because the first one was not a successful one since it had failed. I had to rise early for work every day for those two years because I was the 'lay-out' man for the concrete slabs and marking of wall set-up and had to be at the job at 5:00 a.m.

One evening after retiring from a hard days work, I went to bed early on May 11th, 1960. I was in a sound sleep when I was awakened by that familiar 'bigness' feeling which came upon me rather strong and not the usual feeling I normally received when Zebban was to come through mentally. It was not as comfortable as the norm and felt it somewhat different and I knew it was not Zebban or Liom, not knowing who it was who was trying to make known his presence. It woke me from a sound sleep and felt that it was somewhat different and looked at my digital alarm clock which showed 1:20 p.m. I lay there waiting for some response when a voice said mentally in my head:... "Salutations upon you this early morning hour Oswald." I asked who he was that found it necessary to awaken me at this hour? He telepathically said, "It is not necessary or important to know who it is that wishes to converse with you in this telepathic way, because my title is not necessary to be known."

He continued:.. "I come to enlighten you and I am part of a "Grouping" of visitors to your realm from a higher realm, and only wish to reveal certain truths for your understanding. I will make my presence known to you on the afternoon of tomorrow, or should I state 'today' since it is already tomorrow. I recognize that your body is indeed in need of rest and any conversing with you will only be dampened in your restlessness should I continue. Therefore, I release contact. Shasta!."

With that surprise contact I got up and attempted to write down what was said when the unknown visitor again spoke telepathically to me and said; "It is not necessary for you to write my conversing words. You will remember that which I spoke in your morning hours. Get your rest - NOW!" He didn't have to repeat what he said a second time I can assure you of that. I went back to bed and was soon fast asleep. The next day after breakfast, I did my usual chores and called my boss and told him that I needed to take the day off. He agreed and I did some laundry and ironing. At 1:00 p.m. that afternoon I had lunch and began getting my note-pad for writing, and decided to make my usual prayer before starting to prevent any un-wanted visitors which I was always told to do.

At precisely 2:00 p.m. I began receiving the familiar "bigness" sign of recognition and relaxed with pen in hand when the telepathic message began coming through.

"Once again I come bringing salutations and peace to you Oswald. I am he who came to you the previous morning hour." I asked him what is it that he wished to reveal to me? He answered: "Do you desire a definition of Angels or to know more about extraterrestrials? We are the same as you!" [I began to notice the difference in his sincere tone and asked him, "Could you explain to me exactly what you are meaning?"] "Listen carefully," he said. "If we be but you as you were, would have been and still are, then you would recognize us now in the proper sequence of form and unfoldment." I answered, "I still don't fully understand!"

He continued, - "We exist in a parallel universe of non-form, and some in form not unlike your own - only differing in vibrational manifestation with a higher knowledge. You already know that we who come to give understanding and higher knowledge have done so in the present manifestation of reality but your world has not yet gleaned that ability. We come in peace and love to those who accept it, and not to incrue any harm to any life forms on earth, for we are of higher learning and far beyond those fundamental achievements."

"We who are of Etheric form, a non-form existence, are but a reflection of that which you would be, had you not become associated with the materializing processes for whatever reason you might have chosen. Let us simply say that we are the 'angels' as perceived, Etheric Beings or the enlightened brotherhood of more dense forms - as messengers from the stars. We are reflections of unity before and after all Matter. I come to reveal and awaken you unto truth. As I blend with you now in this communication, I can sense a forthcoming period of union - one which you also sense but cannot comprehend. We are lied about and construed in all manner of erroneous fashions. This is my first experience in this exact manner with you - in this particular sequence of manifestation."

"I am experiencing in your presence by looking through the window of your eyes and take in the colors and the plants outside your window. I delight in the curious way you earthlings perceive light as illumination! Your existence is such a deep realm of awesome forces known as the material plane! All of us who have been dubbed as angels are only in form one half the time, and the other half of time we exist in the totality of being. The potential of the universe is limitless, infinite beyond count. The Omnipotent One seeks no temples of stone or gold but only the silent loving comfort of His own temple within you. He asks not to be worshipped in an external image, but to be acknowledged in each human being. You are all Gods beings in full potential with no reason not to become God as the reality within."

"No God would create a creature without the wisdom to chart its course. It was Pre-ordained that Creation would exist within a rhythm of expansion and contraction - since first came the Breathe of God at the beginning of all the worlds. Eventually there would come a time when the physical universe would stop expanding and growing, swinging its pendulum and begin to contract. This process is referred to as the Breathing In and the Breathing out of God. It is a good concept for all flows in cycles of flowing out and flowing back again to source. When any vibrational system reverses its momentum of direction, as a pendulum does at the uppermost point of its swing, there is a moment of complete rest before it resumes its movement in the opposite direction. Since the total cessation of movement constitutes the opposite, there is at the precise moment a micro-interval of non-time - a moment of eternity: which occurs many times every second as the atoms of the physical world vibrate back and forth."

"The Creator permeates Creation. In His vastness He surrounds all Creation. His Being saturates the physical universes, all the stars, the suns, the planets in your solar system and other solar systems, in the distant galaxies because all worlds, stars, suns are made up of Matter - which is a bonded form of energy with substance and solidity. It is the most glorious time sequence of planetary cycles. Your world is coming into the knowledge of Higher Beings in fulfillment of God's promises. Great universal truths were given to your world through the instrumentality of Beings such as I - from more enlightened worlds in an age when men talked with angels, which declined and fell into decay when you no longer were able to converse with angels. Our Group of goodly Wanderers volunteered to come into earthly existence time and time again, having assisted mankind for thousands of years in all the ages. You have had many legends rich in the knowledge of the "Star People" --- the gods who came from the stars in worlds unbeknowns to mortal man."

"Records of our presence on your world are well hidden in tombs, secret chambers, temples, catacombs that were recessed in secret places. Such records dealt with Ancient Wisdom secreted away and safely hidden in your Peruvian mountains, in Guatemala and Mexico. But we will not be particular enough to divulge identities nor there exact locations. The Ancient Records are well preserved and hidden for the present time. Life began to be experienced in your system centuries in the millions past. Planet Earth, right now, is the only planet in your solar system where man has not yet reached the Cosmic level of awareness."

"Just because you cannot find existence of life on other planets in your solar system, does not mean that there are no life-forms. Your pschological world is limited in their understanding of factual progression to understand the evolution of life-forms. These so-called 'experts' rely on another's perception and speculation regarding other worlds. What your present generation does not acknowledge nor understand is - that at the close of every civilization there is contact and inter-relations formed and experienced between those upon your world and Cosmic Intelligence. It would behoove all men to open their minds and their hearts to cooperate and work with the great plan, and to reap the love and peace that can be offered. Each time that man's evolution upon earth has reached a point where he could advance to a much higher level, knowledge has been brought forth and made available to use for the benefit of all mankind."

"Until such timing becomes proper, ye will continue to do thine works as guided in integration of Higher Beings sent forth in the actuality of what is necessary. Let us take rest at this point, as the day has been somewhat overpowering. I salute your sincereness as you flourish in truth. Peace rest upon you as you grasp the understanding." [I thanked him for the understanding and knowledge this day.] He answered, "You are welcomed in our presence. I relinquish this contact and close circuitry. Shastal. Imenubicob."

Contact ended at 3:20 p.m. ...

Dear Wendelle:

Searching through one of my remaining binders I came across a contact that was recorded through Automatic Writing technique which I found of great interest and I will be mailing to you after I type this letter. The contact person was Zebban who seemed by the writings to be more sincere and direct. Our usual method of receiving was first written earlier on a large sheet of paper that is used in business meetings. My twin was very open to receiving as I was, and this particular contact was made with him being present. I would then rewrite what was written on the large paper to my binders for future reference and filing. I recall that this particular contact took up eight or nine pages, where my twin would sit and concentrate with pen or pencil in hand. He always appeared to be sleeping but in reality, he was in a very restful position with eyes closed while the pencil moved across the page.

Sometimes the writing would be somewhat larger than normal, and we would simply tell Zebban to ease up and write a wee bit smaller, which he automatically did with our request. Because we moved frequently during those earlier years, we somehow lost the original papers which we normally would roll up and place in a round and long container. After each time we did our contacts through automatic writing, I would sit down and put them in a binder, and I was glad that I did because of the loss material which was probably thrown out by mistake when we moved. It's the only logical explanation I can come up with. There was no form of labeling on the carboard cylinder containers, so somehow they were simply cast out by someone in the family.

This particular contact was recorded on March 14, 1960 at 6:30 pm here in Anaheim, California.

I've been busy going to Hobby City here in Anaheim to see if I could buy the Topo Maps needed to make location sites of my physical contacts. The worker at the shop did not know where to look for them since he was not familiar with where his boss kept them. He was only a clerk at the register. He told me to wait around because he believed his boss would be in much later. I had other errands to run and told him I would be back later. Returning later on, the clerk said that he still wasn't available, so I told him that I would return another day. This was in June. In July we travelled to Orlando, Florida for a wedding of my wife's neice and was there for a full week. This same month my older brother came out to Calif. from Orlando for a five-day visit. So the month of July was completely filled with family matters.

Here is the contact story of March 14, 1960. You will no doubt be amazed at the information received. I will keep in touch. God Bless.

With warmest regards,

Automatic Writings Recorded from Zebban March 14, 1960
6:30 p.m. - Anaheim, Ca.

This particular day I received a telepathic message from Zebban while at my construction job in Irvine, California. It was my lunch break, and how he knew it was I have no clue. He told me that he wished to converse with me on the subject of catastrophes. I wasn't aware that he was eavesdropping on my conversation that I was having with my twin brother the previous week. It's as if he was fully aware of what we were thinking or discussing, and that he wanted to express certain knowledge that my twin and I were talking on natural catastrophes and how history seemingly repeats itself in many ways.

The subject came about because we were watching a T.V. show about disasters, and according to their report on ancient writings, the 'Golden Age' of the 13th century BC had ended in a terrible display of natural disasters of climatic and world-wide impact, which brought an end to this 'Golden Age.' We were discussing about the Greek, Roman and Egyptian authors that preserved the traditions of these catastrophes that were considered lost, and dated back in time and authored by the Sumerian Civilization.

Zebban wanted to speak with us this same night of March 14, 1960, and wished to have us prepare for his conversing at 6:30 p.m. My twin brother and his wife came over to my apartment having previously called and told him of Zebban's telepathic message, and that he wished to record through automatic transmission or communication. The message began promptly at 6:30 p.m. He doesn't mess around.

TRANSMISSION MESSAGE:

"Ishatrosh Neb (Welcome All). I am Zebban who comes in this manner as your host and giver of knowledge for this evening. It is the intention of the GRAND MAN that I relate to you certain inscriptions with regard to catastrophes of past and present events that will come upon your world, and that which has already come to pass. But before I go any further, you must take precautionary steps to avoid any interfering entity to overtake these proceedings. Therefore you MUST make prayer and ask for the protective light to surround your residence.

PRAYER: Divine Spirit! Let thy will be manifest and surround our residence with thy protective light, that we stand in judgement of no unwanted entities. Let thy wisdom and knowledge be given in what thou wish for us to know in order to remain in thy service and be an honorable reflection of thee in thought, word and deed. Not our will but thine be done. Amen.

"Now, let us continue. It has been written in the Karnak inscription, in the fifth year of the reign of Merneptah (1232-122 BC), that Libya had become a barren desert. In the Medinet Halu texts it was reported that the Nile River had dried up. This took place during the second half of the 13th century BC. The ancient writings of the Greek told of a fiery comet which the Greeks called Phaethon. To the Egyptians it was known as Sekmet. In the Ras Shamra inscriptions it speaks of the fall of the city Ugant, which reads:- 'The star Anat fell from heaven and slew the people of the Syrian lands.' Think not that it was really a star, which they called a 'ball of fire' -- which circled your earth on a course like that of a sun, and was the cause of world-wide droughts, fires, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions and floods in the second half of your 13th century BC. Since that time a similar 'ball of fire' had occurred and recorded in the Sumerian text as a comet, which thine own present times refer to as Haley's Comet, which thou would describe as history repeating itself. Is this not so?

"It has been suggested by your astronomers in their charting that the comet Phaethon is identical with Haley's comet. Know ye this fact that this heavenly body had appeared again in your earthly years 1531, 1607, 1682, 1759, 1835, also on May 20, 1910 and again in 1986. In each instance we had observed its trajectory which has been recorded in our 'screen analyzers'. It was found that in a given amount of years catastrophes always occurred when this comet appeared and circled your earth. We are not given to interfere with its trajectory path nor to force it by stopping its intended target. Your earth is in its cleansing period and is the will of HE who rules your system. This comet is still held to be the greatest in your solar system. Its tail is 30 kilometers long, and follows a course that circles your sun and then moves away from it as far as your neighboring planet Neptune.

"The consequences of this comet can be cataclysmic, and your planet can be enveloped in a deadly cloud of poisonous gases and cosmic dust that makes up the tail of this comet. It contains Hydrogen, Carbon, Nitrogen, Hydrogen Cyanide, and Potassium Cyanide, which in a way places your planet in a monstrous gas chamber." I asked him, "Is there any possibility of you interfering in order to prevent a global catastrophe?" Answer: "I did not say it would happen but that it can be cataclysmic."

"Let it be known that it has been recorded in the Roman text of Julianis (July) AD 451, that the comet Phaethon appeared in the skies the year of the birth of Emmanuel - whom your world recognizes as Jesus. The Roman text stated: 'In the year 451 AD at the time of Augustus Caesar, terrible signs were seen in the heavens and on the earth, with severe earthquakes, and the moon in the heavens was darkened, - and in the west a comet appeared and shone for some time, being of enormous size. In the north the sky became red as fire, and appeared as fire and blood against which lighter rays likened unto spears were interspersed.'

Question: "Was that text written in the Roman language?" Answer: "Indeed it was. We understand all languages spoken on earth. We simply translated the text into your English language for varification and script. To continue: - Does not this text sound similar to what has already been written and recorded in your New Testament of your Bible? Would you not consider these facts to be a repeated phenomenon?" We answered Yes, it sounds exactly like our scriptures. He answered, "Therefore, get thee thy Good Book and read Revelations chapter 6:, verses 12, 13, 14 to the place where the sixth seal was opened. I will await your return." My twin remained motionless. I hurried and returned with my Bible and opened up to Revelations chapter 6 and read the verses given.

Verse 12 - "And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became as black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; (13)- And the stars of heaven fell upon the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. (Zebban commented: "The stars are thus interpreted as a great comet. Lamu" (continue.) (14) "And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places."

"There will be another appearance of the comet which is more or less telling you that history will once again repeat itself. Now turn ye to Rev. 8:10,11 and read."

Rev. 8:10 - "And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; (11) - And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became Wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter."

"At that time the people of Earth will be filled with great bitterness - which is the meaning for 'wormwood.' A greater mystery I give unto thee now. The chapter and verses that you have just read is a sign that at another time in your future there will come this comet once again which your Biblical text described as a great star - burning as it were a lamp. I take you back to ancient history, in the year 1226 BC, which Ovid the scribe recorded: - 'In silence the world awaits its end. Suddenly the sky begins to glow phosphorescent, and the stars grow pale, and a green aura surrounds the moon. A huge and terrible comet lights up the vault of heaven. People fall to their knees and cover their eyes with their hands and pray."

"The earth starts to tremble, and now the aura of the moon becomes a brilliant blue. The strange light becomes more intense, and thousands of meteors fall into a fearful firework display. For a moment, a terrible wave of heat passes over the earth. At dawn, the sun arises, and all over the world people draw breath in relief."

I asked Zebban this question; "How do you come to know all this?" And he answered, "It is recorded on our Quadrant Screen. All things become known to us because we are the guardians of earth for aeons of time."

"In your 14th Century BC, the scholar and writer Dendymus - a Greek scholar recorded: - "There was a great catastrophe. The sun became darkened, glaring lightning illuminated the pitch-black sky; monstrous fiery masses plunged from heaven. Eruption of volcanoes caused many fires which altered the face of the earth. The axis of the earth was displaced. The bodies of water in the oceans break over many continents. A hundred thousand souls met a terrible end in this deluge; and all traces of our civilization were obliterated in a short period of time."

"Again, in your 13th Century BC there were reports of great destruction by fire, which reports stated that fire fell from heaven in Libya, Egypt, Syria and India, which was thus recorded in the Medinet Halu texts. These major catastrophes happened shortly before the arrival of the Phillistines into Palestine. The fires destroyed the cities of Megiddo, Jericho, Lachish and other settlements, - which occurred before 1200 BC. It will be found recorded in the Old Testament of your Bible, in the Book of Amos 1: 1 through 14, and again in Joel 2:3. Read these at your leisure.

"In the text of Medinet Halu it was once again reported that Rameses the III described the great blackness which prevailed before the beginning reign and during the reign of Rameses the II. In the year 1220 BC, and again recorded in the Ipuner Paprus script, it is written: - "The sun is veiled and will not shine that men may see. The sun separated itself from men, and none know that it is mid-day. And its shadow is not distinquished on the sundial. None can behold their face or body because of the darkness. The Nile River is empty of water during this time of great darkness. For nine days no one left the palace or temples."

"Take note that this is also reminicent of the description of this catastrophe in the Biblical book of Exodus: "And there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days." I found this written in Ex. 10:22-23.)

"During the time of the last great wave of earthquakes and at the peak of volcanic activity, there were floods of extraordinary violence because of these eruptions which are always accompanied by floods and quakes. The flooding is almost always caused by tidal waves of tremendous heights, which are better known as 'seismic waves' or as described in the Japanese terminology a 'Tsunami.' The ominous withdrawal of the waters is often the first warning of the approach of seismic waves - which follow with a loud rushing and roaring noise. The speed of these tsunami's depends upon the depth of water, and can vary at 700m and 800m per hour. (The 'M' stands for Miles and not Meters.).

"When Mount Thera erupted in 365 AD, a tsunami was released which threw ships in the harbors some three miles inland, over houses and into the countryside and harbor of Alexandria.

"The eruption in Krakatoa on August 27, 1883, caused waves up to 30 miles high, which broke with devastating force, traveling as far as South America, and taking the lives of 50,000 inhabitants. (Wow, that's alot of lives and force.) "You are correct, but that was not all. A tsunami from the eruption in Chile was 10 miles high and unudated 36,000 homes, with 5,000 lives carried out to sea. The highest tsunami ever recorded in your historical records at that time was in Anake, which lies beneath Mount Thera. There were tremendous waves each having the height at sea some 200 feet in height which traveled and hit the shores of Crete.

"Let us take a repose to relax your hands and thinking mode." (We waited 15 minutes and proceeded once again with the automatic writings. This was certainly one of the longest writings I've ever had recorded.)

"Let us look now to your present time and generation. You are well into the portions of prophecies that will in time come into reality. It is not our intent to forecast gloom and doom, but only to relate to you things to come about in there realized time. There will come upon your world one of the larger quakes that will split your earth from the Dead Sea area to the Mediterranean Sea. Many smaller countries will be split into portions - causing a great difference in landscape and terrain.

"More prophecies that are given are becoming realized - which is Famine. What is appaling to us is the treatment that your own government expells upon its nation, which your land is considered as a metropolis likened unto Egypt and Babylon. Unbeknowns to your populance, your government is not allowing farmers to grow crops within your northern hemisphere. Yet they will hoard large amounts of products and ship them off to your neighboring countries to receive their filthy lucre while there are many in your own country who are starving and destitute in your cities and towns.

"We sincerely do not disallow helping a neighbor. There is a need to consider your own nations problems because you have countless homeless people, and many young children who are going without food for their bellies, with no end to the ever increasing problem.

"Another major prophecy written was that of Israel, who as a nation not settled would sometime be founded and become a settled nation. But, alas, this will not occur in the flesh but in the spirit. Many more lives will be lost in their foolish war games. The people of Israel are becoming very hostile, with hardening hearts. What do you think would happen to a "Messiah" in that place today? The Arab world along with the Muslim's threaten wars continually, bringing to a close the annihilation of the nation of Israel.

"We find it very astounding that the inhabitants of your world blame Mother Nature for your geographical happenings on land and in your oceans. What is not realized is the real fault lies in the peoples of all nations because of their attitudes of hate and anger, and with those who lust for power with the intent on destruction of your earth; with powers unleashed into the Cosmos by those who play games as toy makers - unleashing the forces through their neutron bomb tests, whose destructive particles (when placed into explosive devices) enter your atmosphere and even higher into areas beyond your atmosphere. These forces are not the forces of Mother Nature but done by and through ignorance of circumstances rendered by your scientists and governments who take no thought of human life.

"They of course want you to blame your God, and thus bring your masses into total confusion as blind sheep being led to the slaughter. Remember, what thou sowest thou shall reap. We have continually come to your world to help, and have contacted high officials of government and science, who turn a deaf ear at our instruction and discourse. Your world population must change their life styles and attitudes toward one another; change the thinking from evil to good. There must come changes in your sexuality traits, and dismiss homosexuality that only brings death through disease; - and do away with the excuses that such actions are OK because your doctors and clergy believe that you all have 'free-will' to choose your lifestyles.

"Since when is it considered to be a matter of choice - to desire death by disease and fornication? Your world thinkers cause many to become a backward civilization, making laws to counteract other laws. Even your scriptures have made it known to you: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still. For behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me - to give every man according as his work shall be." (Rev. 22:11,12.)

"Even so, at the end of your scriptural text a testimony is written that clearly speaks the message for all mankind but which has been completely ignored by many, which message is: "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book; And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." So be it. (Rev. 22:18,19.)

"Many in your world are being misled, to believe the lies and untruths that some churches teach. To say "I believe in Jesus Christ, and because I believe, I shall be saved!" is not enough. To believe HE died for your sins by HIS blood is a gross error forced upon you through misleading fundamentalists. HE did not die for your sins, leastwise ye see through a darkened glass the erroneous untruth. Seek out the logic in such a statement, for if HE died for your sins, they why, logically speaking, does sin yet remain in your world?

"Another erroneous error that so many false teachers have forced upon your thinking is the belief that Emmanuel (called Jesus by Paul of Tarsus) died on a wooden cross. HE did not die but was in a comatose state of being, which even your medical doctors will make known as fact that when an individual sheds both blood and water out of a wound, that that individual is surely in a comatose state and not dead. Another truth I give here that Emmanuel was brought back to health while in the tomb and left Jerusalem to live in Damascus, Sri Lanka, India, and other parts of India where HE taught and lived for the remainder of HIS life.

"It is written, 'Clean first the Inner Cup and the outside shall take care of Itself." May HIS Peace find your Inner Soul - that ye continue to grow. Remain in Peace. I am Zebban. Shastal Neb. Imenubicob." End of writings...

Dear Wendelle:

You're right with regards to the fact that automatic writing being a rather common characteristic in UFO contacts. I found that sometimes with telepathic communications I had difficulties with receivings possibly due to mental stress or other interferences. But that didn't happen too often. Many times when Zebban would come through telepathically he would often tell me to try and relax more. I'm happy to hear that all is well with you healthwise.

I would like very much to know more about the Mitchell Sisters biography, and I possibly had the name slip by me from stories in earlier UFO literature. Since I was only one time at Giant Rock, I wasn't aware that they were on the speaking platform. Aha, I see that they were also victims of ridicule and other attacks as I was put through. It seems that many others were reluctant to go underground with their experiences. I told my wife that I would like us to view the Mitchell story on your E-book plan which would also help me to study your plan with reference toward my own experiences. I placed the E-mail address you gave me near her computer, and for sure it would certainly whet my appetite in viewing this plan. I plan on taking a look-see so that I can get the method which would be necessary for the book on my own receivings and contacts.

I've gone into doing some more art work to get back into drawings of all kinds. I'm just about finished with a pencil and ink portrait of Johnny Cash who recently passed on, which my wife finds amazing. I guess I haven't lost my touch. My wife's cousin Anthony is a free-lance artist and has done a number of murals for family homes that appear to be so realistic that it takes ones breath away. Of course he's done work for museums back in Aliquippa, PA. and is well known in the city of Fullerton, CA.

I've been busy in locating the Topo maps that is needed for the book. I've been to libraries here in Anaheim, and also to Hobby City with no luck. But the clerk at Hobby City told me that the Anaheim City business office has what I may be looking for, and just recently, I contacted a friend of mine named Glen who works for Anaheim City, and I asked him if City Hall had topo maps of California. He told me that he had another friend who works at City Hall and takes frequent motorcycle rides out in the desert areas and obtains such maps for his own use in locating roads and such. He asked me to give him the list of maps that I needed and would get back to me. It wasn't long, just two days and I received a call from a Tom Brown, who left a message on my answer machine in regards to my interest in obtaining topo maps.

I immediately called him back and discussed the matter with him. He told me that he had access to many maps and would xerox exactly what I wanted. My search was finally over, because he came by my home and dropped off a number of xerox copies of Joshua Tree Natl. Forest and the Ivanpah Mountain Topo map, but was unable to get together the Giant Rock map and left me an address where I could obtain this map in the City of Orange, the next town from Anaheim. I will need to go there and purchase copies of that particular map at a small cost of $5.00 each. I wrote a letter of appreciation to

Tom and sent along a dinner certificate for he and his family at a known restaurant in his City Norco, where he resides. I feel it's a good jesture of faith for his quick work.

I will be sending the first two Topo maps along with another contact story. I will circle on the map the approximate location of the contacts made. As soon as I have the chance to go to the City of Orange to the Allied Mining Co. on Main Street and purchase the Giant Rock Topo map I will mail it off to you. The maps are printed down to 8-1/2" x 11" size, small enough to at least circle the area. Any smaller and I would not be able to locate anything.

As soon as my wife gets home early enough to go on the Computer to your E-Book plan, I will review the Mitchell story and how you are making it available for puchase and my own experiences in the same manner. Enclosed are the two maps you requested so far and my latest experience done Clairaudiently on April 24, 1967, in a question and answer format which I recently located in my closet while looking for more copy paper. Take care.

Best regards,

Oswald Gonzalez

Clairaudient Receiving From Zebban
April 24th, 1967 5:00 P.M. Anaheim, Ca.
(Question and Answer Contact:)

This beginning portion of information was added later on to the beginning of my contact. I was working at my construction job at Irvine, California since 1963, and after working a full day and arriving at my home 427 Benwood Dr. in Anaheim, being divorced from my first wife, my children had moved to Rockford, Illinois, I was alone and watching a report on ABC News that was reporting possibilities of Moon landings with NASA's Space Flight Center, and I remembered hearing that NASA had first started its operations on October 1, 1958 to coordinate space activities according to President Eisenhower's speech on April 2, to Congress.

The public at that time was kept in complete ignorance of what NASA and the military were doing. The news emphasized that thousands of employees were involved with the Space Program with airtight security. The report stated that NASA was having difficulty in sending successful moon probes even moreso than the Russians. The Soviets, the report stated, had clamped a tight security and secrecy with regards to their rocket launches. I listened with interest during the hour long program that started at 4:co p.m. (PST) and ended at 5:00 p.m., when unexpectedly Zebban, my Mentor, came through channels clairaudiently. Taken by sudden surprise, I hurried to get my notepad to jot down the information he wanted to translate. It began.....

"Ishatrosh my welcomed brother. I am Zebban speaking through the frequency of your inner ear channel. You don't seriously believe all that was said in the broadcast news, do you?"

O.G. - "No, not necessarily. Sometimes we are not told all the truth, but it caught my interest about the hopes of the U.S. landing on the moon."

ZEB: "There is a great deal more controversy and misinformation given the masses to lead them to believe many of the outward lies fostered upon a believing society. With consideration to the misguided public, NASA has been giving misinformation and figures, which most of what was given was inconsistent and contradictory that surely indicates a strong cover-up agenda."

O.G. - "You mean that there were discrepancies in the stories told to us?"

ZEB: - "It is the belief of your scientific community that your moon has only a one-sixth gravity hold, though it be only an assumption on their part, which they report that there is a neutral point said to be reached at 24,000 miles from your Moon. One of your top-notched German scientist pointed out that the neutral point is 38,900. It is more probable that the first figure is more accurate. Yet, there are continuous conflicting reports, with each argueing that one has to be correct."

O.G. - "Could you explain what a Neutral Point is? I've never heard of it because I'm not involved nor knowledgeable about their terms."

ZEB: - "It is the distance that your Lunar Module probes are estimated at, which is the vicinity when the distance is reached at the 40,000 mile mark, when the probe is traveling at 2,200 miles per hour, the point the probe reaches before orbiting around the Moon. Your NASA scientists believe it would take approximately 16 hours with consideration and view point that the Moon's gravity is one-sixth in estimation. It has been deemed by the German scientist that it would take merely 13 hours and 44 minutes to reach the Neutral Point, which presents a discrepancy of over three hours. The public has once again been victimized by the military, scientists , politicians and your large corporations for a number of years."

O.G. - "Is the Moon's gravity pull really only one-sixth? That's a very low gravity point."

ZEB - "A good deal of the NASA researchers have calculated it to be so, which would mean that everything that would touch the Moon's surface would weigh one-sixth, or 16.7 percent of your Earth weight. If an astronaut's gear that he carries on his back weighed 180 to 185 pounds, and their weight was equal, their total combined weight on the Moon would only be 60 to 65 pounds, that is, if the Moon's gravity were only one-sixth."

O.G. - "On the news report it stated that an astronaut on the Moon could easily jump six feet or more, even with his gear on his back. This would imply that it may be so that the gravity is one-sixth on the Moon."

ZEB: - "It would be a consideration that if the astronaut's space-suit and height attained it would certainly be questionable. The astronaut's (no names ever mentioned - my input) should have been able to jump the six feet if the Moon had a one-sixth gravity to that of Earth. You were told in actuality that he jumped six feet to have you think it was because of the one-sixth gravity pull, but his efforts only lifted him some 18 inches off the surface. This happened at the time when you really had an astronaut touch the Moon's surface, but not earlier in their trial and error period. Therefore it must be realized that the Moon's gravity is not one-sixth but somewhat higher as we know it to be. Based on this, your Moon's gravity is almost 61% of Earth's gravity. Quite a difference and would certainly explain why the astronaut was only able to jump a mere 18 inches."

O.G. - "Then that would mean that NASA overstated the astronaut's gear. Is that a correct observation?"

ZEB: - "Not entirely! It would also show the Moon's gravity to be higher. What is not known by the public is that the astronaut's are carefully organized in advance and are told that they must follow the given expectations to the fullest. NASA plans every move, timing, and any deviation from the plan had to be explained and justified. They had to follow a written script similar to your movie scripts. Even their dialogue is carefully planned, especially when they are told that they are being filmed and recorded. Most of your Moon trips are carefully orchestrated in a fake Luna landscape - Hollywood style, complete with the Lunar Module and landing pad in an Earth studio location. Your Apollo 12 astronaut was filmed showing him climbing down the steps of the Space Shuttle, and when he touched down, he mentioned that he could walk fairly well."

ZEB: - "Such evidence presented does not support a one-sixth gravity, but indicates a gravity found on Earth's surface. The film also showed him carrying an instrument package which clearly showed him straining with the package, indicating it was quite heavy by his movements. The package would have only weighed 30 pounds on the Moon, which again, is not consistent with the photo that showed his efforts in lifting a 190 pound instrument. It is evident that another discrepancy was seen to be significant because it revealed a gravity to that of Earth."

O.G. - "Where exactly is such a studio located? Here in the U.S.?"

ZEB: - "Yes, in Bend, Oregon, and another is known to be located in Houston, Texas. Recorded films showed the astronauts moving around with their heavy gear on their backs in the Bend, Oregon facility. The films were made to show the public that their gear of 185 pounds, was far less in weight as proposed by the exercise by NASA, which showed it to be a sure cover-up. These particular tests were similated as early as 1963."

O.G. - "Wouldn't this place be considered as a staging exercise and learning process for the astronauts before any trips were scheduled to be made to the Moon?"

ZEB: - "It would definitely be a consideration for exercises if NASA did not make plans beforehand to film all their exercises. There are similar staging area that they use for practice maneuvers where it is not necessary to film or record such. But, because Bend, Oregon's facilities have a fascimile of the Moon's landscaping with the sanddunes, rocks and the Luna Module vehicle to impress the public for more effects, along with camera and script writers available for the future showing on your television screens, it made for perfect filming. Another practice area, which is just for practicing certain maneuvers is located within the Prescott National Forest in Arizona."

O.G. - "I watched on the news broadcast, a movie film being shown with the Apollo 14 astronauts moving in a semi-slow motion. Why were they moving so slowly?"

ZEB: - "For more influence or effect. If you got a closer look at the slow-motion effects, it would prove that NASA was not able to do a better job of cover-up because the film speed was adjusted in order to slow down the action and enable your astronauts to "appear" to be lighter than they actually were. Even certain objects would appear to move slower, which would convince the public that they were actually on the Moon with its one-sixth gravity. To make matters worse, the film was edited earlier to remove many frames between pictures. The Luna "Rover" was designed for the Moon's one-sixth gravity, but by all indications, it resembled an Earth vehicle in Earth's gravity. "

ZEB. - "The Rover is 10 feet long and 4 feet high, with wide 7.5 foot wheelbase and a 6-foot tread width, with wheels that had a small electric motor to help in certain situations. It weighted on Earth 460 pounds. The film showed the astronauts having a difficult time unloading the Rover on the Moon in all appearances. They had practiced loading and unloading the Rover while on Earth, and it should have been even easier on the Moon, but it was not, because the practice deployment was staged elsewhere on Earth."

O.G. - "Why is NASA deceiving us with all their stage-props and falsified information?"

ZEB: - "That answer is a simple one. If NASA could not show your financial politicians of a certain amount of action deployed along with their falsified films, the financing of the projects would not be funded. NASA was taking your politicians and public for a ride. The astronauts had to be careful what they said, knowing that their conversations would have been heard at Mission Control and the public address system. They had to "shadow" their discussions as close as possible because they were carefully monitored by the Houston Base Control."

O.G. - "You stated earlier that our scientists had studied the Moon's gravity and atmosphere. If they did, how were they able to do this?"
ZEB: - "They had sent out unmanned probes to detect atmosphere and gravity conditions. Your orthodox scientists have always considered your Moon to be completely airless and also unable to hold much of an atmosphere. Though the probes proved their theories to be incorrect when the probes did detect an atmosphere and a higher gravity, the public was never told these truths. Even your Astronomers have observed clouds which only proves that there has to be an atmosphere to form clouds. But your Astronomers were belittled by your orthodox scientists in order to keep the truths from the public and for them to not lose face with their theories which would have been thrown off the library shelves."
ZEB: - "Evidence of a high Lunar gravity and atmosphere have always been an item that was presented some time ago. Orthodox science believes that with no telltale signs of an atmosphere, there certainly cannot be any water. They even refuse to accept the facts shown that dust exists on your Moon. What they continue to elude to is that without dust particles in a total vacuum, there is no substantial atmosphere."
O.G. - "Since it's now becoming evident that there is an atmosphere, have there ever been any winds recorded like we have on Earth?"
ZEB: - "There are no strong winds such as Hurricanes or Tornadoes. But it has been recorded that there are solar winds which are usually not a normal phenomenon, only in certain conditions and situations. Even your Astronomers observing your Moon have seen the American flag waving back and forth. When your astronauts did finally land on the Moon and planted the flag in the ground, and began seeing the flag's movements by wind, they immediately attempted to hide this display by blocking the camera's view of the movements of the flag. But he was too late to cover the evidence. Later, the film was ordered to be removed from the media news. NASA does not intend to be made fools of before the public, nor does the orthodox science intend for this to happen."
O.G. - "Were there any other cover-ups that the public was not aware of?"
ZEB: - "Most certainly. An excellent example occurred when one astronaut was being filmed, and when the film was reviewed, there was seen a blue-white sky reflected in the background. There should have been a jet-black sky if they were sincerely on the Moon. The film showing the blue-white sky was filtered out of the pictures as the astronaut descended the ladder. The film clearly showed an intense blue-white shades, which even made it more difficult for the other astronaut taking the pictures while supposedly on the Moon, to see any details because of the amount of light. The film was altered afterwards. Your Astronomers also took pictures of mists and clouds that were seen at various times. They even reported that the drifts of clouds obscured any surface details where clouds were seen more frequently. Again they were not taken seriously because orthodox sciencists viewpoints of a one-sixth gravity theory would be shattered."
O.G. - "What about meteors striking the Moon? There are certainly alot of proof that things like meteors left large and small craters which could only have been made by meteors."
ZEB: - "Very good question. When meteors impact the Moon, they usually disintegrate which would not occur if there was no atmosphere. This simply proves that meteors are entering an atmosphere before striking the surface of the Moon.

O.G. - "The question I've been meaning to ask you for some time, is there any form of vegetation or water on our Moon?"
ZEB: - "I have waited with patience for you to ask those particular questions. Your Moon has been the object of great controversy with respect to the unseen side that is not viewed by Earth. Some of your serious Astronomers and photographers have observed large objects of white light moving within certain deep craters. The photos showed large Mothercraft visitors who have been working secretly within large craters, escavating tunnels within its core in order to not be seen by Earth members. Observations have been made and analyzed these Luna visitors. There have been seen weird track-like impressions going to different areas. These photos are still available and have been included in different books written about your Moon. There is alot of activity going on in the area of the dark side. Dome building have been seen by orbiting Luna Modules and the astronauts, with many crafts of extraterrestrial origin. There are concave-type obstructions that connect the domed building to each other."
ZEB: - "There are also mountains with snow upon them, and cascades of water flowing down to streams and lakes. There are also forest with many trees, vegetation growing here and there in the meadows, and slips of water in other areas near the Domes. This has been a deep secret and NASA and other nations of your world have held these things from the public. The U.S.S.R., Germany and China have been to the Moon and assisted by the extraterrestrials in scientific buildings where experiments with food growth has been going on for some time. There are water distilling units near the Domed buildings."
O.G. - "What I would like to know is how did it come about that water, even snow and vegetation, and trees came to be on a Moon said to not have these things, but that it was only a dead satellite of Earth?"
ZEB: - "Most assuredly it is impossible for this to be seen by your Earth scientists and Astronomers because of your Moon's constant position as seen by science. Long before any experiments and/or visitors resided on your Moon, there was always water, vegetation, mountains and trees which have been their for millennia. Certainly many of your writers have told their stories of how your Moon first came to be. Some have said that it was thrown out from another planet that once existed between Mars and Jupiter, and that its trojectory sent it into orbit around your world, leaving the other world to disintegrate due to an atomic war, - and all that exists is large junks of debri that remain between Mars and Jupiter."
ZEB: - "Yet others claim that your Moon came to be situated in the heavens due to a collision with a world called Maldek and another world that was in the same area between Mars and Jupiter, and the collision's impact destroyed the existing planet and threw the other portion of a world into space, which then became caught in your Earth's magnetic field and Venus's magnetic field. This remaining large portion of a planet was almost caught in orbit around Venus, but the trajectory sent it into orbit around Earth where it is now situated. Both theories are somewhat correct because it was said that they were existing planet's and not satellites."
O.G. - "You are sounding like there is more to the stories when you say, "Yet others", or "While others state...", or "Some say that..." So what's your version of truth?'

ZEB: - "There are many avenues toward understanding the truth. As I stated that some of the stories given are somewhat true when you examine the contents. What I have to relate to you may be taken for simple conjecture because it cannot be proven fact because they will say, "How is it that you were given information about our Moon from an extraterrestrial, which may well be just your imagination?" If what I say is just imagination, then what truly is imagination is but the imaging of a phenomenon that is the image of truth. You imagine that God exists, and by the mere fact that it is proven fact by all that is created, it cannot be disproved. For your own piece of mind and for clarification because you did ask what is Truth, I will summarize just how your Moon originally came about."
ZEB: - "Be therefore prepared for depthness of knowledge not known by clergy or science. It will be understanding wisdom beyond mortal achievements."
O.G. - "I'm all ears Zebban. You have in times past given me a great deal of understanding taught to me over the years. I have asked for the truth. Have at it my friend. The floor is yours."
ZEB: - "We have been with you for some time, and now is the time for you to receive greater learning. There are very few who have ears to hear, eyes to see, and a mind to understand and gather the depths of knowledge. We have long since known of your inner heart which gathers truths beyond those who term themselves "Experts." In the beginning, your Moon was calculated to be an evolved planet and was placed in your orbital evolution for a purpose to house life in whatever capacity that could be achieved, and to be one of the neighboring planets in your system. It's growth was being formed and began transforming vegetation, water, trees and grasslands, and had to have atmosphere to give life to these various atomic lifeforms as a beginning mode. Clouds were essential for continued growth and brought forth the mists that expanded further on this beginning orb. I will explain to you why it did not evolve into a planet and ended only as your satellite - the Moon."
ZEB - "It is necessary that you get a further glimpse of what Creation is about, therefore, in considering the great drama of worlds coming into being, we are dealing with a process in Omnipotent Consciousness within a Program of Change. The Universe of material planets receive their reprocussions from various materials in various aspects of change. That enigma of change is known as TIME. Changes are apportioned into cycles of accomplishment. It is these cycles of accomplishment in which Great Cosmos are Formed. The appearance of a planet and its materials are formed by certain Spirit-Souls which the Divine Intelligence allows, that life may pass through many evolutionary changes for Mortality. In viewing the Great Cosmic drama about to unfold, when completed, makes for a piece of chronological perfection. The appearance of life on a planetary world is definite and will continue until a measurable result has been arrived at, and once again to resolve back to Energy when its purpose has been achieved."
ZEB: - "Remember this, - There is no thing as "TIME" in the incident of such a Creation; merely a prescribed program of changes that takes place in the materialization of a planet. What is therefore occurring and recurring in Free Ether is to make worlds of substance. Your schools should have been in possession of these simple fundamentals of what the Celestial Universe is like, how big it is, and how the stars, suns, planets, and satellites came to be formed. Still, there are a lot of things about the universe that should be "unlearned." When a smaller and nonincandescent body is pullet into a regular orbit around a star-sun, it is labeled a Planet, derived from the word Plane because it has a plane on which it travels."

ZEB: - "As to the distance that your Moon is from Earth, it is approximately 238,800 miles, and its speed as it orbits your Earth is 2,290 miles per hour, which any known scientist can vouch for. It is twice as fast as the Earth is revolving. Your Earth's revolution is a mere 1,000 miles per hour. Your Moon's diameter is 2, 162 miles. It would take approximately 50 moons to make a planet of similar size to Earth. Man's error in thinking is that your world is the only planetary body to contain sentient mortal life. You may be surprised to know that there are millions of universes like your own, and many have the faculties beyond your own to contain lifeforms."

O.G. - "How are worlds formed that give them the makeup that is on them?"

ZEB: - "Worlds are formed by a "Centrosome", a beginning Central Core, which later begins with other existing satellites or worlds, formed in the same way. By 'Centrosome' I mean the central body or mass that is formed into Patterns. The Central Core spins with a centrifugal force of energy coming out of Divine Intelligence. In its spinning cycle it picks up molecular structural atoms that adhere to the Central Core, which slowly grows with intense heat. It continues to pick up more atomic particles of matter with its contents being Iron, Magnesium, Phosphates, Mercury, Sulphurs, Manganese, and other mineral contents such as Aluminum Phosphates, and Hydrogen, Oxygen, and Helium. As it forms, there begins a chemical change into metals of precious materials such as Gold, Silver, and Platinum. All these substances form into patterns that coagulate into hardened material. Eventually sand and earth begin to hold the patterns together which are the throw-offs of the other materials due to the spinning cycle."

ZEB: - "A Celestial Unit swings around other greater Centrosomes, which makes up another and grander unit. When all is completed, it is ready for sentient lifeforms to place their feet upon. Because of the great heat that is created by the centrifugal force, steam and mist begin to rise into the heavens, and soon, clouds form that bring down torrents of rain that continues for a millennia. Worlds are not formed by any "Big Bang" theories. It takes millions of years for the Centrosome to complete its formula and shape. The spinning forces create the roundness of a world, star, or satellite. But, all is formed in the same manner. The rain begins the cooling off process and also forms streams, rivers, lakes and large bodies of water called Seas and Oceans.

ZEB: - "All Creation is formed out of Energy which attaches to an object in relation to other objects or conditions. Behind all Energy, controlling and directing it, and projecting it is the Mind of All Intelligence. This Mind gives motivation and begins to manufacture the end results which I have stated above. To go one step further, there is but MIND or HOLY SPIRIT, or FIRST CAUSE; and all of them are Divine, Holy and Original. All MATTER is the effect of Radiant Energy. All Life and materials were and are constructed of one thing --- Energy. The manufacture of all heavenly bodies, and the transformations through which they go, age by age, millennia to millennia, is that a Code of Laws is followed. The consciousness of All That Is is what your world terms Holy Spirit in performance, which is a process within itself, giving Matter a realization, and projecting substance from that "Made Without Hands," from a combination of electrical energy, --- both positive and negative."

ZEB: - "The different speeds of the electric impulses give the different essences of materials; whereby, forms of patterns begin to take shape. That which is Consciousness is both positive and negative electrical energies commonly called ETHER -- which is a condition of space in which electrical manifestation makes conditions for atomic construction of materials. Are you able to gather all that I speak?"

O.G. - "If I'm not at this present time is because I am writing it all down, and I will read it again and hopefully obsorb all that you are telling me."

ZEB: - "We have given you concepts that are far above the minds of many Fundamentalists, who by their own misunderstanding will not accept one iota of what I have given to you. To continue, there is only so much electrical energy designated in a cubic area of Celestial space; which simply means that there can only be a given amount of material substance within that cubic area. Between planets, there are no bodies of coagulated substance. Substance must be given time to begin coagulations, causing energy which is said to be "Free Energy" without a direction in its pattern of substance. I cannot make it any clearer than that. Just open your mind and you will begin to understand."

O.G. - "You're doing a good job so far, which, to me all sounds very logical. I'm not a licensed physicist or doctor of science, but it still seems so simple when you put it in simplier terms for understanding."

ZEB: - "I'm happy to hear that you are achieving the ultimate understanding. It does not take a learned physicist or doctor of science to gather the understanding. Upon our world, even our young children understand the concepts of energy at an early age through Divine Consciousness. The construction of a planet just as big as your Earth only exists due to the 'free energy' state. In other words, space which science believes is "empty", is filled with worldly substance -- in forms of unconcentrated materials, in order to obtain the precise quantity of Matter in constructing an orb as large as Jupiter. There is 'free energy' existing in interstellar space which is not recognized until it attains an effect that your senses can react to. Coagulation of free energy in the time-space area of the Cosmos becomes affected, and begins to substantiate a rotating pattern."

ZEB: - "After a series of re-directing and colliding, a circular movement begins to manifest. It may appear that I am repeating myself, but it must be in order that you fully understand the concepts. An electrical display, which, when incandescent formulates, your science calls it Nebula, begins to grow in that particular area of the heavens. This electrical Nebula begins to coalesce into different atomic assemblies, making planetary materials such as minerals, metals, and chemicals; - making that free space in that particular portion of the heavens to become a gigantic chemical laboratory, so to speak, where atoms, protons and electrons find their affinities."

O.G. - "Are you saying that this circular and electrical display is forming a planet with all its chemicals and atomic structure starting in its Core, or as you say, Centrosome?"

ZEB: - "That is exactly what I am stating. It may seem that I may have gotten off the original path of discussion. But all is necessary for you and others to first grasp how planets begin to form. NOW, know this: - that many planets that begin to form are not all with desires of completion due to the Spirit-Soul given to formulate the planet did not approve of his building concept and abandoned it, which should explain where asteroids, meteors, comets and the moons that are formed come about. Your Moon was in this particular category, being abandoned before its completion, and is why, in answer to your earlier question there is water, snow, trees, vegetation, clouds and atmosphere on your Moon."

O.G. - "It all seems to fit for the explanation. How fascinating knowing all this, and answers to me why it has things similar to Earth. How did the Moon come to be in its present orbit around our Earth?"

ZEB: - "Glad to oblige you with the answer. Originally your system of worlds was created by other "Living Manufacturing Spirits", who joined together to complete your system of twelve planets, just as these same Manufacturing Spirits do for other systems. They had accomplished their tasks as great Architects, even to the creating of satellites for the balancing of the system. Because one manufacturing spirit performed his creation in a much slower process than the others, He was told that he had to abandon his creation, and it was done. This world was far beyond the twelfth world in creation, and was given the choice to abort, and/or to finalize it as a Moon elsewhere in the Cosmos. The would-be planet was moved to orbit Earth, but began to orbit around Jupiter until the gravity hold became unleashed as it slowly came to rest in its intended orbit around Earth, where it came to rest as of this time. It almost was pulled into orbit around Venus, but that too failed to be."

O.G. - "I know for sure that our Fundamentalists and scientists will not buy your story, but I assuredly do because I know that you are not prone to lie. I have recorded the story for those who wish to read of its contents, and to either accept it or discard it."

ZEB: - "That is to be expected. I have no squabbles should there be friction apposed upon these truths. I must break off contact at this point. There is more to be understood about the heavens that could ever be correlated. No intent is made against the views of mortal man. I but give the prospects of Creation and therefore, have completed my mission. Remain in peace my good friend until we meet again. SHASTAL. IMENUBICOB. End of contact.

Dear Wendelle:

Looking through my latest find of one of my binders, I came across one of my many contacts that had to deal with religious material. Most of the other binders that had this kind of knowledge was destroyed by fire in the fireplace of the person who didn't like what she was reading, thinking it to be received by the devil. That's past history and I've gotten over this and have moved on. I do recall some of the material on the religious side that gave accounts about Jesus' real life history, burning of the Alexandria Library, which I do have some ledger notes on, and I remembered one very important historical knowledge about Judah Iscariot that I'm still looking for in my home and garage.

I sent you some material that was received on April 24, 1967 concerning the Moon landings, etc. along with three Topo maps of my contact areas. I hope you received it with no problems. I am sending another 'clairaudient' contact which was received on August 2, 1967, another question and answer one that has to do with the Book of Revelations, but not in a full interpretation, but enough to get the understanding from Zebban. It is quite an interesting contact that lasted 2-1/4 hours. Just a brief note to let you know I'm still at it and slowly finding more things that I want to add.

Best regards,

Oswald Gonzalez

Another Clairaudient Message from Zebban...
August 2, 1967 - 2:30 p.m. Anaheim, Cal.
(Question and Answer contact)

I was raised during my younger years in a Catholic Home, and later on studied the King James version of the Bible, and considered the following message as an important one that coincided with my Biblical studies because I was always inquisitive about certain parts of the Bible that I wanted some clarification on. I received the message at first and have added this portion when finalizing my scribbled material in better form. While growing up I attended church regularly until I was called into active duty in the Armed Services of the U.S. I suppose after that I wasn't as active with church membership, and found myself not attending on Sundays and special holidays. I didn't think myself to be a devout and strong religious person as I use to be until I began making more contacts with my Extraterrestrial Mentors after my discharge from the service. When contacts became more active, I began receiving a great deal of knowledge concerning other religions, along with deeper understandings with the life of Emmanuel (Jesus), his disciples and other religious paranormal incidents.

In July of 1967, I came down with a serious case of the flu virus that had me in bed for a number of days. It was during that time that I once again began reading my Bible and was telepathically told that I should continue the readings to lift up my inner spirit for healings and strength. I had my radio on listening to the news about the assassination attempt on the Pope's life while he was riding in his open car in Italy, which was a blundered attempt and his life was spared. I was up and around on the 1st of August and was dwelling on the Pope's failed attempt and began receiving that overwhelming feeling of the 'Spiritual Bigness' that began to overtake me. I knew that something was about to take place with a contact when I get that feeling, and I made instant prayer right away asking for guidance and protection and the light of love to surround me and my home -- meditating strongly that no unwanted entity enter my domain or body. Then, I began getting that unusual ringing in my ears and I knew instantly what manner of contact I was to have, -- that familiar form of Clairaudient contact. I glanced at my wristwatch and went to get my pen and note binder in preparation for contact. I recognized the voice immediately, and with his usual opening statement, I began to write:

"Ishatrosh brother Oswald. I welcome thee in joy, greeting thee in the manner that was previously given you, to receive my words through the inner sounding of your ear canals, the organ of your auditory canal. I say this for those who wish to understand this method of contact. It is sad that even your church dignitaries are not exempt from such attacks upon his countenance. I say this in a serious interlude that there will be other attempts on his life in future times unless he is protected with a special covering that surrounds his vehicle. We are always in constant observation with the behavior of your species and leaders of State, Government, Church and Military. We have observed most importantly with regards to your Military achievements and their recent technological materials and information obtained by 'force' from the innocent lifeforms from stellar space. It's certainly appears that your Military cannot achieve technology of such materials on their own without 'stealing' it from innocent lifeform beings. That is one reason why we term your ways of life so backward."

O.G. - "You mean the lifeforms that science calls E.B.E.'s, (Extraterrestrial Biological Entities?)"

ZEB: - "That is precisely correct. There are more important data that I wish to relate to you, and is one of my purposes for contact with you today. It is known by us that there are serious ramifications regarding the Roman Catholic Church called Catholicism that may, if all goes well, to the structure of the Church and its followers. We have been aware of the attempts on Pope John Paul I on his life, but you are not aware of the death of the Pope before John, - who was intentionally murdered by poisoning which cannot be detected by medical means, and gives the appearance of a heart attack on the victim. We observe much inner-corruption going on by the heirarchy of the Catholic Church. We are also aware of how very special your thoughts have been with this Church. We do not wish to dishonor your thoughts. We only wish for you to know that much dissension will break forth within the Catholic Church, which will in time affect and bring about results in the direction of world events. It will cause great distress within the Vatican, and even further incidents with members if its Priesthood, which, in future times, will expose sexual abuse within the Church."

O.G. - "Will this happen real soon?"

ZEB: - "It has already happened secretly, and will continue to happen moreso in future years, and a great scandal shall befall within the Church walls. In time, dishonesty and personal gain by certain Catholic Church leaders will be made public, but will not fully cause a disalarming break-up of the Church. But because of the scandalist protocal, the Pope will have a very tough task ahead of him for fear of a divided Church."

O.G. - "Will there be many of the church members leave the congregation because of this dissension and scandal?"

ZEB: - "That is a big NO to your question. But many of the inner Church followers will ask the leaders to dismiss those at fault and allow the Church to move on. Certain High-Level Bishops and Cardinals try to manipulate the Church followers by inventing certain laws and rules of new Church dogma, to influence the Church followers to believe that these new laws come directly from God, which is not true. But the people will rise up against them and will learn of their power to manipulate for their wealth, their hypocrisy and lies to mankind."

O.G. - "Will these new laws and rules become enforced, or what will happen as a result of this?"

ZEB: - "Ye will see much happen in the fall of religion through manipulation, fear and guilt. Many Churches have changed many of the religious beliefs to suit their purpose and for their own greed and control over the masses."

O.G. - "From what you say then, it's not only the Catholic Church at fault but other main religious organizations?"

ZEB: - "Religion was not the way God intended man to follow. Religions are man-made cults, with mystic beliefs to catch you off-guard in their webs of deceit and false doctrines. The True Laws and doctrines were written to be the way of life, but certain scholars removed the writing from the doctrines, but were not successful in removing all of them, for many have been hidden away in secret archives for future references. Humanity or those writers of Biblical lore have falsified doctrines into something it never was. The newly appointed Pope is a good and loving man with a kindly energy force, and is hoping upon hope to bring about peace, not only in the Churches of the world, but into society as a whole. Still, there are machinations behind the scenes by certain Bishops and high-leveled controllers who wish the Pope was more manipulative. Many see him as a light and a beacon toward the inner structure of the Church."

O.G. - "Will there be attempts made on his life because he is a good Pope and doesn't wish to manipulate anyone?"

ZEB - "Many in the Vatican disagree with his pronouncements and fear that he will not follow along with their agenda. He does not seek self-aggrandizement and will not play along with their plans. So they are considering a way to stop him by using a drug which acts upon the mind as a strong tranquilizer."

O.G. - "Is that what happened to the earlier Pope - by using a drug? Will he be killed by those in his own organizational church group?"

ZEB: - "This is so, and it was known by those distorters of destruction that if one does not play by their rules, they are to be removed in whatever way possible. Any attempts to assassinate your Pope in office now will fail. Continuous efforts are in place to protect his life."

O.G. - "I don't wish to change the subject, but I've been meaning to ask you. I've read many versions of the Bible written by the different Churches of today, and I've found a great deal of discrepancies in all that I've read. Are there any that are closely true in these versions? And if so, what is the correct version?"

ZEB: - "My, My! You certainly do have a searching mind. We exemplify your interest because of your discerning mind which allows for serious investigation on "What Is Truth." As a whole, none of the versions are altogether correct. Each of the versions written have been slanted toward other meanings with regards to that particular religion. There is no such thing in religion as a true and correct version. Even the more popular King James version has discrepancies within. For instance, let us examine the second chapter of Genesis where is written concerning How Man and Woman came to be."

ZEB: - "In chapter two, verse seven and again in verses 21,22, and 23 of the same chapter, it is written that God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life:...(vr. 7) and in 2:21,22,23, it is written that God caused a great sleep upon Adam and took a rib to form Woman. So far, here we acknowledge two different forms of creating man. Let's jump to Gen. 1:26,27..Here we have a beginning version for the creation of Man where it is written, ..."Let us make Man in our Image." So God seriously created Man in His Image, .."In the Image of God created He Him; Male and Female created He Them." (Unquote.) Here we have three different versions of How God Created Man; which surely reflects on discrepancies that seem to relate that God must have not known in what way He would Create Mankind. But the correct version is in Gen. chapter one, verses 26 and 27, where the Supreme Creator formed Man in His Own Image, which is in Spirit, and not that He had to form Man from a dust-ball or clay, or to take a rib to form Woman!"

ZEB: - "What the fundamentalists overlook is that in the beginning Man was Spirit-Form and not flesh. If it were true that God had to remove a rib from Adam to form Eve, then it is obvious that Man was Flesh. What I am pointing out to you is that when the writers placed in the scriptures two other versions of the Creation of Man, we most certainly see some discrepancies, AND that they appear to make God to be a liar and a charlatan, or possibly make it seem that He didn't know how to Create Man. Another item overlooked by these scholars and Hebrew writers is when scripture state "MAN" in certain verses, it is meaning "MANKIND", because it was written in verse 27 that HE created Mankind in His Image - MALE AND FEMALE CREATED HE THEM. There was no need for God to remove a rib to create Woman when she was already created in the beginning chapter. And further, there was no need for Him to create Man from the dust of the ground. It makes it appear that He did not have Power enough to create from Spirit. These are Hebrew errors placed erroneously at another point in scripture. They obviously did not think that the error or discrepancies would be found, and why they left it in your Bible."
O.G. - "Boy, I certainly can see the discrepancy here. Wasn't it enough for the Hebrew writers that God knew that it was enough to create Man in His Image and not make it more complicated for the reader and the churches to accept the other two versions of Creating Man, and then teach these untruths to their congregations?"
ZEB: - "You catch on easily Oswald. Man is gullible to believe that when the Fundamentalists pronounce that the Bible is the infallible Word of God, it is left at that because they have been hoodwinked. Again I stipulate that there is no correct version. The Hebrew writers belittle Creation and overlooked their discrepancies whereby the writings remained even to this day. Many writers apply their own thoughts into their writings, which brings about the many discrepancies. They believe that they are correct in translating the works from the original writings. But they deleted many important factors that should have remained. It was all due to their ego's to make you believe that they were great scholars of truth. They believed that the readers would not accept what the True Writings disclosed, and that the reader would discard the book. They therefore invented their versions to amplify their own writings as All Truth.
O.G. - "What exactly was left out of the True Scriptures, if I may ask?"
ZEB. - "The Prophets of old, such as Elijah, Daniel, Ezekiel and others all had visitations by Extraterrestrials. Even Emmanuel Jesus had encounters with them. The Hebrews camouflaged Elijah's encounters with their interpretation, and purposely left out the many encounters that he did have because the writers believed that their writings would not be accepted as truth by the Church and other scholars. Of course, they did more camouflaging with Ezekiel's encounters making it appear that he saw beasts with eyes round about. And what would the readers think about Emmanuel Jesus' accounts? Would they believe Him to be a worshipper of devils and Incarnate beings? They therefore deleted these writings and put their own version with His battle with Satan upon a high mountain. Would not that be considered more devil-worship than the other? The discrepancies mount up that would certainly make one to consider if any Bible is the infallible word of God. Believe me, we know the truths."

O.G. - "I often wonder why the T.V. Evangelists teach these things as truth. Speaking of Evangelists, what was the real truth about Jimmy Bakker? What did he do wrong?"
ZEB: - "I will answer your questions in the order that you projected them. Firstly, all T.V. Evangelists are taught in a school for Evangelists with certain rules and methods of teaching what the school demands, or else they do not make the grade as teachers. It is 'either follow our rules or you are out.' As you would probably say, "You're busted." Secondly, I will answer your question as one answer. Mr. Jimmy Bakker did a most ungracious thing in defrauding his T.V. audience through what your law terms "Fractional Reserve," and consequently received a 45-year imprisonment and millions of dollars in fines. His wife Tammy later divorced him and resumed another lifestyle. Although the financial embarrassment of Mr. Bakker was wrong, it should have been handled as a civil suit and not a federal intervention. These lawyers should read the Constitution of the United States. Also, the matter of placing him in shackles was wrong. Where was he to go? He was not a hardened criminal, but because it was a Federal Indictment, he was shackled. "
ZEB: - "Think upon this matter also. This was an open attack on your religious freedom. It was a Federal attack. Mr. Bakker's crime was that he took trust fund money for his general fund purposes, which was over $100 million or there about; claiming it was to be a temporary and related fund matter. Some outside members wanted him to take the full punishment because they were assuredly in on the deal, but were not going to jail for it. He not only suffered financially and mentally, but also with his marriage destroyed. Those others in on the transaction were never caught or prosecuted."
O.G. - "Now that I know the facts, could I ask another question which has to do with religion basically? I would seriously like to learn about the book of Revelations. It seems pretty complicated and deep for us laymen?"
ZEB: - "We always teach the same eternal truths Oswald. Your biblical scholars and priests became stuck in the muck and mire of dogmatic reasoning. Instead of simplifying God to the people, they complicated Him, thus making it harder for people to understand and know Him, instead of making it easier. It will be an honor and privilege to give you understanding of one of the most complex writings ever. Many have borne the burden of explanations and projections with the book of Revelations and its prophecies. Since the prophecies presented by the accepted CHRIST BEING unto John, we will examine them in depth. The same prophecies have come to all cultures in all placements with identical meaning, though words and expressions differ."
ZEB: - "The prophecies concerning wars and rumors of wars and the dominance of the world by the white race in the end times are given in more detail by John in the last book-Revelations. The Christos came to several others in differing ways at that time to bring the vision of truth that will befall your end times. Man is still given the freedom to deny, but he also is given truth from above and below ---- the outer and inner. The knowing of truth will give unto each one his ability to choose his/her direction and offer truth regarding the Divine Order of the Universe and the Creation."
ZEB: - "The Christos dictated seven letters to John. The letters contained words of comfort and love as well as warnings and the true path. The letters may be understood on two levels -- the macro and micro. The last two letters were aimed at two opposite types of people. The first one is directed to those who have kept His Word and were faithful to Him. He promised to keep them from experiencing the coming tribulations. The second is aimed at those who have become totally apathetic toward God, being neither for or against His Laws, who fail to see that they are, in reality, blind, wretched, pitiable, poor and naked. This does not mean for them to run and dress themselves in white linen - for that would be a lie. It is an example of inner purity and intent. I will not quote verse for verse of Revelations, but what is given is with the manner of truthfulness."

ZEB: - "The scrolls spoken of along with the seals that are to be opened are in conjunction with the first four seals described as the "Four Horsemen of Apocalypse." For your understanding they represent the International conflicts that are to, and have already started to embroil the Earth. The trigger that starts the fateful ride of these Four Horsemen, who, on a macro level represent the bloodshed, death, destruction and economic chaos that wars bring. It is the rise to power of the white race and their dominance over the Earth as a whole, subjugating native peoples worldwide, and exploiting the countries under their control. On a micro level, the Four Horsemen represent the world empires and political movements that would dominate the globe in the end times."

ZEB: - "One explanation of these Four Horsemen is put forth that the First Rider on a white horse represents Western European powers that grew out of the old Roman Empire, "who went out conquering and to conquer" and colonizing parts of the world:-- Great Britian, France and Spain being the principle colonizers. The Second Rider on a Red Horse represents worldwide Communism, or Anti-Godness in its true sense, which has taken peace from the Earth, bringing anarchy, war and killing. Red is associated with Communism. The Russian Communists are not only responsible for the slaughter of their own people, but also for the massacres and suppression of Hungary, not to mention the rest of the European countries that lie behind their Iron Curtain. The other Communist Giant is Red China. Thus, the seal may have well have been opened on their account because of the massacre of their people under MAO, and the genocide against the Tibetan people and attacking India, - thus occupying that territory to this day."

ZEB: - "As to the Rider of the First Horseman of the Apocalypse, many scholars believe and pronounce him to be the Christ. This is not the truth. It is the Anti-Christ who rides the White Horse. The Christed Master rides the last horse, - the Fifth. Much of the true meanings have been distorted here and there for some 2000 years. It matches with the prophecies of Daniel, the Ancient Ones and the Great Seers of past history."

O.G. - "I was given to understand by our Church teachers that Christ was "The First and Last" horse, the "Beginning and Ending." But you have stated differently."

ZEB; - "Be mindful and wiser than that serpent who wishes to keep you in ignorance by misleading you and to try to make you believe untruths. Understand this most important point. It was the "Lamb" who was found worthy to open the scroll and seals. It is not likely that "The Lamb" (The Christ Being) would be on the First Horse. No! The First Rider was not the Christ Being. The First Horse and Rider was the old evil one himself-- the one your theologians dub as Satan, who is in all reality, Lucifer. He has been pronounced in many ways to suit the culture of language. The First Horse is white to deceive, though the whole of the Four is Satanic. One of the strongest historical indictments of Satan is that of a deceiver. Those of you who have chosen the path home to higher realms shall be lifted up into very carefully prepared "Ships of Light" - the Silver colored space crafts. Sorry....no fuffy white clouds!"

ZEB: - "The accepted Churches have much deception in their doctrines, having deviated from their own mis-translated versions of semi-truths. As your Mentor of Truth I must reflect upon you the lack of truth when liberals sanction murder and call it 'Women's Rights' through abortions. To kill is to murder at whatever age be the seed of life. I do not judge but simply marvel at the lack of responsibility in the heinous misuse of sexual pleasure and lust that results in murder of the innocent. I condemn the sodomy acts of homosexuality. It is the behavior which is incorrect and against God's Laws."

ZEB: - "The White Horse has spread his cloak of evil about the lands. The First Rider has fooled the people for possession of worldly wants -- the Want of wealth, of Power, of sexual prowess. All this is worldly. The deceiver is the one on the First Horse to set the path for gain."

O.G. - "And what about the other Horses? What will be their outcome for the world populations?"

ZEB: - "The Second Horse charges out of the scroll and reins in before the throne as John sees him. He sits astride a Red Mount - the color of Blood, and is given power to take peace from the Earth and to cause men to slay one another. The lower nature of man turned to making war and conflict, not peace. He has had warnings from the ages and will refuse to accept or hear these truths. John stood stunned as the hoofbeats of the Red Horse were heard. He heard the clanking of sword against sword, of crunching bones and piercing flesh, and the moans and cries of babes and wounded. Amidst the hoofbeats arise the sounds of missiles with nuclear warheads, the cries of Mother Earth giving up her creations unto the evil rider of Death. Brother against Brother, Neighbor against Neighbor; the woes of wars unequaled from the beginning of the world until now, and never to be equaled again. Had those days been cut short, no one would survive."

ZEB: - "The hoofbeats of the Red Horse pulses like an erratic heartbeat - with power to destroy the entire Earth seventy times over. The one you call the Pale Rider, the Prophet of Old, the Christ who said unto you, "All these things must come to pass, but the end is not still; and unless those days be shortened, none shall survive." Man has now the potential to annihilate your species and obliterate the human race. But God shall intervene prior to the total obliteration of your civilization, and Mother Earth will be given into her cleansing period. One third shall fall by the sword, which means a third of you will perish by plagues, disease and famine through the veil of tribulation time."

O.G. - "From what I have learned and read, 'all shall not perish.' Then how will they survive?"

ZEB: - "Let me remind you of some catchy wording. God promised after the Great Deluge episode that He would not again cause the Earth to be destroyed. He did not promise that civilizations would not be destroyed. History alone bears out this truth. Oh ye lambs of blindness moving headlong unto the slaughter! Madness has gripped the

on two levels -- the macro and micro. The last two letters were aimed at two opposite types of people. The first one is directed to those who have kept His Word and were faithful to Him. He promised to keep them from experiencing the coming tribulations. The second is aimed at those who have become totally apathetic toward God, being neither for or against His Laws, who fail to see that they are, in reality, blind, wretched, pitiable, poor and naked. The First Horse and Rider was the old evil one himself-- the one your theologians dub as Satan, who is in all reality, Lucifer. He has been your Earth. We also use our schematic computer technology to view and hear conversations with government and military installations to keep abreast with your nuclear testing facilities in different areas of your country and other countries as well. We are not eavesdropping but caution must prevail if we are to examine what moves that science, military and government officials are planning toward acceleration of space and other worlds."

O.G. - "Then its for your own protection as well as our own. What would eventually occur if things sort of got out of hand?"

ZEB: - "It would have devastaing effects not only upon your world but other worlds in your system and beyond. The cause will be due to the negligent management of your Earth's resources. The natural resources that help to balance your Earth are slowly being removed with oil, natural gases, iron ores, metals, - even crystal formations. When they are removed it upsets the balancing system of your planet. But the most crucial and tragic removal is with the loss of trees because they counteract many of your toxins in your air, and are very vital to the balancing of your atmosphere, which in turn, causes temperature fluctuations. Your atomic testing, both intentional and accidental, can and will disrupt the natural movements of Earth causing slow shiftings. Tampering with your weather patterns by polluting your atmosphere will eventually have disastrous effects on your natural evolution of Earth."

ZEB: - "By displacement of energy and nuclear wastes being hidden deep within the Earth and Oceans, could be disturbed by natural Earth movements and cause devistating earthquakes, tidal waves and movement of land masses from an explosion from these wastes. That is why I stated that we keep abreast with your nuclear testing that may even have a drastic effect on our own planet, if possible. Your nation and other nations have built many atomic and nuclear bombs and placed them in storage areas ready for future use. Should your world have a disruption in tilting, it would set off all of these waiting bomb storage areas and would annihilate land mass and human life source. Your world is playing with a dangerous toy that could destroy much of your world's population and continents, not to exclude your world in general. Once you have split an atom you cannot stick it back together again."

ZEB: - "But what your atomic scientist do not consider, you DO NOT split an atom but merely separate the nucleus energy, which shoots out in all directions. The end product of such a reaction is a deadly radio-active poison that will last for approximately 4,000 to 5,000 of your earth years. And once you create it, it is created 'forever.' A method must be devised to hold back the explosive energy into something that is usable and appropriate. We do so upon our world and never create waste that is not usable. We have known the method of transfer of atoms to a usable structural molecular design. Your Earth will not be completely destroyed for we have delved somewhat into your future. Large masses of land will be moved out of their place. We are not given to elaborate on your future and cannot interfere in your world's progress. Your scientists must realize that Earth is a Living Organism and must have its natural changes just like your body has its natural changes -- from its youth to its ageing process. Nothing in life remains as it was in its beginning. All things age, even water.

ZEB: - "Let water sit in a pool that is very still and you will eventually see the changes take place. Do you see the similarities with the book of Revelations? All will eventually come to pass. But take note that many prophecies can be changed by some other inter-twining incident and not bring that prophecy to fruition. Just like a tapestry work. The threads intertwine and take shape unless otherwise changed. In the famine years that will come, it is not the quantity of food that is the problem, but the distribution and dishonesty among the International Relief Organizations, and the indifference of certain governments to the plight of their own people, and the fraud implimented upon nations which all seems to complicate the problems even moreso. You have countless homeless and hungry people throughout your world, even as Emmanuel Jesus stated:..."The hungry will over be." It is most evident within the country of Africa and Mexico."

ZEB: - "Though your Churches open their doors to the needy, now you have further problems with terrorism and vandalism for greed and selfishness. The vast amount of the recent homeless people were once professionals and higher skilled workers who were laid off of their jobs. Where do most of them go? They become the homeless ones. It will make a great difference as to what you as an individual will do in these times of consternation and travail. While famine and disease stalk your world, others are arming themselves in great numbers. Guns do not kill people. People kill people, which is a most pathetic development of uneasiness."

ZEB: - "Now comes the Fourth Seal which will be broken by the Lamb. John writes: "I looked, and there before me was a pale horse!" In actuality, the word Pale in Greek is "Chlorus" - a yellow-green color of sickly grass green. Chlores is also described as the 'color of ashes!' Still another description given is as a horse of livid, bloodless color of a corpse. And seated on the Pale Horse was a Rider named DEATH, and Hell followed close behind him. This Rider was given power to kill one-fourth of the world's population."

O.G. - "I see that it speaks of weapons of death. Just what are these?"

ZEB: - "These are sword, famine, plague and wild beasts. A time will come when the wild beasts will rob families of their children and destroy cattle and herds of sheep. Pestilence will also be upon the lands. These Four Horsemen will ride over and over again throughout the ages. You will be smitten with consumption, fever and inflammation. Pestilence will cling to you until it has consumed many from off the land. Scurvy and the itch will be rampant along with large tumors upon the body which cannot be healed. Madness and blindness will smite many, with degenerative diseases, cancers, deficiency syndromes and incurable diseases such as AIDS, VD, Herpes Simplex II. And mental illness will be borne upon the populace and children with birth defects. The cures for all these shall be kept from the people and hoarded by the controllers."

ZEB: - "Starving wild animals shall hunt within the cities, and many shall fall prey to them. There will come forth uncontrollable pests that will eat the fields and feed on man. There will come forth hordes of bees, wasps, locust and red killer ants that will plague the lands of any vegetations that are good food source, and when all has been devoured, they will plague humankind, in epidemic proportions. Many will beg for death but death will elude them. Man shall then live as the beasts."

ZEB: - "Finally comes the appearance of the Fifth Horse - the Snowwhite Horse, and the Rider of that wonderous Horse shall bear His own name. Man will not awaken until after the Four Horsemen have swept the lands and the cups of the full Seven Seals have been emptied. The messengers will not come in the form of flapping winged spirits but as ones of Higher Knowledge. The Hosts of Heaven are at hand and the Brothers of the Cosmos stand ready. This ends our discourse with the Book of Revelations."

O.G. - "This has surely been a most interesting contact. It not only hinges on past events but also on future events, and leaves me wondering what will prevail us in my generation. You have made it a whole lot easier to follow the prophecies written in Revelations. But I do wonder what the Churches will say about the understanding! Will they announce it as works of the devil or will they just let it all ride because they may not have all the truth?"

ZEB. - "It is written -- "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear still. He that hath eyes to see, let him see still. And he that hath a mouth to speak, let him speak with understanding." All has been written to be fulfilled whether one accepts or denies.

It is time to break contact least your ears become with deafness. But fear ye not for it shall not happen. Let your mind foster on the understanding that ye find rest in the wisdom unto the depths of your bowels, for much has been given and much received. Go in peace and in His Love continually. We shall be available again soon. Shastal. Imenubicob."

Contact ended at 4:50 p.m. - August 2, 1967...

Dear Wendelle:

For some weeks now I've been going through boxes in my garage to see if I could find where I may have placed some of my older binders. I had no luck in our office files again and went through folders that had records of past bills thinking that I may have placed any of them in these files. I made my mind up that there had to be a binder that I placed in boxes when we were moving from our other house. I must have gone through nine boxes with no luck, just odds and end stuff. There were more boxes I still did not go through and gave up the search until today.

I had stored a great deal of music sheets that I had no room for in the piano bench. I was surprised to find one of my binders that I recognized. It was mostly empty pages except for some scribbled notes that were not completed from a few automatic writings. I remembered that this binder had heavy duty mylar tabs attached to separate information and allow anyone to quickly turn to any enclosed writings. I was so happy to locate a very important contact that I found after the automatic writing pages. The binder was titled Book #5 and scanning through the first page, I had titled it "Additional Information given through Telepathic Receiving from Zebban to coincide with a Physical Contact on February 19, 1958 at Giant Rock, California."

This particular telepathic information was received the next day on February 20, 1958 and was a Question and Answer one. I remembered that long physical contact but was not sure of how I would be able to jot down all that was said with me and Zebban. But I do have a vague recollection that he mentioned and just how I would come to recollect our visitation information. I am enclosing this wonderful piece of material as another part of my experience.

Best regards,
Oswald Gonzalez

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION RECEIVED THROUGH TELEPATHIC FORM FROM ZEBBAN - TO COINCIDE WITH MY PHYSICAL CONTACT OF FEBRUARY 19, 1958 AT GIANT ROCK, CAL.

[THIS TELEPATHIC INFORMATION RECEIVED ON FEB. 20, 1958]
[A QUESTION AND ANSWER REPORT]

I was still living with my twin brother and family in Anaheim, California. It was the next day after I had my physical contact out at Giant Rock, California that I again began telling my brother and his wife about all that took place at Giant Rock, which happened on Friday, and the next days Convention gathering of many UFO investigators and people interested. During my contact there were many questions and answers that were important for me to remember, and I needed to fill in all that was told to me on that day. I found it very difficult to remember all that was said from both of us with such an experience encountered, though I did recall a great deal of that which I could remember. But there was much more that was told to me from all the questions I was asking. My twin brother was trying to help me to open up my thinking mind, but alot was almost a total blank.

I did recall a statement that Zebban had said to me, that he would assist me in gathering the information I had asked and the answers would be received telepathically. We were sitting around the kitchen table with my brother wearing a back brace, and having coffee and sweet rolls, still conversing about my experience. My twin brother George stated; "Maybe he plans on letting you know through telepathic means!" I said to him, "Yes, maybe it's his way of informing us through that way that you said and will certainly be one of the best ways he could help us in gathering the rest of the materials that I had asked him. I know he gave me the answers, but my mind is somewhat blank." That's when George began to say, "That's exactly what he's telling me right now -- for you to scribe down on paper the questions that will come to be clear in your mind, and he will provide the answers. He's telling me now that he will wait for you to get paper and pen." That took me by total surprise and I hurried to get a notepad or paper and pen. It appeared to me that George would be the receiver and I would write down any questions with his answers. George said, "Yes, that is what he is saying that he will do."

Zebban began to telepathically speak through my brother at 12:32 p.m. that 20th day of February, 1958:...

ZEB: - "Ishatrosh Neb my brothers and sister."
O.G. - "What does that mean, and in what language are you speaking?"
ZEB: - "It means Welcome one and all. I speak the Universal Tongue of our planet. You will find similar writings to our language in a book written by author James Churchwood titled, 'Language of MU.' You can locate the book at any bookstore. Read of its contents and you will find it very stimulating."
O.G. - "We all greet you in love and harmony. When we met in the desert place physically, I had asked you many questions, but I cannot recollect all that I asked and what answers to had given me. Could you help us along these lines?"

ZEB: - "There will be no problem in opening up your mental thoughts which are like photographs that remain forever. I will assist you in all manner of distribution and disbursement. You will have no problem with communication output. Your questions will come forth as we go along in conversing in this particular manner. The mind is a storehouse of knowledge. Many therapists have proven this through hypnosis. Yet we do not utilize this form of procedure but only to electrically stimulate your thoughts. We will not "Zap" you so have no fear. It is only a mental procedure to unlock your pineal gland that closes to protect you mentally. It will be a matter of opening your brain patterns so as to expand on your thoughts of yesterday."
O.G. - "One of the questions that I am remembering was if you had schools on your world like we have on Earth?"
ZEB: - "Yes we do have a total means of learning on our world. Even our children begin their learning at the early age of one and are already aware of the desire to learn instruction. They receive their early teachings through the same manner as I am conducting to you this day through THOUGHT instruction as I am instrumentally doing with brother George. We also call it Telepathic Instruction. As our children grow into their teens there is no segregation as to age. They are allowed to choose their particular field of endeavors and interest that they desire to learn. There are many different vocational areas that they can choose in learning. Many desire to become Higher Teachers in Science, also as Topographical Sciences in learning of structural Architecture, in Chemical Studies of worlds, and as travelers in Navigational Technology to other worlds, systems and even satellites."
ZEB: - "Still, there are others that wish to become Navigational Commanders of Spacecraft, with their instructions mainly on Navigation methods of charting and traveling to different worlds in the universe. Others choose to become Structural Builders of our crafts in design and safety, with new techniques in construction. No one person is forced to compulsory education. When a student wishes to change his/her course of study, they are allowed to do so. Everyone has the inner desire to learn, with creative abilities to achieve success towards their goals. "
O.G. - "Do you have enforced laws and policemen?"
ZEB: - "There is no need for the enforcement of laws, nor are there any law enforcement that is necessary as you do on Earth."
O.G. - "Then you don't have need for prisons or jails?"
ZEB: - "Such facilities are never needed or necessary because our world systematically is Spiritually in instruction through self discipline in the laws of Creation. There is no negativity, only positive balancing. Your world has disfunctional people, and therefore need strict forms of discipline from the ill-functioning of lower mentalities borne through circumstances that lead to self-destructive harm. We have, for millions of years, evolved above force and wrongdoing. It is non-existing with only harmony and trust."
O.G. - "Do you have a form of Government or a leader like a President?"
ZEB: - "There is no form of a political government because, as I already stated, we are Spiritual Beings and have no need to be governed or controlled. We have a complete consensus of well being toward each other. The heart and mind rule our intellect and not the head. There is no such thing as Religion or religious orders or politics. We exist on a very high spiritual plane. On your world such things as religion and politics were invented because there are no spiritual tendencies. They have declined toward cultic practices and mysticism. Your world has no true religion. The word religion is an expression of belief and conduct in rituals."

O.G. - "We have beliefs in a Creator and powers of Holy Spirit. We all grow up and are taught in believing in a Saviour called Jesus the Christ. But we do not care to follow the rituals that the church puts forth and teaches."

ZEB: - "Your world has much to learn. It is good that you have such beliefs in a Creator. We on our world have always followed the Laws of Creation and Creator whom we know as the Divine Intelligence of All That Is, that gives life unto all forms of substance and Beings. HE is the Giver of Truth through the Holy Spirit, for HE IS ALL KNOWLEDGE. The concept that your Theologians preach of a Saviour does need of correction. It should be understood that you are all 'saviours' in retrospect and not that you need one to save you. The Christ Being came to your world to teach of the truths, and to bring man back unto the Laws of Creation. Your Fundamentalists have for a long period of time taught the congregations such erroneous teachings that HIS name was Jesus, and only go by what is written in your scriptures that He was called such."

ZEB: - "His true name is Immanuel - being interpreted means, "God With Us." The title of Jesus was given by Saul of Tarsus, who was later given the name Paul. He had the scribes of that day write His name as Jesus which has since remained in your Holy Writ. Paul was given instruction to bring Immanuel [Jesus] before the Sanhedrin to be charged as a heretic and blasphemer. The name Jesus means "Anointed One", and though this is true, the name given at that time had many in the land with the same name Jesus, just like you have many called today as Smith or Jones. HE was never called Jesus by His disciples and followers. They all knew Him as Immanuel. The Hebrew writers and scholars took it upon themselves to leave many truths out of the True Scriptures and left the title which Paul pronounced upon Him. The Churches in the 20th Century teach falsified doctrines to the congregations, and follow cultic rituals with the drinking of His blood and eating of His flesh as known rituals. These were rituals that the Hebrew writers copied from the Babylonian texts, and even took it upon themselves to copy word for word, the belief that the Babylonians followed of a hoofed and horned creature that they called the Devil, or Beeslebub, or Satan."

O.G. - "We were always tauch that Satan did exist and was the one cast out of heaven by Michael the ArchAngel."

ZEB: - "This is false testimony and untrue. The Hebrew scholars created their own version of the story of Satan, the Devil from the same texts as the Babylonians. Remove such teachings from your minds, for it was not Satan or the Devil that was discharged from the heights of Spiritual Bliss from Sirius by Michael, but Lucifer. There was never one called Satan or the Devil in any form on the Spiritual world of Sirius. But Lucifer existed. Your Scriptures give a summary of the story in the book of Isaiah, chapter 14, beginning with verse 12. "How are thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer... for thou hast said in thine heart I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I WILL BE LIKE THE MOST HIGH." Let me dictate to you the details of this character that your world erroneously calls Satan, the Devil. To begin with Lucifer at one time was one of the Great Ones of the Cosmos, who proceeded far in Spiritual and Celestial excellence in his upward path as a magnificent Archangel."

ZEB: - "What he did instead was to suddenly reverse his celestial thinking, knowing that the Divine Spirit at the head of all Creation came out of the same origin as himself, that is, from Spirit. When Michael was given command to remove Lucifer from his higher essence of being, it was because he desired to have the Divine Throne for himself: -- "I Will Be Like The Most Hight," as overall Spirit, and to have all the host of Celestial Beings to follow him. There were many of the Host of Spirits that was enticed to follow him and who were also removed along with him. This Luciferian personage led his followers to your newly formed world and began an era of Sexquestration with indigenous earthly forms of beasts, fowl and fish."

ZEB: - "He was a proud one -- taking up residence on Earth and falling into cohabitations with beastly forms of Creation, and thus producing an era of "Sodomy", the traces of which still linger in the hearts of mankind. I say this in all sincerity and truth: this Luciferian personage HAS LONG SINCE DEPARTED YOUR EARTH SCENE. But the memory of his false stewardship still lingers in men's psychologies. The traditions of this so-called Tempter, the Evil One, the Prince of the powers of darkness, and all the other terms and descriptions which your Churches employ to personalize evil, has come out of this original malfeasance. It has given personality to all those later manifestations of wickedness which men have found themselves afflicted."

O.G. - "Then we have been given false stories of a Satan by the teachers inside our Churches for all these years, having us to believe that if we do wrong we will rot in hell or pergatory?"

ZEB: - "In all the Cosmos we have never known of such a character existing in the mundane affairs of the hour, nor have we seen the faintest resemblance that we can discern or discover to one called Lucifer. The only devilment of consequence we can discern is the spirit of hatred, - because as it shines stronger and stronger, it only illuminates the extent of their ignorance. We say truthfully, there are no devils in the strict religious sense. There are only backward, morally twisted people who delight in evil works. Divine Providence has not, and could not create what is termed a Devil or Satan. A Devil has to have an origin of Spirit Form. Therefore, Satan, as a Tempter is an abnormality which is the state of temptation toward being enticed to do evil. Evil of itself is pure ignorance and the disregard of ways that lead to Spiritual improvement or moral excellence. So, being 'tempted by Devils' is an utterly confused description. Give no credence to any Satan as a malevolent being. That which is credited as Satan are simply ignorant, perverse, unbalanced, fanatical and spiritual illiteracy."

ZEB: - "You should, in all sincereness, put this false character out of mind. As an entity in your material world, he does not exist. But ignorance, greed, blindness, lust, selfishness, -- these do exist. Conquer them and you destroy even the tradition of Satan or a Devil to perish and be no more."

O.G. - "What excellent knowledge which we have never known before. I don't believe we'll ever forget such wonderful information. We do sincerely thank you for opening our eyes to such truths and for such input. It gives us another slant on religion since you have taught these things to us. You sure prove to us that you are close to God."

ZEB: - "It is not that we are closer to God my friends, for all Creative Spirit has the essence of His excellence. Even Immanuel [Jesus] stated to you, "Know ye not that ye have the Spirit of God Within You?" We are opening the door of your inner-selves that you too can behold His Loving Countenance and Awareness. There is always harmony that evolves from within, but many upon your world wish not to recognize such harmony and peace. It is only the process for each one to serve one another. This is harmony in its fullest. Even Immanuel stated, "He that serveth his brother serveth He that is." Any further questions?"

O.G. - "Yes! I remember asking if you live in cities as we do here on Earth?"

ZEB: - "Yes, we do have communities throughout our world. Our homes are the makeup of our circular crafts, some being very large and others in medium size. We also have botanical gardens of extreme beauty and aroma that surround our homes, with green grass that also covers acres of land on many hillsides. We have trees of various shapes and sizes that are about our homes and in forest areas. Each home is equipped with a landing pad for our smaller vehicles to land. We are very similar in our lifestream because we take our families on field excursions to further increase their learning skills."

O.G. - "You mentioned that you had landing pads for your smaller vehicles. What kind of vehicles are these, and are they specifically used for transportation about your world?"

ZEB: - "They are termed Projection Vehicles which continually levitate in flight around our world to other sites. The Projection Vehicles skim about the surface and travel on Light-Beams of energy, looking in appearance as a sun-raybeam. We utilize crystal-type what you would term techometers. There is not a word to explain it otherwise. These crystal-type techometers are controlled along a glass-like highway by Beam Crystals within a fixed housing at certain intervals along the glass-like highway that allow for a comfortable smooth ride. All our vehicles are automatically controlled from within a fixed console. We but THINK our course and we glide along with ease and stability. The crystals pick up our thoughts and project them into the console instrument, and we are on our way. It's that simple."

O.G. - "What you are saying is that you could never have an accident or vehicle failure?"

ZEB: - "That is precisely correct. We do not have a junk-yard of vehicles as your world does. Your mode of transportation in years to come will be far more suitable. You must eliminate fossil fuels for energy output. Your combustion system must be refurbished if you are to end carbon-monoxide poisoning into your atmosphere and your bodies. Our mechanical scientists are always creating new designs for better maneuverability and safety. There is no such thing as a discarted vehicle. They are simply redesigned. We have schooling for such mechanical scientists and instruction."

O.G. - "We call them auto mechanics, airplane mechanics, etc."
ZEB: - "There are seemingly identical techniques. You have the same Holy Spirit within you as we do - who gives all knowledge by Thought Waves."
O.G. - "Where do you park your levitation or projection vehicles? Do you have a place to shelter your vehicles?"
ZEB: - "We have storage facilities within our home-base area that can house up to twenty such vehicles. The entire storage facility is completely crystallined within to keep the vehicles levitated at all times to prevent breakdown of crystals within the vehicle. If you were to enter the facility you would be astonished at the rainbow of light beams which keeps a constant temperature along with the beauty it enhances. These same crystal formula is also used within our homes for warmth if necessary, but mostly for lighting. We use no wires for electricity, and the crystals are within the ceilings and walls. We have glimpsed into your future and have seen your world discovering this same source of energy."
O.G. - "You mentioned your glass-like highways. Where do they lead you to?"
ZEB: - "When our navigational flights have been completed and we arrive home, we have times of leisure and recreation. We travel these glass-like highways to mountainous areas for R and R [Rest and Recreation,] and take our families and friends to lakes for pleasures and spiritual upliftings. We are closer to nature and God."
O.G. - "You must not have guards or game-wardens!"
ZEB: - "We are protected by Light-Beings of benevolence and need no such persons as game-wardens or guards. Game-Wardens as you have on Earth are for the protection of wild life and forest fires. And guards you use are to keep unwanted predators away from your premises. You are comparing your world's safety systems to ours. We do not kill or hunt any form of animal or fowl. We are of a higher spiritual essence."
O.G. - "I was thinking along the lines of our own world and should have realized that you are on a higher level of spiritual understanding. Do you have any children, and how many are male and female?"
ZEB: - "Our female species have children in similar manner as your Earth woman, excepting that our children are conceived in a bubble of light that creates energy for the creating child's entrance in life without the aid of doctors or nurses as you have on Earth. We have a far advanced method than can be realized, as you would say, 'way over your heads.' Each life-form, even Earthly life-forms have an invisible aura of energy that completely surrounds each individual, whether spirit or flesh, enveloped in grandeur of excellence. This field remains with us our entire life-span. But with earthly forms, or physical forms, this auric field is very low in energy due to your stressful lifestyles that your bodies go through. Your medical scientists are not aware of the existence of such a field, and therefore utilize doctors and nurses to assist in bringing a life-form into the world. This auric-energy-field is the God Essence that gives the new born its spiritual agility and life-giving strength."
O.G. - "You're right. Some things are way over our heads, yet we realize that you are far advanced in many ways than we are here on Earth. Are we so slow in achieving such advanced scientific and medical achievements?"

ZEB: - "It is obvious that we have achieved to a higher knowledge than you. But remember, it took us some thousands of years to get to our present achievements. Your world may be slow, but you are advancing at the pace that the Divine Spirit allows. When there are wars and devistations existing on your world, achievements of a higher knowledge come slowly. I will finish answering your question 'if I have any children.' Yes, I have twelve children; seven male and five female. Four of my male children are already advanced into craft navigation as myself. The other eight children are yet stimulating their education in various fields; still achieving higher technical skills. My spouse, in many cases, accompanies me in my travels, for she too seeks advancement in various technological ways, enjoying her advanced teaching skills."
O.G. - "What is your spouse's name? And do you ever have divorces or even more than one wife?"
ZEB: - "My spouse's name is TARRA. We do not have such matters as divorce. When marriage is considered, it is a holy and blissful connection of two souls by the Holy Spirit in a ceremony of Spiritual uplifting that none on Earth could ever imagine. We always consider having one wife, with no desires to connect with more than one. We become as One Soul, One Spirit through a bond of Love.
O.G. - "You mentioned that you have twelve children. Does your world have problems with being over-populated? Our world has over 5 billion people.
ZEB: - "Here on Nep-4 there are no overpopulation concerns. Our twin world Nep-7 where Brother Liom resides also have no overbearing population problems. There is a balancing of souls on both worlds, with an equal amount of life-forms being considered.
O.G. - "You mentioned about being high Spiritual Beings. Could you explain that a little more for our understanding, because when I saw you yesterday, you were a fleshly being."
ZEB: - "It is all a matter of understanding physical forms and spiritual forms, and how vibrations of a lower and higher caliber change Thought Waves. It will be necessary for me to give understanding in a different viewpoint than your vocabulary of words will allow for better understanding, otherwise much will be lost through your words and ours. In all Creation there are different forms of Vibration that stem from Holy Spirit.; Vibrations for Matter to form Substance, Light Vibrations to form Spirit and Physical bodies, and Full Energy Vibrations that move worlds, stars, suns, etc. We are of the Light Vibrations for Spirit Forms, creations of Thought Essences to manifest in Spirit from the beginning when God said, "Let us make Man in Our Image and in Our Likeness."
ZEB: - "When you say a thing "vibrates" it is generally meaning that there is movement of high velocity to produce a strange condition. This then is another form of vibration: Sound Vibrations. There are also Radial Vibrations to create Mineral Substances in worlds. We are therefore a Transcendant Vehicle or simply put, bodies of energy which is termed Spirit. We can function in both Spirit and Physical manifestations. When we enter into Spiritual essence, we are on a higher level of consciousness, and can still function as living organisms in Etheric Thought Vibration; somewhat higher than the physical functionings, but not in terms considered Dimensional, but only higher Thought Form. We can tone down the Sound Vibration by Thought in order to become physical form. It is all a matter of vibrational adjustment. But our true bodies are vehicles where consciousness abides within. When we adjust our forms to the physical, it is not really life. Think of it as our "aliveness residing in a physical body temporarily." I hope that I have clarified matters of 'spirit and physical' in a simplier way for your understanding, with a clearer picture of Vibrations of Lifeforms."

O.G. - "Yes, but we will need to review what I've just written in order for our minds to conceive the understanding. Another question for you -- Do you have animal life and birds and fish on your world?"

ZEB: - "Yes, we have different species of animal, fish and fowl. Just because we say that we are of Spirit Essence, does not mean that we cannot function in other ways. Our species are altogether different in appearance as to Earth creatures. But none have the caniverous tendencies as many species of your world have. We have large and small creatures of God which only partake of vegetations along with mineral salts which are an essential part of their diet. One feature set apart from your own is that they can appear and disappear as a means of travel, except for the fish within the waters. We do have large fish similar to your Whales, but no sea-monsters."

O.G. - "Do you have lakes and streams, and oceans?"

ZEB: - "That is correct. Many, many worlds when formed have water upon them. It is the essence of all physical life, and all forms of vegetation."

O.G. - "Do you have skies, clouds, and storms on your world?"

ZEB: - "Water vapors from the waters form the clouds due to the condensation. Our sky is a light blue like your own. Storms that you have such as Tornadoes, Hurricanes, even Earthquakes and high winds are due to the negative charges of Thought Waves that disrupt nature's balance. We continually live by God's Laws of Spirit, and when there is this form of balance in the positive, with no negative influences, nature remains balanced and we have no storms or such. We realize that worlds are living organisms and we treat them as such. We do not take out of the planet anything that cannot be replenished to assure a balance of nature. We have observed how your civilization removes materials from the inner terrains but do not replenish it in any way. "

ZEB: - "We have also seen and observed the removal of forest trees that, in time, create atmospheric conditions of extreme measures. Trees bring about the necessary moistures for plant growth that is essential for wild animal and fowls, and keep the environment of insects at a necessary balance. The removal of trees creates an unbalanced situation whereby the poisoness insects create havoc in disease and death. When there are no trees but just barren wastelands that are not replenished with new growth, waters become stagnant, and the larvae of mosquitoes brings about disease of malaria and other infectious disease. Death is brought upon the inhabitants through ignorance and greed for the wood to build your structural homes and tall buildings. The continued amount of water that your planet receives helps cleanse the planet as well. Try going without water for a short period of time and see the reactions that occur on the dry, parched lands, and on animal, fish and fowl, not to mention humankind."

ZEB: - "I am not disallowing the necessity for wood to build your homes. I only strive to see the need to replenish what has been removed: in order to continue the balancing of Earth. When fowl and many wild animals are depending on forests for their necessary needs, the removal of trees, etc. allows for migrations of animal and fowl to other areas. They only eat what is the necessity for living and keep the balance of overpopulating of animal and fowl down to the minimum. "

O.G. - "But it has always been this way for years. We now have animal husbandry to enable those who raise cattle, sheep, chickens and turkey to produce food for our families and to feed the growing populations."

ZEB: - "You seem to have taken my words to mean that we have little understanding about the nature of your livelihood. Do not misunderstand my meanings. We know of your worlds plyths and needs unmistakingly. We have seen the sufferings of humanity and the starving population of people around your world. What is hard for us to understand is why it is allowed? You overlook my meaning that your world needs to replenish its production in growth matters. We have no wish of interfering with your animal and fowl husbandry methods and how your world continues to raise these creatures for your continued livelihood with substances. We know to that your science has given you such technology of refrigeration methods for keeping great quantities of meats and fowl."

ZEB: - "Though we do not partake of the eating of flesh of animal or fowl or fish, we know that these creatures have God given life within them, yet not with higher spiritual essence. What you need to know for greater understanding is that the eating of animal flesh diminishes your lifespans by hundreds of years. Our longevity is due to our balanced formula of correct diets. Even your scriptural writings record in Genesis what was given to eat in order to expand your lives. It was only in later generations that mankind began to partake of the eating of meat. Seek ye the Book of Genesis that you may be able to see the truth of what I speak. In Genesis 1:29,30..."And God said, Behold I have given you every HERB bearing seed, which is upon the face of ALL the Earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of the tree yielding seed; to you shall it be for Meat. (30).. "And to every beast of the Earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the Earth, wherein there is Life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so."

O.G. - "Somehow it seems that we have gotten away from this scriptural writings, along with animal and fowl becoming carniverous creatures. When did all this take place?"

ZEB: - "It was shortly after the Great Deluge or Flood Period, when the Water Canopy was held in place by gravitational energies some fifty miles or so above your Earth, when it was commanded to the Host of Angelic Beings and the Great Avatar of Light to spill the contents of the Water Canopy upon the Earth to destroy the abominations of Sodomy, when Spirit-man of Lucifer's hoarde of rebellious spirits committed whoredoms with Earth beasts."

O.G. - "Are you speaking about the time of Sodom and Gomorrah? Was that when Lucifer and his rebellious angels came to Earth?"

ZEB: - "It is that I am making reference to that time period when Lucifer and his angels committed all type of abominations by entering the beasts and fowl of the Earth, to mingle within the beasts and fowl, making for the time of the Great Sodomic Period."

O.G. - "Are you saying then that these migrating spirits from heaven entered the bodies of beasts and fowl and took over their forms?"
ZEB: - "That is precisely what I am revealing. Your teachers of Theology need to correct their understanding and not take it upon themselves to accept the mythical stories of the Babylonians and their chronology of events of that time. It all came about when your world was spinning on its axis at quite a fast pace, faster in its revolutions when these Luciferian spirits came to Earth and other Spirit Forms of Mankind already existed upon your world, when Giants and Dinosaurs existed with bodies larger than normal in order to hold to the Earth's fast revolutions; revolutions that were so rapid that your water was spun out into the higher atmosphere for a period of time. Earth had those particular forms of life in this arena of the Cosmos in order to obtain a definite result in realization and development."
ZEB: - "When a planet of a certain type is projected within this arena which later became your Earth's orbit, a sort of superior congestion in Celestial conditions must be relieved. There are always and forever more souls in the Cosmos who desire incarnation than the planetary universe can possibly accomodate, which according to the times of incarnation, facilities for sustaining them, along with the proper conditions is established to merit learning life-lessons according to their expending intelligence. When your Earth was finished in Creation, and long before every plant of the field was in the Earth, and every herb of the field before it grew, that the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the Earth. So sayeth your Scriptures. HE caused great works to be expended upon Creations of worlds with stupendous impellations of THOUGHT when the compositions had begun."
ZEB: - "There are many abortive worlds strewn about the Cosmos, and countless thousands of them are merely left half completed or abandoned in the process of coagulation, because the need for them had passed or, proven to not be worthy of efforts to carry them to completion. We have seen many of these in our travels as we traverse the heavens. Worlds, my friends, are Thought Creations of a vast order of Celestial Spirits. We understand that your customary teachings of unschooled mortals who are not aware of the higher Cosmic Formulas and Processes, to think that all universes and worlds are the labor of the One Supreme Supernal Deity. Receive these truths to be external and superior knowledge for your intellect to receive."
ZEB: - "We would say in all devoutness that instead of universes and worlds being created by the One Supernal Deity which the Fundamentalists call GOD, it is the Creators of such universes and worlds who are Created by HIM, and under HIS direction of their essences and capabilities to create. Creation is, to a large degree, one of the ultimate attributes of all spirits when their consciousness has evolved and expanded to that capacity. What your Fundamentalists are not aware of is that Creation is Thought, and Thought is Creation. There is no other way by which Creation comes about."
ZEB: - "When these migrating spirits that joined with Lucifer entered into the existing beasts and fowl forms, they created their monstrocities by Thought: -- Feline bodies with heads of man; Bodies of man with fowls that had heads and beaks of all forms of monstrocities - that also had huge wingspans; Beasts of the fields, Bullocks and Goat heads on bodies of man. And these monstrocities continued for thousands of years until the Divine Deity saw the wickedness of these migrating spirits, "and that every imagination of their Thoughts of the heart was only evil continually. And the Divine Deity repented that He had placed these migrating spirits on Earth and said, I will destroy all this wickedness from off the face of the Earth; both man, beast and fowl and the creeping things" And thus came the Great Deluge with the Water Canopy to spill upon the Earth. But not all the Earth was covered with water. There came great earthquakes of great magnitude that opened up the bowels of Earth, and many volcanoes spewed forth its venom of fire on those remaining beasts, fowl and creeping things with great destruction by fire."

O.G. - "It is difficult to conceive of the devastation at that time, yet we are familiar with the story of Lot near Sodom and Gomorrah. We're not sure just how the Churches and denominations will even begin to accept all that you have given to us. We will be challenged and certainly be ridiculed and called charlatans and workers of the devil, though I know now that there is no devil that exists. I can see now how all the story begins to fit together like a great puzzle."

ZEB: - "We are not as yet finished with the report, for there is much more that needs to be disclosed to you, that your minds intellect can be opened, and your churches may claim to see Pandora's Box of mysteries revealed. Your Fundamentalists will declare that you are trying to introduce to them a doctrine of Paganism, and may even claim to you that your brain has tragically worked loose that no assortment of wrenches might be needed to tighten your loose mental bolts. It makes no difference that they would believe that the great God of orthodox theology is more probable the Creator of these Supernal hordes to start with. And yet, whence have come their notions of Gods and Goddesses, of Counseling Spirits and of all the benevolent assemblies of Anthropomorphic Deities throughout the generations? Your society is filled with fanatical Fundamentalists who will say that you present blasphemies and suggestions that the orthodox God did not make everything, or, that the possibility or capability for making things can possibly belong to anyone but God."

ZEB: - "What they will pick as an arguement is the controversy with orthodoxy, that the moment you proceed beyond the Fundamentalists acceptances, you are entering the domain of either God or the Devil."

O.G. - "They also claim that Lucifer and his angels were termed 'Fallen Angels.' Is there need for correction there?"

ZEB: - "It is known that they teach that these Luciferian angels had fallen out of heaven, or cast out. Neither story is correct. These spirits were trying to be as the Supreme Deity, and were dimensionally and voluntarily opted to find their own way to establish themselves before Lucifer whom they decreed as their Supreme God and ruler of the universe. The true meaning of the "Great Fall" that is taught is far more than just that. The "Great Fall" was simply the removal of their 'Creative Powers' to create and seduce the beasts and fowl forms of life, and was taken out of them at the time of the flood and fire. Their creative powers once removed would no longer allow them to be used to form abominable creatures. This was the Great Fall - the removal of creating by Thought."

ZEB: - "Your Scriptures term them "Sons of God" and in the literary sense, they were. They had reached the stage of unfoldment, knowing the powers of 'Creating by Thought'. They overtook the beasts and fowl's sheathings and entered into them. Afterwards, they were neither animal, or fish or fowl. They were horrible concotions within these Earth species, even to utter riot. The 'Ageless Wisdom' called it The Great Abomination. The wholesale transfer from cat form, bullock form, fowl form and fish form was the first and only secret of the Sphinx and other telitale and solemn reminders of an undisciplined spirit. If these abominations continued to go unchecked as they had for a thousand years or more, all true forms of beasts, fowl and fish would have vanished."

O.G. - "So that's when the floods and fire came about to destroy these horrible concoctions of creatures in grotesque forms!"

ZEB: - "Yes, but at first it was decided by the Higher Octaves of Creation, a coterie of exquisitely unfolded spirits who took notice of the havoc on your newly formed planet. These Higher Spirits were exquisitely so high above any other octaves of spirit to seem almost as Gods, were exact in number -- One Hundred and Forty-Four Thousand [144,000] called The Elect which John of Revelations gave title to. These went into council with the Divinely Master Soul that men now call The Christ, also termed as the Great Avatar of the Ages. These 144,000 were going about the universe in constructive works and are termed The Lesser Avatars."

ZEB: - "While in council, this was their first decision: to send forth terrific blasts of 'Thought-Force' and destroy the wicked Earth and all forms of life upon it. But that would mean that all the forms that were 'clean' would also pay the penalties of the bedlam evil which they in no wise deserved. Again the council decided to pervert these evil spirits from the beastliness by having them to go in and out of life by reincarnating these forms, life after life, cycle after cycle; for it was decreed by the Divine Intelligence that Spirit Forms cannot be distroyed or eliminated. These evil spirits would gradually regain their status of their lost spintual purity by going through each cycle to sublimate their grotesque forms until the Divine Inner Spirit was in command again---to arrange the atoms to dissolve altogether and reassemble in the process now known as Materialization, that is, Fleshly garbs, to resume their Celestial powers of good once again."

O.G. - "That is truly a most interesting study of what happened that fleshly man came into existence, and seems the most logical way for these beast forms to get rid of their grotesque forms and become clean spirits. Not only do we see this process that was decided but it also seems more appropriate. But how would the Great Avatar and Lesser Avatars know that this process was actually being completed?"

ZEB: - "Because the Great Avatar was very wise with understanding and knowledge that the Divine Intelligent Creator reasoned that the first decision was not to be considered, the Council once again decided that the Great Avatar and Lesser Avatars would go down into Earth-life for certain periods of time, within different generations of incarnation and become as mortal beings, to employ themselves in flesh, born through a mortal mother. They would take positions of Great Mentors, Great Teachers, Great Philosophers, Great Writers, Great Artists and Great Statesmen. When the 'fallen brethren' , seeing these great works, would aspire to copy them. Now and then the Great Avatar Himself made personal appearances, to give demonstrations of subliness to them of what the Spirit resembled when graciously unfolded. The Lesser Avatars were some of your great Prophets, such notable ones as Enoch [who walked with God and was not, for God took him], and Methuselah, Noah, Nimrod, Abraham. The Great Avatar was Melchizedak who was King of Salem, who lived to be upon Earth for 960 years. He later appeared during the time of Roman rulers as Immanuel called Jesus."

O.G. - "I took notice that in the Old Testament of the Bible, it records that they had lived long lives. But now we live up to eighty or ninety years. Why such a declining in life?"

ZEB: - "You will need to remember that earlier I stated that longevity came about because the Laws of God were followed with regards to the eating of herbs for meat as was recorded. During the periods of generations of time in long past aeons, they lived longer lives because they did not partake of the eating of animal flesh. But the Lord God knew the hearts of man that they had 'free-will choice', which was long before Moses' time, that they began to sacrifice animal and burn them upon altars as rituals, and began recruiting their own gods of mythology and ate the flesh of animal. Then the Lord God announced that man shall live to be one-hundred and twenty years. Scriptual records record the happenings and why life was to be of lesser time periods."

ZEB: - "You will find some of the answers in the book of Romans chapter One, in verses 21 to 25 that records the following:..."Because that, when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were they thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." [This was the period of time when they began sacrificing animal on altars.] "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things." [These were their mythical gods.] "Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves." [These were acts of man with man, women with woman that your world knows today as homosexuals and lesbian misbehavings.]"

ZEB: - "Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen." And thus you have good reasons why man's longevity lives were decreased, changing the truth of God of the eating of herb for meat into their mythical lies to worship beastly statues that took the place of the True Creator. "For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections; for even their women did change the natural use of affection into that which is against nature;" [As I said, becoming affectionate woman with woman - Lesbianism.] "And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their own lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet." [It appears that the abominations of long ago are somewhat being repeated, that homosexuality would be considered by your world to be OKAY, because the ignorance of men remain so, that you are treading on dangerous ground when disengaging into the lives of Gay and Lesbian retaliation., whereby they create laws for the rights of the Gay communities.]"

ZEB: - "This is no way makes the errors of man to be correct and allowed. Man and Woman will put upon themselves diseases of the flesh due to their own lusts by dishonoring their bodies for pleasures unwanted. Therefore God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; beinf filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliceousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, and malignity; being backbiters and haters of God, despiteful and proud boasters, inventors of evil things; -- disobedience to parents, without natural affections, unmerciful; that even your Churches preach about the judgements of God, that they which do such are worthy of death, yet in future times to come will not only do the same, but have pleasures in them that do them."

ZEB: - "Therefore these things are inexcusable when Fundamentalists preach of judgement upon such actions of fornication. Whosoever judgest another, they judge themselves and condemn their own actions because they that judge also do the same things, and God, the Righteous Judge will render unto every man and woman according to their deeds; for their is no respect of persons with God. Your Scriptures record: "Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? And thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?" And the Lord God said, "My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh; yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."

O.G. - "You had stated earlier that the Lesser Avatars numbered 144, 000. In todays religious world there is an organization called the Jehovah Witness who make claim that they are of the 144,000. Are we being fed more false doctrines?"

ZEB: - "The possibilities lie within the core of understanding, yet it is of false indoctrination of truth. Though they may not be altogether in bearing the truth, take to understanding that there may be some of the unfolded Spirits embodied in them. Who is to say that it may be one or two within this group who may bring some order of understanding within their ranks? Yet I disclose this truth, it would not be possible that this religious sect be fully the 144,000. You must logically look over their demands which, in all respects appears to be large egotistical imaginings on their part. It is realized that their organization now numbers well over 144,00, even into the 500,000 availability of participants. When these 144,000 unfolded Spirits of Higher Octaves first appeared on Earth, they expanded their lives into many different areas upon Earth, and not in just one locale."

ZEB: - "And what of those in their oranization who are not a part of the 144,000? Would they not become jealous and cause division within their Church when some are not established with the 144,000? They are but dreamers of deceit and lies. My friends, do you have any further questions? Brother George needs to have his mind at rest."

O.G. - "No, there are no more questions. You have given us more than we expected. We are happy that you gave us this opportunity to have my questions answered. We thank you. It's been over three hours with this session. It is now 3:32 in the afternoon."

ZEB: - "We are happy that you were able to retain the questions. We will not break this telepathic communication for the present and will meet with you at a later time, for we have others upon your world that we are in contact with. Contact Finished. Shastal Neb. Imenubicob." Contact ended at 3:43 p.m. Feb. 20, 1958...

Dearest Friend Wendelle:

After reviewing my past experiences and considering the great many items of interest that have occurred to me over many years, I began once again to reread the interesting experiences that happened with Leo Dworshak and his brother Mike in Leo's book "UFO's Are With Us - Take My Word" that have interrelated items and show a reciprocal relationship with information given to me some years ago that have come to my attention which I feel you should have that would make a closing epilogue for the book you intend to publish, or that you may wish to add to parts of my experiences that may well fit into certain areas.

No one has all the answers to many of the questions that have been placed upon ones integrity of the accounts that have been fostered upon a subject that has long since been subjugated to a bewildered public; leaving many hopelessly drawn into prejudices, debate and ridicule, with ones reputation being questioned to the limitations of dispair. To this day I feel the lingering affects that move and stir my emotions to great lengths and wonder aimlessly why this all happened to me, and for what purpose. I always felt a great sense of determination and strength to hopefully relate to some interested party of these higher relative experiences that have sometimes drained me to certain limitations beyond my control. Over the years I became frustrated because there wasn' t anyone available besides my twin brother that I could share such unwinding knowledge befitting a higher scholastic standard of inspiration in truth.

I found my youthful expectations with becoming an adult very painful at times, not that the experience or truthful information had any disadvantage over me, but that I was mingled within a world of doubters, of disbelievers of celestial truths that any professor of theology or teacher of the higher realms of understanding would find satisfying to say the least. I found my own world of learning to be entirely different than that which was embodied to my intellect: in a world of dreamers that took no chance of grasping for future rectification of insight, but instead closed the doors of opportunity and advanced technology and placed upon me to be the dreamer or hoaxster of tales that they deemed as my own imagination. Dickens himself proclaimed, 'what fools these mortals be;' and was not far from the truth.

I found the experiences in the developments of technology that I received so far advanced beyond our own scientific schooling, I began to wonder when our world would ever grow up and acknowledge the benefits and achievements that have been literally thrown at us. I recall my days in physics classes when technical matters were discussed and I would try to place the input of our celestial teachers into their hands, not revealing where I received such knowledge, and I was told that it was impossible to fathom the material given as relevant and functional for scientific usage, yet I was a B+ average student in the class. Their concideration on the matters that I had given was a debatable question. But they never sought to advance themselves in matters above themselves.

Because of the prejudices and ignorance of certain individuals that swayed others on the path to become excited or aroused and react in a specified way to bring my binders to a blaze because of criticism, I have lost doubtless pieces of material that would have benefited many, with photographs beyond imagination that have joined in the blaze of glory. And though it has rendered upon me a deepened sore, a festered instability that has left me with deepened mistrust, through the years I have overcome the strains of doubters who dwell on ignorance, and place my intellect on my celestial mentors for the security and trust that continues to endow me with strength and stability. They are ever at my side, even to this day as I skimmer my brainwaves with their insight that enables me to procure and remember forgotten passages of intellect.

I often remember the size and color of this beautiful image that gave me hope and a different mode of understanding when viewed upon a landscape of earthly domain; whose size made me take note that though it was large and forebearing, it could outdo, outmaneuver and outclass any military or civilian aircraft of our time. It was of breathtaking beauty, displaying its tremendous technology beyond my dreams. Its color was that of burnished bronze that gave tremendous appeal to the outlining desert terrain. I speak of it now in my growing years which no words could match its beauty and stability. I recognize it as something more significant than in my youthful years, though I beheld its rare beauty, I was unable to recall in words a more sincere and breathtaking phenomenon of antiquity. There it stood in the desert sands, a machine that casts its' tremendous lights in living colors of silver and gold, with its revolving lights of various hues of blues, purples, orange, yellow and white that reflected on the hillside as rainbows that moved clockwise and counter-clockwise from its centercome.

When it sat, it balanced upon its center-cylinder, with a door that opened unseen and had favored its' builder with confidence and superbness beyond ones expectations. Its size was almost to the height of a three-story building, some 25 feet. And its circumference was in width of 150 feet, with four rectangular windows or viewing ports in intervals - four plus four plus four above its baseline. At the top there appeared the color of a crystal that stretched forth over the lower levels, being three in all. It was a dome-shaped crystal that shone with a great brilliance, like a sapphire stone or diamond. One other interrelated correlation was the appearance of the celestial beings that Leo described as beings who would pass for any human in the world today. He even described their dress garments as one-piece suits. This description matches my own, their appearance and garments. The only difference was that one of my celestial friends was much taller than the other one, which stood out rather sharply.

One other related matter was the invisible wall that Leo and Mike could not penetrate nor even distinguish its presence. The only difference was that their invisible wall extended farther out than that of the craft I encountered. The magnetic field of transparency only covered a few feet away from the craft and was lowered or turned off when I was permitted to enter. While Leo and Mike had to remove their clothing and be bathed in a mist of disinfectent, my encounter merely embraced my body to protect me from any harm physically before entering the craft, and had me make prayer as a further means of protection. When I entered the craft, I did have to remove my shoes and socks and they gave me some form of slipper to protect me from electric shock or a magnetic flux. I can recall the warm tingling sensation as I entered the elevator that took me to the first level. It was here that I was told to remove my garments and put on one of their own one piece garments that took away any earthly germination factor.

I was told that I was in a totally different environment and that on this level I would soon feel somewhat encased in an atmosphere of silver enzymes that came forth out of my garment. I do remember feeling somewhat dizzy and was told that it would soon pass and that I would be okay. I remember being told that when I was at the age of five and older, when I entered their craft, my body did not go through the earthly atmospheric materials and did not need to go through these certain barriers as I was experiences when at the age of 28, when I became accustomed to the aging processes that the body encounters as one gets older. They informed me that it was for my own protection and theirs. I was told that when the magnetic forces of the craft become attuned to the magnetic forces of earth, a shield goes up, otherwise these forces would cause winds that would create sand and debri to filter into their craft. When one enters the cylindrical elevator, the magnetic field pushes the earthly air back out, preventing further mishaps with their instruments.

Another of the correlation experience that Leo mentioned and exactly as that which I saw was when the craft lifted upwards and continued to rise, it went with a tremendous speed that it completely disappeared or vanished. I was later told that they had the means to go interdimensional, more simply put, into another dimension which showed to me that it just simply vanished. Although Leo and Mike could not understand what had occurred, I was somewhat in the same boat until my studies brought me into the subject of physics, when my mentor noted that I would be able to relate to their viewpoint and understanding, and was given the knowledge of compressions and dimensions which differ greatly. What was more astonishing to hear and receive is that they also had a third type of dimensional travel, and that was achieved by just "Thinking" their way to their objective by simple means of "Thought."

But I learned that one of their modes of travelling through cosmic space was by a what they termed as a 'drive' that was necessary to surpass the speed of light by millions of times, when the speed of light had been achieved. I was told that their craft required to types of drive mechanisms - the first being the normal acceleration to the speed of light, and the second - the hyperdrive, which generates to a million-fold and even a billion-fold, and hyper-space is then pierced and penetrated. I was not given the specifics or details as to their functioning since I would not comprehend anyway. I was told that other crafts utilized a hyper-propulsion system which surpasses time and space: utilizing programming crystals and certain minerals, which they refer to it as "tacheons," which are generated and harnessed in both drive systems with a variance and different magnitude and attitude. But, when they really want to get moving, they utilize their 'thought' channels travelling into a higher dimension just by Thought.

This may all seem like a re-run, yet not altogether the same. Another similar incident and correlation was that which Leo mentioned about his thoughts. Were they his own or did they actually come from them? At one point Leo mentioned that they had known his thoughts and even discussed with them about having to get on home, and another time when he saw the ship when he was older and a man and wife stopped nearby while he was observing the ship some distance away, and when he later had contact with them, they mentioned to him that they had observed him with the other people out on the highway, and that they had monitored him on their sensor system, listening to his conversation. The couple were frightened and did not wish to go with Leo, even though he had encountered their craft some years earlier in California.

It appeared that they were using 'their' sensor system, yet from other conversations with them, Leo realized that they could read his thoughts beforehand. This was what I was getting at, that they had the ability to read ones thoughts similar to what I went through for many years. In all the time I had made physical contacts, they knew my thoughts before I had a chance to even speak, and even knew what questions I wanted to ask them -- very similar to Leo's experience when he stated that they already knew what he was going to ask before he opened his mouth. I've found out later that many others had this same experience with telepathic and thought transference incidents. It's nothing new and has been used possibly in Atlantis and Lemuria; a science of the mind so to speak.

One experience that Leo had that I did not have was observing the blending methods used that made the ship blend in with the color of the sky, which I thought to be a marvel, which made it difficult for anyone to detect the ship close up or at a distance. It did not reflect light like our ordinary objects did, but absorbed the light around it, creating patterns and shades of any color desireable. The extraordinary creativity of blending makes a far better camouflage method than anything I've ever known. There ability to blend in with the sunset and to match every color and pattern was to me a feat of higher intelligence with none to match it. That was something that really caught my attention because I have never experienced such a blending with my own experiences.

Another matter of correlation was their ability to speak English and German. With my own mentors, I was told that they could speak fluently any of the known languages of earth because of their instrumentation that they had on board which allowed for learning and translations. The similarities of their reasons for coming to our world matched with Leo's; that they were more or less caretakers of the planet, and were well aware of the usage of powers that science of earth deployed in our weapons of warfare as destructive tools that should be eliminated. Our world misuses the creative tools within the minerals of earth for weapons that could destroy the entire planet, which portrays us as a backward planet, seeking for rule and power. There are many that are prone to use different methods of approach towards a peaceful world, but they do not number with those seeking for world domination.

Though it was hard for me in my own youthful years to try to understand why others would not want to believe the stories of celestial contacts made it somewhat easier for me to see Leo's reasoning along the same lines, and why others did not care or try to understand matters that were very real to us. As the years went by and more and more movies and books were written portraying these alien events as hostile, with many tales of abductions being thrown our way to make it appear that we may be invaded by an alien race of being, even with the Orson Wells scare on his radio show of a Martian invasion, made it possible for so many government nations to keep the lid on the 'real' reasons concerning our Celestial friends and their true purpose and meanings for their visits to our world. I learned that the governments of the world knew secretly that our world was being visited by alien races, but, that they wanted to have it all to themselves - - keeping as many of the facts and materials from the public. They also deployed certain recovered artifacts by the military with the thoughts of using them for their 'war games', making contracts with civilian organizations to find out the workings of these artifacts and see if they were genuine. The governments even went as far as approaching magazine editors, newspapers, and the movie industry to create illusions and fiction stories to keep the average citizen from learning what was really behind their methods of secrecy

To this day the lies about our Celestial friends are still being told to the public, harboring the truth for their own gains. I have yet to see any form of an aggresive act done by the aliens on any nation of the world, except for the 'supposed' contract with Eisenhower and the aliens in 1947 that was stated to be accurate. It makes me angry to know that certain leaders of nations take advantage of the public who are gullible enough to believe their lies, and continue to keep many in the dark in total secrecy. Any action that the public may make in its investigations is totally blocked, and tear down those who sincerely experienced the Unknown. We are dealing with an intelligence beyond our scope of understanding. They have always expressed their warmest feelings toward us and only wait for us to ask for their assistance. But the military is bent on bringing their craft down for their secret military means.

Wendelle! One of the most amazing correlations with what Leo described blended so perfectly with what was revealed to me concerning Joseph and Mary when they went to Bethlehem for the birth of Immanuel [Jesus]. Leo described how these beings could stop a bird in flight and hold it motionless in midair, and could also catch a rabbit in its jump and stop it in midair, making it to just stand still, holding the birds and rabbit in that position for some minutes or hours until they would release them and they went on their way like nothing ever happened -- like time standing still. According to what was revealed to me, it was a similar experience that happened in Bethlehem. There may be those that will scoff at this information, and I know we all have 'free will' to believe or disbelieve. My reasoning was heightened because it came from ones whom I trusted and believed in, who were not prone to telling tales or lies. Their revelation was as follows:...

Joseph and Mary travelled the Merchant's camel route to Bethlehem, and she was great with child. They reached Bethlehem in early August, on the 7th day of the month at harvest time, when wheat, barley and grain were harvested in summertime. Joseph had Mary rest on a wooden bench near a well in the center of town while he went to find a place for shelter. He found that the Inns were filled with Merchants preparing to sell their wares, and there were no rooms available. He went from Inn to Inn and houses too but still found nothing available. He happened to look skyward and noticed a very bright silvery object that had the appearance of a star - high in the cloudless sky that just stood there over the town of Bethlehem. He wondered upon the object as he continued his travels looking for some shelter.

As he walked toward the edge of town he sensed a strangeness in the air that seemed ominous and in a way, frightening. There was a flock of birds flying near and above him when they suddenly stopped in their flight and remained motionless in the air with their wings spread out as if in flight. Before him were some people preparing their early evening meal at a table out in the open air, with their children at play, when suddenly Joseph noticed that they all remained motionless in their tracks as if some strange force was holding them in that position. Next he saw a donkey and its caretaker walking nearby who also became frozen in their stance. Now Joseph was really considering the events and recorded them in his mind, wondering on all that was occurring around him; being perplexed and somewhat frightened. He quickly hurried to the edge of town, glancing back over his shoulder on those frozen forms of birds, beast and people.

He finally came to a house that he noticed that had a barn at the rear of the house, and inquired with the occupants if there was any room that they could afford him and his pregnant wife who was near her time of conceiving. The occupants told him that there house was so small that they would not be able to help him at all, but that they had a barn that might do for his wife and him, that they would have their housekeeper prepare a place for them. He thanked them and said he would return quickly with his wife. He rushed to bring the news to Mary, and as he passed the donkey and caretaker, the family and children and the flock of birds, they suddenly were released from the unknown hold on them, and all was back to normal, as if nothing happened in that period of time. When Joseph was settled in the barn with his wife Mary, he told her of the strange events that took place as he was searching for shelter. Nothing more was said as the housekeeper helped them prepare for the child's arrival. But Joseph kept all that happened in his thoughts, because he knew it had some dealings with the silvery object in the sky.

With regards to another correlation event, it has to do with what Leo reported that they could stop any moving object at any range or distance desired. They could reverse the trajectory or path of any moving object at any time, and could return anything that was thrown at them, right back to the spot from whence it came. Again I make mention that a similar event occurred when I was aboard their craft and we were travelling the Cosmos [or heavens], and a rash of meteorites were heading straight toward them on the same path of their vehicle. Though it was somewhat different with regards to reversing the trajectory of the meteorites, they simply made their vehicle to become invisible while the meteorites trajectory passed right through them. They could have changed the course of these meteorites, but I was told specifically that they do not interfere in any way with what the Creator has planned for these meteorites or any other heavenly objects trajectory because it is in the plan of Creation.

Yet I recall a similar incident that happened while they were contacting a doctor in Mexico, and their vehicle was in an open field while they communed with the doctor, that a crowd of observers had seen the craft and believed it to be a omen of evil, and began throwing large stones and big branches at the three of them. It came as a surprise to my two mentors and the doctor, but not one branch or rock struck them; – rather, the objects were sent back to those releasing them, but because of their laws of the Creator, they would not allow the stones and branches trajectory to hit any of them, but fall to the left or right of the observers. Their law does not allow them to harm any Creation of God. And soon, the observers ran off and the mentors mission was completed.

When Leo recorded that the reasons for their great intelligence is their ability to utilize twelve senses, since we only utilize five of our senses, I was never given any details concerning the utilization of twelve of their senses. Yet I am in agreement with Leo that 'they' are highly intelligent being with abilities of receiving our thoughts before we speak, their telepathic ways of communication, their loving attitudes for all, and their tremendous amount of technology and knowledge on any subject, and the ability to speak all languages of earth. It would be a great wonder and achievement to recognize those twelve that are among us, living full time on our planet. I strongly believe that if they wanted to reveal themselves to anyone, they would certainly learn all they can about whom they will reveal their identities too.

Since it is known that they have been continually traveling to our planet for over five thousand years or more, I strongly believe that the governments and science should take note and release their information to the world. These individuals must come to their senses and understand that the public should be made aware that these advanced mentors do exist and they are not figments of ones imagination, or swamp gas. That's the most idiotic and ridiculous statement ever imposed upon us.

I recognized another correlation of knowledge that Leo spoke on, and that was why he did not understand the number twelve figured into so many things they explained. Knowledge and understanding given to me some years ago made for a good explanation. He mentioned about the 'twelve galaxies' that exist and a Supreme Being that exists beyond the twelve galaxies. Our discussion about worlds, planets, systems and galaxies brought about a wonderful understanding of all these heavenly bodies. The figure twelve [12] is a supernal number that is widely known throughout the galaxies. All Creation hinges on solar numerology: such numbers as [1], [2], [3], [7], [8], [12] and [24]. Almost all Systems are made up of twelve [12], such as our own, though astronomers have only been able to locate nine -- it doesn't mean that the other three do not exist, because they most assuredly do.

Systems are given in Sectors and our System is in Sector 4, Nep 3 - SHAN [Earth]. This is how their charts locate a given planet. The word NEP makes for simplicity of location, recording the location that we are the third planet from our sun [Sol]. Our particular system of planets is in Sector 4, in longitude and latitude represented by the charts in sequence. All that is necessary for them is to push a button on their console unit to bring up on the screen a certain planet that they wish to investigate or explore. Their methods of charting is magnificant and absolutely fool-proof. It appears that they would never get lost in the outer Cosmos.

It was further explained to me that beyond our system of twelve planets lies another system of twelve, and within our own longitude and latitude distance. It is then known to be in number of twenty-four [24] within the Centrosome Magnetic Lines of Force widening its scope of existence. Beyond that there is another system of twelve, creating a larger scope of thirty-six [36]; and beyond that another twelve, which then creates a CenterFold of forty-eight [48], and so on, until we come to what we term our Milky Way Galaxy. Our astronomers and scientist discovered that within the Pleiades Constellation there were Seven bright stars. These Seven Stars can be seen with the naked eye, which make up the Wee Dipper, or Small Dipper. But there are five more star systems not seen by the naked eye. The Ancient astronomers called this system the Seven Sisters. The names of these systems are Alcione, Merope, Atlas, Maya, Electra, Teygeta, and Coeleno. I asked for the other five names, but they told me since they are not visible or known, it would be useless for me to acknowledge them, and that no one would accept my statement since even our astronomers were not knowledgable to this.

It is a fact what Leo stated, that our system is one of twelve galaxies that are linked together. What is astonishing to comprehend is that as there are twelve galaxies linked together, the universe is far greater than anyone has ever anticipated. The twelve galaxies then grow into 24, 48, and so on: a fathomless universe of universes – there being universes within universes and on and on and on, with no beginning or end. There is always room for many more in the Creator's Creation of worlds.

I wish somehow that i could have known Leo and made his dream that some day he would be able to share his experiences with someone who would understand it all and believe it. As he has had problems these many years trying to get someone to believe him, he is not alone. My own frustrations and penetrating prejudices have made me become a closed book on all my experiences. There were only a few who believed whom I met at UFO meetings. But it never went any further because they all went their separate ways. I know that my youngest daughter has accepted and believed my reports being a strong believer in other things as well, such as miracles and other strange phenomenon. But most people do not believe me nor accept such phenomenon as crafts from other worlds. Many close their minds to everything unknown and mysterious to them. I know why people fear them -- and that is because the governments want to keep such knowledge to themselves and not share with the common person. They are selfish tyrants with no thoughts of opening up to a world of hope and trust.

I leave you now Wendelle, to let you know how many similar events were outlined in Leo's life and my own. It's uncanny how life becomes entwined with others of the same caliber, yet being miles apart. This being the end of the holiday season, I do hope you had a wonderful Christmas and wishing you the best in the New Year ahead. I respect your interest in my experiences and material sent. If it be the Lord's Will that a book comes forth out of all of this, I welcome it with open arms.

With fondest regards;

UFOs Are with Us-Take My Word $8.00

By Leo Dworshak

In 1932, two German-American farm boys in North Dakota made an otherworldly discovery that would change their lives forever. It was a dusky summer evening when the twelve and eight-year-old brothers stumbled upon a machine in the mountains unlike anything they'd seen before. Bigger than the Dworshak barn and "round like a silver dollar," the contraption rotated and flashed multicolored lights. Something like an invisible fence prevented the curious youngsters from approaching the "ship," so they sat and watched instead -- sat and watched as an unusual door opened and out walked three men.

The Dworshak brothers observed this unearthly ship and its passengers repeatedly and on into adulthood, even going so far as to talk with the men and enter the saucer, gaining extraterrestrial knowledge along the way. Almost seventy years after the first sighting, Dworshak shares his awing account of close encounters with beings from another galaxy.

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

Martin Wiesengrun as a 15 year old youth living on the E. German Island of RUGEN on the Baltic Coast in 1957, then under Russian rule when it was completely isolated from the West, and completely uninformed on the UFO phenomenon being reported in the West, became an involuntary UFO "Contactee" being visited by tall human beings who told him they came from an inhabited planet in the Aldebaron Star System.

They visited him a number of times and took him aboard their 50 meter diameter craft repeatedly. They took him aboard their shuttle craft to and into a much larger mother ship where their whole ship went inside the bigger one and parked there. One time he stayed with them for three days.

They told him much about Earth's ancient history, and even described visits from Aldebaron over a very long time, even millions of years, and of the participation of their ancestors in evolving the development of modern Earth Man to occupy this planet. They showed him many things.

He had to keep silent about all this because of the inhospitable political system at the time but kept accurately detailed notes on all of this, which are only now being published in this Autobiography.

The work is notable for its extreme detail in descriptions and for the number of separate and distinct race types working in cooperation with the Aldebarons.

THE ASSIGNMENT

Earth /Extraterrestrial Passionate Romance

By

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

The lore of this UFO Phenomenon is uniquely exotic in its own right, but is it really as sterile as it seems to be – all quite businesslike and no romance? In the course of my fifty years investigating UFO cases of actual contact with human beings, I found a high incidence of interest in the sexuality of Earth humans and quite frequently the extraction of ovum from the females and semen from the males. This was often a routine part of the physical examination

Sometimes copulation actually took place, and in some instances seemed to be the preferred method of extracting semen from the males. This raises the question of personal recreational sex. Do they indulge in that aspect like Earth humans, or are they like animals and only use this gift for procreation?

Two actual cases of Earth person/Alien ET romance have come to my attention that are sure to cast some light on this.

This case involves Alien male/Earth woman contact and was an enduring ongoing contact that lasted for years.

UFO CONTACT FROM PLANET UMMO

Vol. 3

The beginning of the UMMO contacts
UMMO lifestyles

By
Wendelle C. Stevens

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

The UMMO contacts long established, since 1950 in Spain, and the forerunner of future contacts in 18 other separate countries around our globe, has been ridiculed and put down by the popular debunkers as dozens of different things, from a secret society of University Students to the Knights Templars, etc., but none of those allegations now holds water.

The perpetrators in this scenario would now be over 50 years older and no longer prankish students; and the Knights Templar would have mostly passed on and out of the picture. Nevertheless, those UMMO contacts are still going on in a number of countries as UMMO students and scientists arrive and replace those finishing their tour.

This book goes back to the beginning of those contacts in Spain where most of the descriptions of life on the UMMO planet were imparted to Prof. Fernando Sesma, a well established authority in his own right as a Spanish teacher and intellectual. Translated UMMO documents included.

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

There is an old saying, "A picture is e pictures always worth a thousand words." Photographs have been made of Unidentified Flying Objects since the beginning of photography back in the late 1800s. August Roberts was one of the first real professional photographers and collectors of UFO photos. He was a newsman and specialized in photographing the early UFO events and the personalities. I investigated and collected pictures of real UFOs since 1947, amassing over 4,000 actual photographs of authentic UFOs.

We collaborated and set out to publish many of the hundreds of the then better genuine UFO photographs in what was anticipated to be a 10 volume set of hardbound library style books. Vols 1 and 2 were published in the late 1980s. Vols. 3 and 4 have been ready for many years and 5 and 6 are about half done. Still lacking the money to print up Vols. 3 and 4, we have decided to release them now anyway in the new E=Book format. They are on my new Website being listed as www.ufophotoarchives@aol.com and may be accessed there now, or they may ordered by mail in Mini-Disc format for uploading and reading or printing out from your C drive in your computer.

Rather than taking the photo events chronologically. which would have resulted in the earlier poorer quality photos, mostly in black and white, being collected in the first volumes, we decided to present the pictures in vignettes by groupings.

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

In keeping with our original plan to mix the UFO pictures presented into selected groupings by class, such as buzzing UFOs, Humming UFOs, light flashing, rotating, metallic, glowing, light absorbing, etc., so as to avoid all the poorer black and white earlier pictures being concentrated in some few volumes, we decided to select them in the various categories for exhibit in our volume series presentation.

In every case we report here we include all the available photographs in the series in sequence in the event and any and all UFO photographic tests and analyses that may have been done on those pictures.

There are 30 to 35 UFO photographic events in each volume and line drawings of most of the objects photographed.

Each book, in the back pages, includes a part of a complete chronology of UFO photo events, worldwide, running in sequence from volume to volume Until the catalogue is complete.

Vols. 3 and 4 are now also available in my recently established Website www.ufophotoarchives@aol.com and may be accessed there for download for reading or printing.

CANCER PLANET MISSION

HUMANITARIAN INTEREST

Herr Ludwig F. Pallmann, a health food processing equipment salesman, working in Peru and hearing of a giant Arrowroot species growing in the upper Peruvian Amazon, set out to find it. He departed from Leticia in an Indian dugout and was taken up a tributary of the Mari River. Those Indians left him at the edge of their territory and he was picked up by another tribe who took him further up to an encampment of toga garbed white skinned people living in conical structures and served by silvery 30' diameter flying discs.

Those beings told him they came from another planet they called Itibi-Ra. They were operating a plantation here where they were hybridizing plants from Itibi-Ra with ours

UFO contact from Planet ACART

FROM UTOPIA TO REALITY

By

A. Berlet and W. Stevens

Artur Berlet, a County roads grader driver in Sao Paulo, Brazil, was walking a short cut through fields from his bus stop, when he came upon a landed disc with the occupants out and collecting plants from the field.

Believing him the owner of the field, they abducted him aboard their ship and took off for their home planet called ACART, about the size of Earth with some 20 billion inhabitants, thinking he could help them propagate successfully.

When they discovered on ACART that he knew nothing of such agricultural practices, they apologized for their error and prepared to return him. But, saying that it would take about 2 weeks to get another ship ready, they would treat him as their guest of honor in the interim.

He was escorted about the planet observing life there for the waiting time, and he took careful note of their society. Upon return he filled 17 notebooks with narrative about his observations. This book is a summary of those notes.

UFO abduction at BOTUCATU

A preliminary Report

By

Rodolfo R. Casellato Joao Valerio da Silva

And

Wendelle C. Stevens

This is the report of an involuntary abduction by UFOs of Sr. Joao Valerio, a Hospital Doorman at Botucatu, who was also taken to another planet overnight and stayed in a stone building there. He carried a small borrowed Instamatic camera with him and got pictures. He maintained a diary of his contacts which is reproduced here. Much exotic esoteric phenomena was involved.

Chapter 9 reports a summary of another involuntary abduction case, car and all, of a fundamentalist Jehova's Witness Minister and his wife, and Rev. Herminio Ries' dialogue with the Ets. This will be the subject of a new book, UFO CONTACT FROM PLANET KLERMER in the near future.

This is a report on the abduction of Sr. Herminio Reis and Sra. M. A. O. Bianca car and all from the road near Matias Barbosa in Minas Gerais state and their return to another place. Herminio, a Minister in the Christian fundamentalist Jehova's Witness faith tried to preach to the ETs and to convert them, but instead lost his religion and went to teaching Yoga. Their contacts continued for some time after this and they learned much from the visitors. They remained aboard for some time in discussion using a language converter translating device.

EARTH DEVELOPMENT

By

Oswald Gonzalez and Wendelle Stevens

Mr. Oswald Gonzalez' experiences with ET beings began in 1936 when he was only 5 years old and continued for many years, through the advent of the now popular phase of the phenomenon in 1947. By then he was already an oldtimer.

By High School he was making notes on his contacts and then began keeping a diary of his dialogues with the Ets

By 1949 he was typing up his contact notes and filled 12 notebook binders with them. He was an avid researcher and read all he could find on the subject. His contacts continued until 1972 when events in his life changed for him.

This is an amazing record of actual contacts that began 11 years before the word "Flying Saucer" was coined by the Press over the Kenneth Arnold report, and which predated nearly all we know now. Many subsequent cases have now proved a great many things that Oswald experienced then.
